

God In His Universe

(Show Us The Father)

Connersville, Indiana
June 11, 1953

1 Happy to be here, and greet you with the warmest of Christian love, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, who suffered for us, the Innocent for we guilty. And one time being alienated from God, now has brought us nigh unto Him by the shedding of His blood, that we're called sons and daughters of God. It does not yet appear what we shall be in the final end, but we'll know we'll have a body like His, for we shall see Him as He is. That's worth it all, isn't it? That's right.

Well, last evening I was thrilled till my heart was almost standing still, when I looked and seen that tent full of people seeking God. That was a greater thrill to me than anything I've seen in a long time. It's the first time I've made an altar call, I guess, since I left Africa.

One ... the altar call there consists of thirty thousand--got saved at one time. And then, when they had seen the glory of our Lord.... And that was about the second altar call of that type that I've had since I left Africa.

2 I remember we was standing in Durban, and there was about some hundred thousand, close to it, gathered in. We couldn't see what was down the street for three or four city blocks. And so there were many doctors and people sitting around. And upon a platform built ou.... It was a racetrack in this, but it was much larger than Churchill Downs. Durban has the second largest in the world. London, England, has the first ... the largest racetrack, then Durban, South Africa. I think Churchill Downs ranks fourth, or third, or fourth, fifth, somewhere along then.

3 So the place was just jammed with people all out across the track this way and all, and the stand was built way out in the field. Then for three city blocks, down every aisle, they were sitting in the streets for three city blocks. They couldn't get the people in. And many of them packing little mud idols and claimed to be Christians, going along, but when....

That afternoon the mayor of the city brought me out, and I was talking to a man--a colored man there, he was just.... I said, "Why are they packing them tags?"

Said, "That means they're Christians."

I said, "Well there's a man packing an idol, and still he's a Christian?"

Said, "Oh, yes." Said, "Would you like to talk him?" He said, "He's a Zulu; I can talk to him."

I said, "All right."

Now, we pulled the car in. He said, "Just call him John, or anything you want to call him, he'll answer you."

So, and I called the ... a name; well then, he answered through the interpreter, of course. And I said, "Are you a Christian?"

"Oh, yes." He was a Christian. And I said, "Well, why the idol?" had blood sprinkled all over it, little mud figures. Oh, they had all kind of freakish looking things.

And I said, "Well, what's the.... What about the idols?"

"Well, that's god too." See?

And I said, "God too? There's only one God," see.

And he said, "Oh, that was god." Said his father packed it.

And I said, "Well, what'd your father pack it for?"

Said, "Well, one day the lion got after him, and he built up a little fire and said a prayer, and the lion went away. So it was a god of power." So he packed it, too. If the Christian God failed, then he'd go to that one. Not very much Christianity there. You see?

So then, I said, "There's nothing in that idol."

But that day, the first one on the platform, I'll never forget.... They couldn't give out prayer cards; we just had the missionaries to go out and get so many out of each group and bring them to the platform. And there was. . . .

4 I remember the first woman passed across the . . . what they told me, and the tapes reading them back. There was a woman who had had a female disorder. And she was a Mohammedan; she had a red dot between her eyes. There's some twenty or thirty thousand of those over . . . way over to my left (see) in that direction: and very staunch Mohammedans. (Mahatma Gandhi's boy was there.) And so they said. . . . They have a red dot; the priest puts it between their eyes; and that means that they deny the existence that Jesus was the Son of God. They believe in God--Jehovah God--but they believe Mohammed was His prophet (see) and not Jesus. Said, "Jesus was a good man, but He wasn't the real prophet that Mohammed was."

In Jerusalem they got a wall built, and on one end they got a little, bitty tower, that's where Jesus will come to. And they have a great big tower; that's where Mohammed's a coming. You talk about superstitions, this world certainly has got them.

Then when this woman come up, why, they had talked to an interpreter, and they said, asked. . . . I asked her if she believed. She said, "Yes." So it told her about what was her trouble.

She looked at me; she said, "That's right," (see) through the interpreter, of course.

And I said, "Your husband was with you when you went to the doctor."

She said, "Yes."

I said, "He's wearing a gray suit, wasn't he? Doesn't he have a mustache?"

Said, "Yes." That was right, see.

And so I said, "Why did you come to me, and why didn't you go to the priest at the temple?"

She said she believed. And I said, "Well, you believe in Christ?"

And she said, "Krishna."

And I said, “Not Krishna, Christ.” Krishna is their incarnated god. I said, “Not Krishna, Christ.” And she said.... I said, “Well now, do you believe me to be His servant?”

“Yes.”

I said, “Then if I be His servant, I speak of Jesus Christ.” I said, “Will you accept Him as your Saviour?”

She said, “Yes,” she would. And then we prayed for her.

5 Then the next one come was a woman with a very odd thing. The woman didn’t have hardly, I forget, just a little something didn’t amount to much. But when the woman was standing there, it begin to get real dark around her. And I watched it; it faded out; and I seen them packing her away. Now, many times I see death at the person, but I won’t say nothing about it; I just say, “The Lord bless you,” pray for them, send them on away, see. Because prayer could change that, see. Hezekiah did in his case, didn’t it? It changed it. So I won’t tell them unless I see that it’s already.... This woman was being packed to the grave.

And I said, told her what her trouble was, and she said, “That’s right.” And she was an Afrikaans woman. Which, an African.... We usually think; we think of Afrikaans, he’s a black man, but an Afrikaans is a white man. An African is a black man, called Kaffir.

6 But this woman, when she came, and was telling her what her trouble was, very minor, but I said, “Lady, you prepare for death, because you’re not going to live but just a little bit.” In less than twenty minutes she was a corpse, see. Walked right off the platform and set down, begin to say, “Well, now....” She was talking to her husband and them out there and said, “I can’t understand it; I’ve never had no sickness, just a ... maybe a little cyst or something.” And in a few minutes she was standing there laughing about something, and just right over she went, and that was it. She died right there. And see, if I’d been a healer, I’d have healed her, see. I’m not the healer; God is the Healer, see. So I could only say what He told me.

7 And then, the next coming through was a little black boy. Now, some of you little children here, when you go out here to this fountain, and drink, and the many things you have.... Do you know how little African boys have to drink? They lay right down and drink anywhere they can find some water; no matter if it's muddy or what it is, they have to drink it anyhow; they haven't got any more. And when they eat, they just find whatever they can find; they have to eat that; because, well, haven't got nothing else to eat.

8 And these little fellows, when they have a cow, and they take a porcupine quill and stick it in its throat here, in its jugular vein and drain what they call a gourd, but it isn't, it's made out of animal skins, a little sack, about like that. And they drain half full of blood, and then milk the rest of it with milk, and put a stick and churn it up and down like that, and it makes a cake, like a lollipop. That's what they have. And this little fellow had had his diet. And they wear no clothes, just a little bit of beads.

9 And so, his little tummy here was just as bloody as it could be from where he'd eaten his meal. And he--poor little fellow--was cross-eyed, and he was standing there. And I said, "Now, of course, anyone knows I couldn't heal the child." I said, "You can see it's cross-eyed." But I said, "God is the only One could heal it." I said, "I couldn't have nothing to do with it." I said, "As far as its little life, how ... what happened, or what's ... if there's anything in the way, God would perhaps show that to me." But I said, "Now, to heal it, I can't, because I'm just a man."

10 And I guess there was twenty doctors or more sitting on the platform. The medical association give me the right hand of fellowship--right down through Africa. Said, "That's truly divine healing." And so, we had that all in papers. If anybody, any doctor, happened to be present, like, to look it over, well, that's perfectly all right, see. We'd be glad to let you see it.

And so they ... this little lad was standing there. And while I was looking at him, I said, "Why, I see...." I said, "The boy was born that way." I said, "He come that way."

11 And so ... and the Zulu interpreter.... They had fifteen different interpreters there for fifteen different tribes of people. So they ... Zulu interpreter gave that, and the mother raised up that that was the truth, sitting ... the place out on the plain there. Said that was right, she raised up her hand. And then, while I was looking at the little fellow, I looked right back at him again. He was out of a Christian family. I looked back, his little eyes was straight as mine or yours.

So I said, “Well, of course, anyone knows he’s already healed.” He was standing about as far as that chair from me. I said, “He’s healed--there’s his eyes. You’re looking at him.” So I said, “Pass on, little lad.”

And the interpreter said, “Pass on.”

12 And I heard an argument over here on my side, and I wondered what it was. And I was looking at someone else, fixing to pray for them. And so, then I happened to hear.... There was a doctor trying to get over where I was at. And so, Mr. Baxter told him, said, “No, you can’t do that.” And Mr. Bosworth was trying to get him away, and so they.... He just kept on; he wanted to come anyhow.

And so, I turned around, said, “What’s the matter, Doctor?”

He said, “What’d you do to that boy, Reverend Branham? Did you hypnotize that child?”

I said, “Certainly not, certainly not. I couldn’t hypnotize him,” see.

He said, “Well....”

13 I said, “If hypnotism will make his eyes straight....” I said, “You mean to tell me they gave you a license to practice medicine, and don’t know no more about hypnotism than that?” I said, “Well, if hypnotism would straighten a child’s eye, you’d better start practicing hypnotism,” see. I said, “It wasn’t hypnotism; it was the power of God.”

14 And they had beautiful, big lilies up in the part of the country where we were at. They had a bunch of them sitting on the platform. I said.... He said, “Now, I know God’s in those lilies,” said, “that’s true.” But said, “Now, God, being out here visible to make that child’s eyes straight, I can’t see that.”

I said, “Well now, the only thing you’ve got to do is.... You can either take what I said, the boy’s eyes....”

He said, “Well, I let him through the gate.”

I said, “Then you know his eyes were crossed.”

He said, “Sure. I was standing here looking at him.”

And I said, “Well now his are straight, isn’t it?”

Said, "Yeah."

I said, "Jesus Christ," I said, "did it. So now, it's all in [unclear words.]"

So he said, "Just a moment." And they started to pull him back, Mr. Bosworth. And he said, "Just a moment." And he walked to the microphone, said, "I want to accept Jesus Christ as my personal Saviour, too."

Then, a little while later, God gave a great miracle of a crippled man. And that's when the miracle of God was performed, when in that one day thirty thousand souls come to Christ.

15 Now, we have. . . . This is Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Sunday; four nights yet, and Sunday afternoon service. I certainly appreciate you people of coming out here on these cool nights, and they're. . . . And a nice little audience for this city here, way out away from other cities and things. You have to drive, and this is two weeks. You don't know how I appreciate it, and how that you've been a great inspiration to me. I mean that from my heart.

16 Last night, God begin to speak to me about something after I left here. Now, I don't mean to say that now, like that He came down to me in a vision. I'm very particular about that. And then this morning again, it came to me again. Brother Beeler, tomorrow night, if possible, I'll buy you a spool. I want what I say tomorrow night on a recording so I can send it to the "Voice of Healing," and every one of the religious papers; I want this article published--what I want to say tomorrow night--if you'll do that for me. It's something that I've been wanting. . . . It's been coming to my heart for some time. I want to get it to you tomorrow night--it's concerning divine healing--if God willing.

17 Tonight, I promised you I was going to talk about a Gospel subject and. . . . See, divine healing is. . . . That's the bait that's on the hook. As I said the other night: you don't never show the fishy the hook, you show him the bait. And so we. . . . That's what divine healing. . . . Jesus Christ, about eighty percent of His ministry was on divine healing. But in there, they watched and seen that He . . . what He done was of God. And then, He told them the truth, and that's what won them to God. That's what is . . . the ministry's for. That's what God intends it to be for.

18 And now, tonight. . . . Now, don't forget; tomorrow night I've got a special talk I want to say, maybe, just previous, or prior to my sermon, rather. And then, I promised every one of you here that come, that we was going to pray for everybody here if we possibly could. And God being my Helper, I'm going to stick to that, as I . . . see. I want to pray for every sick person that comes to be prayed for. I want to do my best to pray for every one of them, so . . . before I leave this city. And I couldn't ask for no more time. The mayor of this city, and the board, and so forth, has been very nice to us. We appreciate them, and the businessmen, and every one of the city, all the officials, to let us have this place, and we're grateful to those men. And I pray that God will bless them in every way. Bless the little city in every way that it can be. And may you grow and prosper, and God be with you in everything you do.

19 I just trust that you'll have an old-fashioned revival, that every sinner in this city will become a Christian, is my prayer. Let him belong to whatever church he desires to, that's his business. I hope that every person comes to church, and does what's right. That's [unclear words]. It's the. . . .

20 [Blank spot on tape.] . . . if you'd like to read it with me, or . . . why I'd be glad for you to do it. And now, said:

Let not your hearts be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father's house is many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go and prepare a place for you.

And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

And where I go ye know, and the way ye know.

Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not where thou goest; and how can we know the way?

Jesus said unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me.

If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

Philip saith unto him, Lord, shew us the Father; and it sufficeth us.

Now, may the Lord add His blessings as we pray.

21 Our Heavenly Father, we thank Thee tonight for the blood of Jesus Christ, God's Son, that cleanses us from all sin. And knowing as we bow our heads to the dust from where we were taken, and knowing that some day we got to return back to that dust. The atoms that holds this body together will break, some of these days, through the corruption of the flesh. They'll be loose in this air where they was before they made up this body, but, God, You know where every one of them will be. Every man that's borned of the Spirit of God has everlasting life and shall never come into condemnation, but has passed from death unto life. And we thank Thee for these things.

22 Lord, our hearts tonight, as we look out across the world and see the great signs of the Scriptures being fulfilled; and see the world, as it was, staggering in with a headache band around it, wondering what next. Great atomic weapons and hydrogen bombs and everything in the hands of sinful men, for one relay of that could blow the whole earth to bits. And knowing this, that the Bible has spoke so definitely of the last days, how these things would be.

23 Looking around at the nature of the people, seeing that we're in the spirit of the last days. They had to get in the spirit of the antediluvian world before they could be destroyed. They have to be in the spirit of war before they can have war. God, let us be in the Spirit of Christ tonight so we can have Christ. Let us be in the Spirit of repentance, a spirit of faith. Give it to us tonight, our Father, these great treasures of life. They're so freely, just by asking; realizing that the greatest things of life, and the only real lasting things are the unseen.

24 And may Thy Spirit come tonight and fill every heart. Reclaim every backslider and save every sinner. And may those who are seeking the baptism of the Holy Spirit, may He come tonight and fill every heart. May the sick be healed, God receive glory. For we ask it in the name of His beloved Son, Jesus our Lord. Amen.

For a subject, I want to use this: Show Us The Father And It'll Satisfy Us. The word sufficeth means "to satisfy."

25 Now, that's been the hungry call of the people for ages: to see God. How many of you here tonight would really like to see God? I'd just like to your hands. Would you like to see Him? Well, if by God's Word and by God's help I can bring God right in this meeting that you can see Him, will you accept Him? That's what I want to ask you, if you... Well, there's a third of you would accept Him, anyhow. The rest of them wouldn't if you seen Him. [Brother Branham laughs.] I was just going by you raising your hands. I don't believe you meant that.

But now, God is just as real as the light is here in this room. Now, we want to look at God tonight and see if we can see God.

26 Now, Thomas wanted to see Him here ... or, Philip, rather. He said, "Lord, show us the Father and it'll satisfy us. If You'll show me God, it'll satisfy me." Well now, that ought to be a satisfaction for anyone. "If God is so great, let's see Him. Let's see what He looks like; and that'll satisfy me if I can see who He is and see what He looks like. I'll know who to worship, and what He is." That sounds sensible and reasonable, doesn't it?

27 Now, let's just see if we can find God tonight in our midst now. Let's take of God in about three or four different ways and see if we can find Him. Let's speak of God first in His universe; let's speak of God in His Word; God in His Son; and then God in His people, and see if we can find Him here tonight. Now, I'm going to take those four subjects there and try to talk on them just for a few moments to see if we can see the Father.

28 Every man since the dawn of time has longed to see God, want to look at Him. Job one time said, "Oh, if I only knew where He was." In other words, "If I knew where to go and knock on His door, and He'd open up the door, and I'd come in and sit down and talk with Him." That's the way people want to see God, and yet God was so close to Job till He was speaking to him.

29 And a little later He said, "Now gird up your loins. I'm going to speak to you like a man." And God came down in a whirlwind and began to speak to Job. And Job began to see the flowers and nature.

30 I want to speak on His universe first, because that was my first Bible. My people wasn't religious, and my first Bible was the universe, watching God. I don't believe there's any man that's got his right mind, or a woman, that could look in the face of a flower and say there is no such a thing as God. I believe it would show a mental deficiency on the part of the person that could look at a big, beautiful calla lily and say there's no such a thing as God.

Why, all the science we've got in the world can't even make one little blade of grass. That's right. They can make something that looks like it, but they can't make the grass, because it's got life in it, see. Just how great God is, and how people look way over the top.

I think if you'll listen to this closely tonight now, we'll get our minds right down, divine healing will be so simple for you after you see where God is and who He is.

31 Now, Job, he watched the flowers and he seen how they would die and raise again, and then it would die and raise again. And he begin.... In the 14th chapter of Job he said, "But when a man dies, he giveth up the ghost. Yea, he wasteth away and his sons come to mourn his death, and where is he?" He's gone. No one.... He doesn't rise again. But he said, "Now, you take the little flower when it...."

32 Here, you women around here with your flower beds. They're beautiful. I admire them as I go through the streets and look at them. At a motel where I've been staying out here, they have a beautiful flower garden. And now, if you'll notice, this fall some of them will be young, some will be old flowers. But when frost strikes it, it's death, that's all, whether they're young or old.

33 And that's the way death is to the human race. It strikes young and old just alike. No matter who you are, when death strikes, it's going to take you whether you're a infant or whether you're just in the adolescent age, the bloom of life, or whether you're old, or whatever it is. Death's no respect of persons. It comes to all.

34 Well, when death strikes the little flower, you notice it bows it's little head, just as reverent. The petals drop off and the leaves drop off, and a little black seed falls out. Then they have a funeral procession. The rains come and cry down in the fall of the year, and bury the little fellow.

35 And then the first thing you know the freeze comes. Maybe the little seed's laying about that deep under the ground where the fall's rains buried it. And then after a while, the real cold spell comes and it freezes. Then the little old seed freezes. The pulp bursts, runs out of [Break in tape.] The seed bursts open, the pulp runs out. And then the winter continues on through the blizzards, and the blizzard after blizzard.

36 Then after a while along about February, the last of February, first of March, the stalk's gone, the bulb's gone, the seed's gone, the pulp's gone, the petal's gone, the flower's gone. Everything there is is gone. Is that the end of that flower? No, sir. Just let that sun begin to warm that earth again and that flower will live again. Why? There's a germ of life in that flower that no man can find or no winter can freeze out. God has made it in His own way, and that little germ of life is preserved in that ground and that flower will live again.

Well, if God made a way for a flower to live again, what about a man who's made in His image? There's a way somewhere for that to live again.

37 Here not long ago, I was sitting with old Dr. Spurgeon, an old Methodist minister. Now, he's a real good old brother. We were sitting, eating some ice cream together. The Agriculture Hour... Kind of a little 4-H club, now has got a little machine that turns out corn. The Agriculture Hour, they had it. And that little old... Many farmers are sitting here probably know of it.

38 And that machine will run out a grain of corn so perfect that you can take a handful out of the sack that was run out of the machine and a handful out of the sack that was growed in the field and mix them together, you couldn't tell them apart if you had to. And this over here that the machine run will make just as good a corn meal as this one will. It'll make the same kind of corn flakes.

39 You take and cut it open and put them in a laboratory, perhaps the skin would look that thick under the microscope. The heart's in the right place. Put it under the analysis and it'll be the same amount of potash, the same amount of calcium, the same amount of moisture, just exactly the same. There's no way in the world of telling it, only one way. Bury them. The one that man made just rots away, and that's all of it. The one that God made has got a germ of life in it, and it reproduces itself again.

40 Listen. A man can stand, both of them going to church and both of them professing Christianity, but except this man's borned again of the Spirit of God, it's finished. That's all there is to it. And there's a germ of life that comes into a man that he lives again, because God has germitized his spirit by Jesus Christ, the resurrected Son of God. Amen. Certainly. Watch God in any way you want to.

41 Job begin to wonder why that man laid down and he didn't rise up. He didn't see him come up in the spring, but he seen the flower come up in the spring. Well then, when Elihu came to him and began to speak to him, he said, "Now look, Job, you're accusing God wrong." He said, "Now, look. That flower has not sinned. It stands right in the way that God made it, and it reproduces itself right back from death to resurrection, death to resurrection. All right. He said, "Now, but man sinned. And that separated him from God and resurrection."

So he said, "But there's coming a just One." Amen! "There's coming One who'll stand in the breech for this sinner, that'll put His hand on a sinful man, the Holy God, and bridge the way."

42 Oh, my. Job noticed it. He was a prophet, sitting on the ash heap. He got up, shook himself. He'd been scraping his boils, and he got up and shook himself. Said, "I know my Redeemer liveth." The lightnings began to flash, the thunders began to roar. The prophet got lined up with God, see. "I know my Redeemer liveth..." Liveth is continuation. "And at the last days He will stand upon the earth, and though the skin worms destroys this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God, whom I shall see for myself. Mine eyes shall behold and not another." I believe he did that at the resurrection.

And at the resurrection every person that's born of the Spirit of God will come forth in the resurrection.

43 I believe that it'll be just as we are here. You'll be little men, big men, and red-headed, and black-headed, and whatever you are. Now, a lot of people think that everybody will look just the same. God's a God of variety. He has white flowers, blue flowers, red flowers, pink flowers; big trees, little trees; big mountains, little mountains; plains. He's a God of variety.

44 And the principle of Christianity is based upon resurrection, not reincarnation; resurrection. If this belongs right here, this slip, and I drop that down. Now, that doesn't mean take this and put it in its place. That isn't resurrection. No matter it looks just exactly like it, but that isn't it. Resurrection is to go down and get the same one and bring it up. The same Jesus that went into the grave, the same Jesus come out of the grave. That's right. It's a resurrection.

45 God made angels. Mama used to tell me I'd be an angel when I died. I found out God never made me an angel. He made me a man, and I'll always be a man. I will never be an angel. God made angels, and He made seraphims, and He made trees, and He made men, and we're. . . . It's just resurrection. That's what it is, what Jesus Christ proved.

Now, to the Mohammedan and their superstitions, and whatever it is, yet God in His universe proves to us that the Christian religion is right, because it's based on resurrection. Watch everything else how it resurrects, His whole creation.

Now, look at God and see if we can look at Him.

46 Here not long ago, a little boy was going to Sunday school down in our city, to a very prominent church. And he heard so much about God till he said to his mother, he said, "Mother, I want to ask you something." He said, "Could anybody see God?" He said, "He's so great I'd like to know if somebody could see Him."

"Why," she said, "sonny, ask your Sunday school teacher." So they asked the Sunday school and he. . .

She said, "Well I don't know." Said, "You better ask the pastor."

So, the pastor was coming home with them for lunch, and he said, "Pastor, I want to ask you a question." Said, "Can anyone see God?"

"Oh," he said, "no, of course not. Why," he said, "no man can see God." Said, "No one can see Him."

47 Well, the little fellow was disappointed. And he used to stay down on the river. We lived near the Ohio river, and he used to go with an old fisherman up the river, a piece towards the Six Mile Island, fishing all the time. And one day after a big rain, along this time of year, he was coming, pulling down through the waters, you know. And any boatman knows how the music is, after the rain is over and the little bitty waves on the water, and let your oars clip across it as you're pulling your boat. It was clipping along like that.

48 The old fisherman had a long, white beard. He began to look over his shoulder. And where the sun come out, where the rain had been, made a rainbow. And he'd pull the oars, you know, and he'd turn around and look. The little fellow noticed tears dripping off his white beard, as it dropped down. He'd pull a little farther, he'd look back. The...

49 Oh, the little boy got.... He was setting in the bow of the boat, so he run up towards the stern of the boat. He said, "Sir, I'm going to ask you a question that my mother can't answer, my Sunday school teacher, or my pastor." He said, "God is so great." Said, "Can anyone see Him?"

50 And the old fisherman pulled his oars into his lap, threw his hands to his face like that and wept out, grabbed the little fellow and hugged him. He said, "God bless your little heart, honey. All I've seen for the past thirty-five years has been God. There's so much God on the inside, you can see Him on the outside if He gets on the inside." The old fellow was just so full of God in here, everything he looked at he seen God in it. You got to get God in here in order to see God outside.

You remember when you was first converted? Oh, how different things looked. The trees looked different and the birds had a sound like they never had before. Is that right? God had just come in here, God speaking out in His universe. How marvelous He is.

51 How I love to watch Him in His nature, God, how He provides things. Of the fall of the year, sometimes I go up into the north woods to go hunting. And I notice up there on the lakes, these little ducks come up from down in the south and go up there and make their nests on this lake. The little ducks are raised there; they're hatched out.

52 Well, along about September it gets cold, and the first breeze comes down across the mountain there, and real cold breeze. Well, them little ducks, now, has never left this lake. It was born right there on this lake. And there's one of those little ducks in that group is a leader, a little drake. And when that wind begins to blow down across through there, that little fellow will run out there in the middle of that lake, stick that little honker of his up in the air, honk four or five times and every duck on the pond will come to him.

53 And what he will do--he's never been off that lake; he was born there in the spring; it's fall of the year--he will raise right up off of that lake and go just as straight to Texas as he can go, to the rice fields, without a compass or anything. What is it? God working in His nature, working among His animals.

If God give a duck enough sense to know how to get out of the cold weather, what ought it do to a man that's borned again of the Spirit of God? Watch God among His ducks, among His animals.

54 You take for instance, like, you read in the newspaper and it says: Tomorrow it's going to be a pretty day. And watch that old hog go south, go over there on the other side the hill, on the north side, bring them shucks around on the south side and make her bed; don't you pay any attention what that newspaper's talking about. That hog knows more about it than what the newspaper ever could know about it. It's going to get cold weather.

You go hunting and watch those rabbits getting back under those shelters and things like that. Look out for rainy weather, see. God working in His nature. Don't you believe He does? Look at Him in His sunsets. Notice the sunset.

55 Here some time ago, I was up in Colorado. It was early in the Fall and we were hunting. Oh, how I love to get into those mountains. My, after all those hard meetings. I go way back and get on a horse, about thirty-five miles from civilization, way back across the Rocky peaks by myself. Just take couple pack horses and take off. Get back there, not so much to hunt the animals, but to be alone with God, right out among His nature. That's where I see Him.

56 And I remember that year, specifically, there'd been kind of a warm season. The snow hadn't come high yet, to run the elk down. I was way high, way up around almost in the shale rock. I was walking along through the evergreens that day. And it'll storm awhile, and then it'll snow awhile, and then the sun will come out in the fall weather, up high in the mountains.

Come up a storm, a real severe storm. And I got in behind a tree, and waiting there just a little bit till the storm blew over. And the first thing you know, the twister went through.

57 And after the storm let up, I got out from behind the tree and I stood there. Way back in the west, the sun was beginning to go across the crevices of the rock, peeping through: that great all-seeing eye of God moving down like that. And I noticed where the evergreens was froze, where the rain had been, it formed a rainbow across the valley.

58 Brother, you talk about deep calling to the deep. I looked at that, I set my rifle against a tree, I raised up my hands. I said, "O, great Jehovah, how wonderful!" I seen the rainbow. "Could you see God in the rainbow?" Certainly. God gave that as a covenant; He'd no more destroy the world with water. God was in the rainbow.

59 Then I see it in Revelations 1, when the rainbow was across the throne, where Jesus was standing; a covenant God had made with the people. He was to look upon as jasper and Sardine stone; the First, the Last; He that was, which is, and shall come; the Root and Offspring of David; the Morning Star. The rainbow, seven church ages, the covenant made with His own blood that He would save the people that would call on His name.

60 Oh, how marvelous! I looked at that. Tears began to run down my cheeks. I listened, and way over here.... The elk herd had all got scattered during the time of the storm. The old males would bugle, you know, and you could hear them bugling one to another.

My mother's a half-breed, a half Cherokee Indian. And there's just enough about me to make me love that nature, something down in there calling out. My conversion didn't even get to it.

61 Look. Then an old gray wolf on the mountain began to howl and it's mate answered in the bottom. You talk about crying. Something took place. I couldn't hold myself still. It was God to me, screaming through His nature. Yes, I believe God is in His universe.

62 I stood there and I run around and around and around the tree screaming to top of my voice. Somebody come by there, they'd thought they had a maniac out in the woods. I didn't care what they thought. I was having a good time. I was thirty-five miles from a living soul, as far as I know, and I was praising God. I didn't care there was anybody. I was praising Him. I wanted Him to know that I love Him.

63 Around and around and around the tree I went. I'd stop and I'd shake my hands and scream and cry, and around and around and around the tree I'd go again. I was having a good time. Amen. I could see my Lord in His universe. I seen His rainbow, I seen His great sun, yonder. I looked at Him. I heard Him scream over yonder in the wolf. I heard Him answer down here. I heard the elk. I heard Him in there. God's everywhere. If you just look around, He's all over everywhere.

64 I happened to hear a noise, and I looked over there and there was a little old pine squirrel. I don't guess you people, unless you been in the mountains, know what one is. They call them little mountain jacks. They're little bitty fellows about like that, and the noisiest thing there is in the woods, hollered at everything.

65 He was standing on an old stump. There was a blow down there. He was sitting upon an old stump going "chatter, chatter, chatter, chatter; chatter, chatter, chatter, chatter." I thought, What you so excited about, little fellow? I thought it was 'cause I was screaming, and carrying on. So, I thought, I'm not going to hurt you.

66 But I happened to notice coming out from under the blow down, where the trees had blowed over years ago--a blow down--there was some stuff there, and there'd been a great, big American eagle had been forced down in the storm and it was under that drift. That's what the little fellow was excited about.

67 So, the big eagle jumped out of there, and he sat up on there and he looked at me. I admired him. And I thought, God, why did You stop me over here to show me something here? I believe God's everywhere, if you'll just look around Him. I believe He's here right now. He's everywhere, if you'll just look around. God is in His universe.

How could that world tip and turn and everything, just exactly the way it does, and revolve to the same time through the solar system? My, you couldn't believe that without believing in God. How great He is.

68 And I wondered why God attracted my attention to that old eagle. I looked at him then. Why, I thought, He's just an old scavenger. Why would I be attracted to him? But I noticed him, one thing, his bravery. My! And I thought, Well, that's what the little squirrel's a barking at, it's that eagle.

69 Well, I looked at him. He'd look over at that squirrel, then he'd look over to me; he'd look over at the squirrel, and he'd look over me. I thought, Well, are you scared? [Unclear words] eyes flashed and looked at me, looked back to the squirrel. I thought, Well, God, one thing, I believe You're in that wolf's call, I believe You're in the rainbow, I believe You're in these evergreens, I believe You're in this wind that's whistling through these trees. Now, where are You at in that eagle?

70 But I noticed him, he was brave. There's where He was at. God don't like cowards. He wants men that's got backbone instead of a wishbone, somebody who says, "God's Word is right, and God's true and let everything else be a lie."

71 As Eddie Perronett said, "All hail the power of Jesus' name! Let angels prostrate fall; Bring forth the royal diadem, And crown Him Lord of all. When all around my soul gives way, then He's all my hope and stay. On Christ, the solid Rock, I stand; All other ground is sinking sand." That's right. God wants men and women who's got courage, and courageous enough to stand out and call black black and white white. That's right. Take that wishbone out and put a backbone in there, something that God can move on. That's right.

72 Then I noticed that fellow how he was standing there, how courageous, just as brave as he could be. I looked at him. I thought, Well now, he ain't scared of that. He's scared of me. So I thought, Boy, I won't hurt you. I admire you. Anything with that courage, I admire them.

73 I thought, I'll see if he's scared of me. And I said, "Say, you know I could shoot you?" Looked over at me as if to say, "You think so?" So I grabbed my rifle like that. He batted them big eyes. He looked at me again. He just kept his eyes right on me. I wondered, Why don't he get away? Why don't he fly? Well, I kept... What makes you so brave?" And I happened to notice. I caught on. God showed me. Just keep looking at nature, you'll find Him. Just keep looking around there at something, you'll see Him.

I noticed him. He kept going like this with his wings. He was restless . . . them wings. I thought, I see it, Lord. God, You gave him two wings. God gave that eagle wings and he had confidence in the gift of God that had been given to him.

74 After awhile he got tired of looking at me there, so he just made one great big jump like that. And he made about two flops and he was out into that timber. He never moved his wings another time. He just set his wings into the wind like that. And he just begin. . . . Every time a wave would come, it'd lift him up. And every time another wave would come, it'd lift him up. He wasn't patter-patter here, patter-patter there. He just let the air waves carry him on till he went plumb out of sight. I stood there and cried like a baby. I said, "O, God, let me know how to set my wings in Your faith. Let the Holy Ghost waves carry me on, on, on, on, on. Hallelujah! Yes, sir.

75 He left that little old earth-bound "hatter, chatter" here and "chatter, chatter" there. If we just knowed how to set our faith in God's power and move on out of here and let these people chatter, chatter, saying, "Days of miracles is past; there's no such a thing as divine healing." Fly away from it. Hallelujah! Ride away on every wave that comes. Just move up and raise up higher, higher. Just move out.

76 God is in His universe. He certainly is. I watched him till he got plumb out of sight and I thought, O, God, it's good to be here. Let's build three tabernacles. Watching God in His universe, watch Him among His nature seeing what He's doing. God's moving in His treetops.

77 David said one time--he was laying there; he was waiting--and he said he heard the wind blowing between the mulberry limbs, and he was ready to go on. I tell you, if there ever was a time we need a moving in nature and moving in man, is today. That's right.

78 Noticing Him how He. . . . One time, here not long ago, I come home; I was so tired I couldn't hardly stand up. I'd been ministering and ministering to the people in Texas. I was so wore out. I come out and set on a little old swing that was in the side yard. And I happened to notice: There was some old sand cranes going, flying down like that, going on into the river, down to the falls. They all gather there at night.

79 I was talking to my wife, and up come my piano player, Mrs. Gibbs. She come up. She looked at me sitting there. I was wore and lost about fifteen pounds of weight. And she just started crying, put something on my lap. I said, “Come on, Sister Gerty.”

80 Said, “You look so bad, Brother Billy,” and run out. I was sitting there. My wife and I tore it open. And there I looked. It was a picture, at a window where the sea was right level with the window. And there was a ship coming in, and the sun going down, and a star coming out. And there was a poem: “Sunset and the evening star, And one clear call for me; May there be no mourning at the bar, When I put out to sea.” You know the poem.

81 Just then, them old sand cranes went across, honking to one another, all gathering together. God had fed them all day long, out in the crawfish and so forth, around the ponds. They was gathering in. Down there at the falls that night to gather with their kindred, to roost through the night. God had fed them all day long. They didn’t neither sow, neither did they toil, but God had fed them. And when nighttime come, He had a place down on the rocks to provide for them.

82 And then two of my favorite birds, which is robins, (Don’t you boys hurt my little robins around here) and they flew up. They’d fed their little ones all day long, sang a little song for me, went into the nest. I sat there, and my wife, which is present now, sat there. And the tears began to come down my face.

She said, “What’s the matter with you, honey? I guess you’re just so wore out.”

I said, “No, honey. I’m watching God.”

She said, “Watching God?”

I said, “Yes. Do you hear Him down there in them old sand cranes going yonder?”

She said, “No, I don’t believe I do.”

83 I said, “Did you hear Him in that robin a few minutes ago?” I said, “He’s cared for them all day long. It’s coming time now to go to bed, and He’s made a place for them to roost all night long. They fed their little ones today. And some of these glorious days when I, too, the sunshine of my life shall be setting, and yours, too, I believe God has a place right out yonder somewhere (hallelujah!) where we will gather with His people.” Don’t you believe that? God will make a way of escape.

84 Here sometime ago, there was an infidel went across the country, oh, twenty, thirty years ago. And he was tearing up churches; smart, intelligent man. And he was tearing up churches and saying there was no such a thing as God. He went to England. He was too smart for them here. And he took off to England and made converts there. His health broke down and he come back, went out west to rest up. He’d make fun of the Bible. When he talked about how the antediluvian destruction, how it cut the hills and so forth, he thought that was nonsense.

85 So he took a little walk one day out along a path. He got to looking, hearing the winds coming down across the mountains. And he looked at them big rocks hanging there. He said, “Oh, Mr. Rock.” He said, “Really did you come the way I think you did, or did Someone that I don’t know put you there?”

Brother, I’m telling you, if preachers will hold their peace, the rocks will immediately cry out. That infidel fell on his face there and gave his heart to Christ. Why? The clergymen held their peace, but nature cried out in the midst of it all.

86 God’s in His universe. Why, He said, “God is able of these stones to bring children unto Abraham.” God in His universe. How He moves amongst His fishes. How He moves amongst His trees, among His birds. How He moves in His sunsets. How He moves in His sunrises. How He moves in all nature. Do you believe God is in His universe? Yes, sir. Then look out there at that tree. Look at anywhere you want to. There’s God. Amen. You couldn’t keep from believing but what God is in His universe. Certainly He is.

87 Look at the world, how it folds around. Every twenty-four hours it turns like this. And every three hundred and sixty-five days it goes around the equator. What in the world’s holding it up there? What is it? What keeps it there? Because God said so.

88 He set the moon yonder and said, “Moon, I want you to watch over. . .” I’ve seen them big sea waves, when I’ve been out in them, till they be almost high as this building here, beating against the ships and so forth. And I’ve seen them how angry, they’d fly against that bank and say, “I’ll come on across.” And remember two-thirds of the world or better’s in water. How easy it could sweep over the land. You know why it don’t? God said, “Moon, you watch it. I set its boundaries and it can’t pass.” Amen. God sets His boundaries.

89 How do you know your boundary line’s not set tonight to make your decision for Christ or turn Him away for your last time? There’s a line drawn, a plumb line. God sets His boundaries. God is in His nature. God in His universe moving among His people. God moves out. We look at it, and see, and behold how great His handiwork is, what He does, how He works in His nature to bring mankind to Him. I’ve seen Him in tornadoes, seen in great things, how that God moves.

Well, we all know now that God is in His nature. I have to hurry. I could put about a hour-and-a-half on that: God in His universe, how great He is.

90 Now let’s take God in His Word. We all agree that God is in His universe. All right, let’s put God in His Word. Is God in His Word? Yes, sir. God is in His Word. He will perform His Word every time, every place. Anyhow, He says it, He will take care of His Word.

91 Any man that’s ever made any showing at all in life, has been men who has trusted God and took Him at His Word. Right. Man that doesn’t take Him at His Word never amounts to a hill of beans. We’ve had a George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, and whatever more, but the greatest men that the world has ever had has been those who put their simple faith in God.

92 Come down through. . . . If I could ask any man tonight, “What do you think about God?” If I could call the prophets up. . . . The thing was asked one time, “Whose son is this?” And the Greeks come and Jesus asked them. He said, “Whose son is he?” And one said one thing and one another. But God was in His Word and He was in His Son and He is in His people.

Now, in His Word, every word of God is a seed. And every seed will produce just exactly what it is. You farmers know if you plant a grain of seed, if it's a wheat, it'll come up a wheat, whatever it is. And every word of God. . .

93 Jesus said a sower went forth to sow seed. And the seed, Jesus said, was the Word of God. Is that right? Then the Word of God will produce any divine promise in here that's made. If it'll fall in the right kind of a ground, it'll produce just exactly what it said it would.

94 I want you to notice. I noticed around here you have a lot of apple trees, apple growers, fruit. That's fine, cherries and so forth. Did you know your little apple tree, when it was just about that big, it had every apple in it that you'll ever get off of it. When it was just about that high, it maybe had. . . Maybe that apple tree will produce a hundred or two, or three hundred bushels of apples. And there's two or three hundred bushels of apples in the tree when it's just about that big, a half inch high. Did you know that? Every leaf that'll ever be on the tree is in it right then. Every apple, every blossom, everything that's on the tree . . . or, ever be on the tree, is in it right then. If it isn't, where does it come from? It's in the tree right then.

95 Now, the only thing you have to do is to plant the tree. And then what it has to do is to go to drawing. And it has to drink and drink and drink, till it drinks more than it's allotted part. It has to drink till it gets so full it pushes out. And it pushes out leaves. It pushes out buds. It pushes out limbs. It pushes out apples.

96 Now, that's the way we are when you receive the baptism of the Holy Spirit, to you sick people now. To you that are born again of the Spirit of God, when God planted you in Christ Jesus, which is the inexhaustible Fountain of Life, everything you have need of was put in you when you received the Holy Ghost for your life's journey. That's right. For your healing, for your salvation, for your joy, for your happiness.

97 The only thing you have to do is push out, drink, drink, push, drink, push. Hallelujah! Everything's there. You just have to let it loose. Go to pushing, go to drinking, go to [unclear word] go to reaching out; deeper depths, higher heights, it's all there. It don't need some divine healer to come by to heal you. The divine healing has already been purchased at Calvary. And the only thing you have to do--you're planted in Calvary in Christ--drink from the Fountain that never runs dry. Hallelujah! Oh, my!

98 I think of an old.... Talk about drinking, I used to go into the mountains; I think about a spring I used to go to there, and how that spring was the happiest spring I ever seen. Why, it was just bubble, bubble, bubble, bubble all the time. Every year when I went there it was always bubbling.

I sat down one day to talk to that spring. I said, "Mr. Spring, what makes you so happy? Because deers drink from you?"

He'd speak ... he'd talk, he'd say, "Why, no, Brother Branham."

I'd say, "Maybe bears drink from you, what makes you so happy. That's what makes you bubbling."

He'd say, "No."

I'd say, "Maybe I come here every year and you like me, and that's the reason what's making you bubble."

Why, he'd say, "No. It's not me bubbling. It's something behind me bubbling me, pushing me."

99 And that's the way it is with an old-time, born-again Christian. It ain't him being so noisy. It's Something behind him making him noise, bubbling him up, pushing him out, shoving him out, getting into higher heights and deeper depths of Christ. Amen. That's right. It's not them.

100 I noticed a nightingale when it'd sit in the bush. There used to be one when I used to pastor down at the Milltown Baptist Church. I'd come home and stay with Brother Wright down there, Brother Woods. And I'd come home at night, and that nightingale, I admired it. It would sit there every night and just sing to the top of its voice. And I thought, Oh, my! Isn't that beautiful?

101 Now, around my place up there they almost call it Nightingale Hill, there's so many nightingales. I like them. They just sing all night. And I wonder, What makes them...? I began to read up on the nightingale. Well, the nightingale, no matter how dark the night is, he'll look around. And the clouds are going over. And when he can see one star, that's all he has to see. He'll look right straight to that star and sing to the top of his voice.

102 I thought, O, Lord, I see You there, too. Yes, sir. Well, why? As long as I can hear a good old "Amen," or a "Hallelujah," or "Praise the Lord," or a good shout. . . . I tell you, the nightingale, the reason he sings that, is because that it's the sun shining on the star. If I would say to that star, "What makes you shine?"

103 He'd say, "It's not me shining, Brother Branham. It's the sun shining on me." Well, that's what's the matter with an old-time . . . what an old-time, Holy-Ghost, born-again, old-fashioned camp-meeting revival is. It's not them people excited, it's the power of God shining on them, shining out, giving Light.

104 And I'm telling you that there are nightingales in the Holy Ghost church, that when they see the first ray of light, they'll ring out the praises of God. Hallelujah! He said, "If they hold their peace, the rocks will cry out." Something has to take place when that mighty, rushing powers of God sweep over His audience of people. Hallelujah!

105 Sure, God is in His Word. God confirms His Word. God keeps His Word. Yes, sir. Little old David, I remember him keeping God's Word. Certainly. He was up there one day and they'd had a battle. And the battle was going bad. So God had come to him, by the prophet, and anointed him and told him what he was going to be. So David was satisfied. The Word of God was on him.

106 He goes up there and there come a. . . . He went up to see his brothers. He took him up some raisins and some fresh stuff to eat. And there was a big old giant on the other side of the hill, by the name of Goliath. Oh, my! What a horrible boaster he was! And he stood out there and he said, "Say, any you people over there that like to fight. . . ." He was just about five times the size of any of the rest of them. That's the way the devil does: When he thinks he's got the edge on you, he'll sure blow like an old goose.

107 And he said, "Oh, some of you guys come out here and fight me." He said, "I'll make you a proposition. Now, don't let's not cut up the whole army. Let one of your men come over here and fight me. And if he whips me, well, we'll serve you--we Philistines. But if I whip him, then you all serve me, serve this country." Oh, how the devil likes to do it like that, you know, when he thinks he's got the edge.

He said, "Well, where are you all at?" And I mean they was just like a little mouse on the other side. They were all quiet. Nobody had a word to say.

God had a little old boy back there with a shepherd's coat on, who knew God and knew God kept His Word. That's right. He happened to be up there one day when Goliath made that boast. He said, "Say, he made his boast at the wrong time." There had to be somebody there that believed God. Yes, sir.

108 Like they say, "The days of miracles is past. There's no such a thing as divine healing." Try to take it out of churches--the power of God. And these Pentecostal people's all excited. They made their boast one time too often. That's right. That's right. They said, "Oh, it'll finally die down." Yeah, I know they said it'll die down. Uh-huh.

109 Long time ago, when the church first started and Wesley got all typed off there, and all organized so the Spirit couldn't move in it. When they started off, they said, "Oh, you people back there in your little alleys somewhere, back in a little bitty bunch, it'll never amount to anything." But they forgot Samson's hair's grewed out now. That's right. Something's changed. The colors is changed. That's right. Said, "Oh, it'll soon burn up. There's nothing to it. It'll soon fan away." Listen, brother, sister, that's right.

When he was back yonder, awhile ago, when some of you fellows out on a street corner there with an old guitar paving the way for these kind of meetings. Back there at the church....

110 Every famous picture must first go through the Hall of Critics before it can be hung in a Hall of Fame. And I tell you that's what the church has done today: It's went through the critics. But one of these mornings God's going to hang her in a Hall of Fame out here, just sure as the world.

111 That great redeemed church sprinkled by the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ, symbol of the dove that was turned loose with blood upon her wings that cried, "Holy, holy, holy unto the Lord." When she passed across, that symbol of leprosy, which was a type of sin.... That same church is going to be caught up one of these mornings, hung in the Hall of Fame, as she cuts through the air yonder. Hallelujah! God keeps His Word.

112 Goliath come out and said, “Say, anybody want to fight?”

David said, “Well, who’s that guy?”

Said, “Oh, he’s a Philistine. He’s a warrior. He’s a great guy. He’s got us all bluffed around here.”

He said, “Do you mean to tell me that you let that uncircumcised Philistine stand there and defy the armies of the living God? Why,” he said, “shame on you.” He said, “I’ll go fight him.”

“Oh,” he said, “boy, run on back and take care of your sheep.”

“Why, my!” he said. “I’ll never stand and let that be like that.”

So they took him up to Saul, and Saul was seven foot, you know. So, great big fellow standing there. He said, “Now, look son, I admire your courage, but” said, “that man is a warrior from his birth and you’re nothing but a youth. Why, you couldn’t fight that man.”

And I like little old David, he knowed what he was talking about. He had a witness. He had a testimony. He said, “Your servant was herding sheep out yonder one day and a lion come in and grabbed a kid and run off with it. And I went and caught him by the beard, took it out of his mouth.” He said, “A bear caught a lamb, started away with it and I slew him.” He said, “And the same God that delivered me out of the paws of the bear and out of the mouth of the lion will deliver me from that uncircumcised Philistine.” Hallelujah! He knowed what he was talking about. Hallelujah!

113 Brother, the same Holy Ghost that give me eternal life will heal me when I’m sick. It’ll take me in the rapture. Hallelujah! God’s just as much in His Word on divine healing as He is on salvation. If the world’s mocking at divine healing, what do you care? They mock at the Holy Ghost whom you know you got it. God’s in His Word. Sure, He’s in His Word.

He said, “That uncircumcised Philistine.” Now, I want you to watch how a man gets away from God like Saul did.

114 He said, “Come here, then. I’m going to give you five years in the cemetery . . . or, seminaries.” Both the same place, bunch of dead people. I always feel sorry for a seminary.... Well, maybe I'd better not say that. I always think about a seminary preacher like an incubator chicken. He just chirp, chirp, chirp and ain't got no mammy to go to. There!

I don't care how much theology you learn; unless you're born again, you're lost. Hallelujah! That's right. It's the truth. You've got to know God by an experience of being born again.

That uncircumcised Philistine, he might've been religious. But, brother, there's a whole lot difference of try being religious and being even fundamental, and being borned again.

115 Now, so Saul said, "Look at here. I'll put my armor on you." So, could you imagine little David, with his shoulders about like that, with these big armors sticking out about like this, armor of mail? He put it on him.

He said, "Take the thing off. I can't go like that." And when they tie you all down to this kind of religion, you must say, "Ahmen" this way. You must do this way and make your vows like that. Saul found out that his great big old ecclesiastical vest didn't fit a man of God. It never does. No, sir. A man of God will go in the power of the Spirit. I don't care what the church has got to say to it. He always will. Yes, sir. He found out that clergy vest didn't fit him. That's right.

He said, "Take the thing off. I've never proved it. I don't know nothing about it." That's the way. You don't know nothing about your big words, and how to form your this, that, and that and repeat the doxology and say, "Ahmen" like a calf dying with the cramps. But I'm telling you, brother, what we need tonight is a man that's got an experience and knows what he's talking about. He's got power of God, who could back it up. Amen.

Excuse me. I'm not supposed to put my foot up on there. But I feel good. All right. Let me tell you, brother. God is in His Word. He keeps His Word. He sure does. And I can see that little David. My, my!

He said, "Well, how are you going to go out there to fight that fellow? Look at him out there."

116 He said, “Well, I’m going to trust God. God’s done promised it. And I don’t know how He’s going to make the way, but I’m going.” He went out to meet this big Goliath. And here he come then. He threw off the old vest, and that’s the way it is today. You can’t wait till you go through and take ten years of college, and ten years of this, and get your bachelor’s degree, and all these “DDDD.” “DD” stands for, “dead dog” anyhow, so just let the thing go. Come on. Preach the Gospel. Hallelujah!

117 Here he come along. Here he comes out there, you know, and he goes out to meet old Goliath. And first thing you know, Goliath looked at him and said, “Well, who’s this little shrimp coming?” And he walked out. That’s the way it was when I first started a few years ago; although I’ve met a bunch of fanatics that’s followed, that’s true. But let me tell you something, brother. There’s a real genuine article behind it, all the power of God.

118 They said, “You can’t prove divine healing and no such a thing as that.” And all like this. Said, “The opposition is too great,” and things like that. But who is that uncircumcised Philistine who’ll challenge the Word of God? That’s right. Who is he?

119 All right. They was having a time of it. Little old David picked up that slingshot. Said, “I know what this thing’ll do. I’ve tried it.” Now, brother, I don’t want none of your seminary’s experience. I don’t want none of your this or that or the other. But the thing I want: The same baptism of the Holy Ghost that saved me and raised me up, that same Holy Ghost will take me yonder. Hallelujah! That’s what I want to know.

120 Paul said, “I want to know Him in the power of His resurrection. When He calls, I will come out from among the dead.” That’s the main thing: in the power of His resurrection. Not some fundamental doctrine of something or other. That’s all right, brother. But the truth without the Spirit is dead. That’s right. You got to have Spirit behind it. That’s true.

121 Abraham believed God, but God give him the circumcision as a seal. And the seal of promise that you do believe God.... God gives you the Holy Ghost as a seal to prove that you do believe Him. And if you people get all the superstitions away from your mind right now, God will seal you into His kingdom by His Holy Ghost.

Amen! What's that? That's God's Word. He said He would do it. He said He would do it. Oh, my! I feel religious tonight.

122 Let me tell you something, brother. I see David then reach down there and he picked up ... crossed the little creek and picked up five rocks.

Goliath said, "Do you mean to tell me you come?" Said, "Why, this day," he said, "do you know what I'm going to do?" He said, "I'll take you on the end of my spear and I'll hang you up and let the birds eat your flesh."

123 That didn't startle that little fellow. He knowed what "Thus saith the Lord" meant. Walked on over there. He knowed he was uncircumcised, didn't even know what he was talking about. God promised to take the part and he believed He'd do it.

124 God promised to heal our sickness, I believe Him. God promised to give us the Holy Ghost, I believe Him. God promised He was going to take us to Glory, I believe it. That settles it. It's in God's Word and I believe it. That's all. And God's in His Word. He always confirms it.

Then the first thing you know, I noticed. And here come this guy out, said, "I'll do all this." He was making his big boast.

125 Look at little David. He said, "You meet me as a Philistine with an armor and with a spear, but I meet you in the name of the Lord God of Israel. Ha-ha-ha!" There's something different. Hallelujah! Said, "This day I'll cut your head from your shoulders." Oh, what a blow for a little bitty boy!

He said, "I'll show you." And I imagine he gritted his teeth, and here he come.

And little David, now, five rocks--J-e-s-u-s--in the slingshot, round in five fingers--f-a-i-t-h--faith in Jesus. Here he comes. Brother, away he went. He slung that stone and killed that giant. Hallelujah! And what did he do? Why, the rest of them took courage and pulled their swords and cut Philistines plumb to the walls.

126 What we need today is one man or one woman like David who'll take God at His Word and stand out there. Believe it. God's in His universe. God is in His Word. God is in His people. Do you believe it? Oh, He is. Yes, sir. He is. God's always been in His people.

127 There was an old prophet by the name of Elijah died back yonder. How well we could go with the Word and take the Word for hour after hour. How well we could take the universe and carry on that one subject the rest of the night. But let's get down here to a close, for a minute.

128 Look here, now. We got Him in His Word. We see Him back yonder in His universe. We see Him now in His universe. We see Him in His Word. And now watch Him in His Son ... or, in His Word, first. Before we get finished with His Word I want to bring this, how God is in His universe, God in His Word, and God is in His Son. Do you believe that? God was in Christ, reconciling the world to Himself. That's exactly.

Now, He was more than a philosopher. Some people said, "Oh, He was a teacher," the Christian Science idea. "He was a teacher. He was a good man." He was either God or He was a deceiver. That's right. He was God Emmanuel: God made manifest in the flesh and dwelt among us. The Bible said that God was in Christ, reconciling the world to Himself. That's exactly what it was.

129 Back yonder, beginning... Let's take a little trip to see who He was, and you can find out whether God was in His Son or not. Let's close our eyes as it was, and take a trip a hundred million years before there was ever a star in the sky; there was God. God was there then.

130 And now look in the beginning now. I see that great space yonder. And then the Logos went out of God, which was the Christ, the anointing that went out. And now no man... We're standing on a banister watching the creation come into existence, and see whether He was in His Son now.

131 And there He come out. There was nothing. And then here come the Logos. That looked like a halo hanging yonder. No man has seen God at anytime now, eye to eye. And here's the Logos. Looks like it's a supernatural Being. It's a halo. That's the Son of God. Not eternal Sonship, because the words don't go good together. That's Catholic doctrine, but... Eternal? How could it be a Sonship and be eternal? If He's a Son, he'd had to have a beginning of time. Eternal's forever, see. So eternal Sonship: There's no such a word to make that sensible.

But it was the Logos that went out of God. And there He was playing out there in space just like a child before the door. I can see Him draw the whole picture in His mind of the kingdom and what it might be.

132 And then the first thing you know I hear Him say, "Let there be light." And when He did, an atom broke yonder and the sun come into existence. I watch that sun burn for millions of years. The first thing you know [Brother Branham claps his hands together.] went a clinker. He stood and watched it. And it fell for a few million years and He stopped it. Then another one flew and He stopped it. While He was putting the solar system, He was writing His first Bible. The first Bible was written in the skies. Man looked up knowing that God was above.

133 Look at the Zodiac. It starts off with a virgin, ends up with Leo the lion; the first coming and the second coming of Christ. Everything in the heavens declare Him. Everything in the earth declares Him. Everything around declares Him. His people declares Him. His power declares Himself. His Son declared Him.

134 Now look at Him back there. There He was standing there. And then after He got the. . . . After all the clinkers went off and the stars and meteors were made, I can see this Logos go over and hang over this earth, brood over it, bring it back here around this sun and begin to break up the ice around it. The great big icebergs began to come down; Texas and Oklahoma was formed. She run into the Gulf of Mexico down there. He was making the ditches and the plains and whatever He made. Vegetation and things would come up after while.

135 Then after it all got melted and the ice run out and made water, then. . . . Now, we're in Genesis 1. You can take up from right there. Genesis 1: It was without form and void. And the Spirit of God moved upon the water. Is that right? In the beginning. Now, He separated the water, brought up the vegetation and everything.

And when He made everything that looked nice and good to Him, now He said, "Let us," plural, "make man," plural, "in our own image." What was He? There is a supernatural Being. There's the

One that could not be seen. God the Father never was seen, never will be seen. He's all nature. And there He is. And now here's the Son, which is the Logos that went out of Him, made in His image, a supernatural Being that went out in the beginning.

“Let us make man in our own image.” After He made a man in His own image, He made a supernatural being. Yes, sir. Genesis 1:28--read and see if that isn't right. And then when He made man in His own image, He had rule over the beasts. He led the beasts around then like the Holy Spirit's supposed to lead the church today. That's right. He led the church around and. . . .

136 Then He said, “There's no man to till the soil.” So He created man out of the dust of the earth. Now, He might've give him a hand like a monkey and a foot like a bear. I don't know what He did, but He put him in five senses. And He put this supernatural being which was called man, the third person of the Trinity, Holy Spirit, into mankind. Exactly right. That man and He made in His own image.

137 And He went around. Then He made him a helpmate. And the first thing you know, sin came into the world. And I can look at all of that that morning when God stood there before Adam and Eve. And when they sinned. . . . Of course they tried to make themselves a religion and dodge around, but it wouldn't do no good.

God said, “Where are you, Adam?” And Adam answered. And he's covered up with fig leaves, but his fig leaf religion didn't do any good. That's right.

So then, the first thing you know, God went out and got some skins. In order to get skins, He had to kill something. And He had to kill something to make a religion. And, brother, your old, cold, formal creeds ain't going to do you any good. God killed something on Calvary--His own Son--to cover up sin.

138 And could you imagine God throwing back in them bushes there an old pair of bloody sheepskin. Here comes the most beautiful woman ever lived in the face of the earth wrapped up, her blonde hair hanging down her back like this. Didn't even know she was naked before, with this old bloody sheepskin around her, the blood running down her beautiful form. And here come Adam the same way. His big manly shoulders and this sheepskin around him.

He couldn't stand no more naked. He was in shame. I got my idea of what it was. You can have yours. But, all right.

139 Just the same, they had sinned and had separated themselves from God. And there they stood there before God. And now look. He said, "Adam, because you listened to your wife instead of God, I took you from the dust and dust thou shalt return." He said, "Cursed be the ground for you, creepers and so on, and so forth, will grow up. And all the days of your life you'll earn your living by the sweat of your brow."

Then He said to Eve, "Because you listened to the serpent instead of to your husband, you brought ... took life out of the world, you'll bring life into the world. And I'll multiply your sorrow. Your desires shall be to your husband." And so forth.

He said, "Serpent. . . ." Now, he wasn't a reptile then. He was the most subtle of all the beasts of the field. And He said, "Cursed is you." And he took his legs from him and up on his belly he'd go all the days of his life. Dust should be his meat, and he'd be hated. That's where he is today.

140 But then when I see, when poor little Eve looked over in the face of Adam and knowed that she was the cause of the fall of the human race, she threw her arms around him. And Adam was not deceived, the Bible said. He walked out with both eyes open. Eve was deceived.

141 So he walked out. He seen that He wasn't deceived. So his wife was turned, and he put his arms around her. And listen. I can hear them as they start going out. Clump, clump. What is it? Bloody sheepskins beating them against the legs.

142 God! That old universe, I can see it begin to come down like a funnel, come down to one little thing with four letters, l-o-v-e. He just couldn't see them. He loved them so well till He couldn't see them go. And He said He'd put enmity between her seed and the serpent's seed. And that same clumping of them sheepskins, that bloody, beating against Eve and Adam as they went out of the Garden of Eden; that same blood of the Son of God beat against His legs as He went Calvary yonder with our sins upon Him, and the blood beating from His body carrying up yonder into Calvary. Do you believe that? God was in His Son. He was God. . . .

143 Now, look. When man was made in the image of God, he did not fall. When he was made in the image of man, he fell. When he was made in the image of beasts or out of the dust of the earth, that's where he fell. Then in order to be... The only way that God could do... If Christ was an individual man different from God, then God was not just. It wouldn't be right for me to send my son to pay a penalty of some penalty I'd put on somebody else.

144 If I said, "Whosoever looks at that will die." And then first thing you know, Brother Beeler there would look at it. And I said, "Brother Woods, you take his place." I wouldn't be just. If I said, "Billy Paul come down here and take his place," I wouldn't be just. If I'd say to my wife, "Take his place," I still wouldn't be just. And God is sovereign and just. And the only just way I could reconcile that man would be me take his place myself. That's right.

145 And God came down, as man was made in the image of God, then God came down in the image of man, in Christ Jesus, and dwelt in that tabernacle of flesh and took the sinner's place, and died the death, and paid the penalty, redeeming us from sin. Hallelujah! God was in His Son, reconciling the world to Himself. Do you believe that?

146 God is in His universe. God is in His Word. God is in His Son. Now let's see if God... When He was here on earth, you say it was His Son? Yes, sir. When He was here on earth, He said He was God. He looked like God. He acted like God. He healed like God. He died like God. He rose like God. He was God. God, the Son.

When God the Father came down and dwelt in His Son, Christ Jesus, and they in unity were one. That's what they was. That was God speaking.

147 As I said that other night: When God was out there on the ship that night, the woman said, "Why was that little old boat tossed around like that?" It wasn't the Man that was sleeping, but it was God who could stop the waves. It was the Man who cried going to Lazarus' grave, but it was God who raised the dead. The Man, Christ Jesus, cried. He was a Man, but God that was in Him could speak to the dead and it lived again.

The Man that was in Christ Jesus, Himself, He could hunger and want for something to eat around that tree. But the God-Man that was in Him could take five biscuits and feed five thousand.

148 God was in His Son reconciling the world to Himself. He's not going to let nobody tell you He was a philosopher, He was a good man, He was a prophet. He was God. Exactly who He was. I believe in His Deity straightly.

149 And I noticed... Then again, I want you to see God in His people. Oh, my! I think of the old prophet Elisha. After he'd done died and his soul ... or, his spirit had left the body. They had a dead man one day, packing him along. And they laid this dead man on his body and the dead man come to life, not because it was Elisha, but because God was still there.

150 It was Elisha who that day when the little baby got sick, that Elisha took his own body and laid upon the dead baby and it come to life. Is that right? It was God in His people.

151 When they come back there on the day of Pentecost and a hundred and twenty had gathered in the upper room, and they were so scared, they kept the doors fastened and the curtains pulled down. But when God ... had been on the outside; but when there come a sound from Heaven like a rushing, mighty wind and filled all the house where they were sitting, cloven tongues set upon them like fire, God was in His people. And out into the streets they went blazing, full of the Spirit.

152 God's in His people yet tonight, the same Jesus was then. Here, a few minutes ago, you were sitting... When I first come up, you were sitting here looking at one another. And then about five minutes later, you were screaming and shouting, some of you crying and wiping tears from your eyes and shaking your hands. What was it? God come among His people. God is here.

153 On the day of Pentecost when they went out and done signs and wonders, there was a man named Paul, had so much God in him he took a handkerchief off his body and sent it to a sick person, he got well. God is in His people. Yes, sir.

154 There was a man named Peter, couldn't even write his own name, or read it if it was laying before him. The Bible said he was ignorant and unlearned. He didn't have any bachelor's degree. So ignorant he didn't even know his own name. The Bible said he was ignorant and unlearned.

155 He passed through the gate called Beautiful. He said, "Silver and gold have I none." He sure was a holiness preacher. He said, "Silver and gold have I none, but such as I have, give I thee." Hallelujah! Glory! I'd rather have God in me than all the silver and gold in the world. Yes, sir.

"Silver and gold have I none, but such as I have, give I thee." Put his big hands upon him and said, "In the name of Jesus Christ, rise up and walk." And the man that had been lame in his feet from his birth begin to straighten his feet out, leaping and jumping and running to the temple praising God. Hallelujah! [Blank spot on tape.] That's what the Bible said.

156 God was in His Son. God was in His people. That same old fisherman, down there when he was converted with an old greasy fish apron around him, hollering, "Fish!" Maybe half a shilling for a bushel of them. When he was going there, when he got his heart right with God, them people seen God moving in that man when old Ananias, Sapphira come out there and the Spirit of God struck them dead. And they seen he was a prophet. They knowed he was of God till even ... that old fisherman, now, ignorant and unlearned, his shadow passed over the people, and every one that passed over ... [Blank spot on tape.]

Why, a woman told me sometime ago, she said, "Well, Rev. Branham," she said, "I believe you, but I never number myself among that bunch of illiterate holy-rollers."

I said, "Lady, just reminds me of an old colored man down South one time. He was always happy and singing. His boss said, What are you so happy about?"

"Rastus ... he said, 'I've got old-time religion,'" said, 'heart-felt religion.'

"Said, 'There is no such a thing.'

"He said, 'Boss, you made one mistake. You can say there is no such a thing, as far as you know.' But said, 'I know different.'

"One day it was raining; he said, 'Say, Rastus, could I get that heart-felt religion?'"

“He said, ‘Yes, sir.’

“Said, ‘I’d like to be happy like you all the time, singing.’ He said, ‘I’d like to have that heart-felt religion.’

“He said, ‘Well, you can get it, boss.’ Said, ‘It’s for you.’

“He said, ‘Well, where can we get it?’

“Said, ‘Anytime you want to get it.’

“He said, ‘Well, come on.’ So the boss led him over to the corn crib and over there he had some hay laying out. I mean, sacks. He said, ‘This is a nice place.’

“He said, ‘It don’t come here, boss.’

“He said, ‘All right.’ He took him up in the hay loft and it was nice up there. Said, ‘Now, it’s raining outside,’ said, ‘maybe we will get right down here. Maybe He will come and give me heartfelt religion here.’

“Said, ‘No, boss. It don’t come here.’

“He said, ‘Well, tell me where it comes.’

“Said, ‘Come on. Follow me.’ He walked out in the pig pen, mud up to his knees. He said, ‘Come on, boss. Right here where it comes from.’

“He said, ‘Oh, I don’t want it out there.’

“He said, ‘You won’t get it until you’re willing to get it anyway God sends it.’”

157 Amen. That’s right. You take God’s terms. You meet His terms, not your terms. God ain’t obligated to meet your terms, but you are to His terms. That’s right. I’ll take the way with the Lord’s despised few. I’ve started in with Jesus, O Lord, take me through.

158 And I stood yonder not long ago. Say, “Will it last?” Yes, sir. I stood there when my own baby, about fourteen years ago--fifteen--my only little baby, six months old when I was praying for it, and it died and went out from under my arms. I was walking up the road. . . . I’d lost my father, my brother, and my wife--you know my story--just because that I wouldn’t hook myself up with you people.

159 My mother-in-law said that we were too good to be with such people. Said they were nothing but a bunch of “backwash.” And I come to find out what she called backwash is the “cream of the crop.” And I say that with respect. That’s exactly right. I’ll say that with respects now to other churches. But I tell you, brother, I . . . I will save that for some other time. But let me tell you, that’s true.

160 And then I went up the road, walking along up the road, (I’d received the Holy Ghost) crying, going up the road. And Mr. Rice, was our state senator of Indiana, come and put his arm around me. Stopped his car and jumped out, (bless his heart) threw his arm around me. Said, “Billy, what about that Holy Ghost religion now?”

I said, “It’s just as good right now as it ever was, even better.” Hallelujah.

He said, “Do you still believe Him?”

I said, “How could I keep from believing Him? He’s a part of me, and I’m a part of Him. I couldn’t deny myself. He’s part of me.” And that’s what He is.

161 Oh, the people want to go to Heaven “On a flowery bed of ease, While others fought to win the prize and sailed through bloody seas. Though I must fight if I must reign, Increase my courage, Lord; And support me by Thy Word.” That’s right. Let me take the way with the Lord’s despised few. Oh, when they return back rejoicing because they counted. . . . They was happy because they could bear the reproach of His holy name.

162 Not long ago, I remember a little old woman . . . girl. Out in the country she’d went away, went over to the city to go to school, you know. She was going to learn a whole lot of things. Her brother went away to be a doctor. It was a very strange affair. Her old mother got sick while the doctor was away and so the doctor, or it was. . . . I beg your pardon. He didn’t go to be a doctor. He went to get his degree of doctor.

163 She got sick and she called for the doctor and the doctor couldn’t do nothing for her. She had pneumonia and she thought she’s going to die. So there was a woman down in the city that went to a Full Gospel Church, and she come up there and she said, “Lady,” said, “do you believe in praying for the sick?”

Said, "Well, I never heard nothing about it."

Said, "Do you believe in divine healing?"

Said, "Well, our pastor never says nothing about it."

Said, "Well, our pastor believes in divine healing." Said, "Will you let him come up and pray?"

She said, "Well, I don't know." Said, "Is it in the Bible?"

164 So she turned over to Mark 16. She read it to her. "These signs shall follow them that believe. They lay hands on the sick and they shall recover." So the Full Gospel pastor come up and anointed her with oil and prayed for her, and the woman got well.

So then, when the boy come home, he said. . . . Oh, he was just rejoicing with his mother, you know. And said, "Say, mother," said, "you never did tell me how you got along." Said, "What kind of a drug did you take?"

165 She said, "Oh, sonny, I'm so happy you mentioned that." He'd got his degree from college and so forth. He was going to be a preacher. And he said, "I'm so glad you mentioned that." She said, "You know that little mission way downtown there, down on. . . ."

"Yes."

Said, "That Full Gospel place." Said, "That preacher come up and read the Bible of Mark 16." And said, "He anointed me with oil and prayed for me." And said, "And you know, the Lord healed me."

He said, "Oh, mother," said, "the very idea." Said, "Why, you know that's not right."

"Oh," she said, "honey, it's in the Bible." Said, "Mark 16, he read it."

He said, "Mother, we learned over at the college that Mark 16 from the 9th verse on is not inspired."

The little mother said, "Oh, hallelujah! Hallelujah!"

And he said, "Why, mother. Why, ridiculous! What's happened to you?"

She said, “Honey, I was just thinking. Did you say Mark 16 is not inspired?”

Said, “No, no. It’s not.”

Said, “If God could heal me with uninspired Word, what could He do with that’s inspired?” Said, “If He could do that, what would He do if that was inspired?”

That’s right. If uninspired Word will do ... what will that which really is inspired? What would Mark 11:24 do? What would that do? Oh, my! Sure. God is here and He is with us.

166 The little lady that runs off to school one time, she was.... That puts me in mind of people that don’t like to bear the cross. Listen, friends. You must be willing to serve Christ. You must be willing to whatever it is, lay aside every weight that does so easily beset you and run the race with patience.

167 This morning early, going in, I was going down the road talking to my little wife back there. I just could not hold the wheel, just the tears rolling down my cheeks. I couldn’t help it. I thought, Seeing that we’re compassed about with such a great cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every sin ... or, every weight and the sin that so easily besets us. We’re running a race now with patience, looking to the Author of our faith.

168 Looking back there how they was tormented and made fun of and scoffed and sawed asunder, and wandered about in sheepskin and goatskins and deserts and destitute and afflicted. Oh, my! And the Bible said, “Of whom the world’s not even worthy of such a people.” All of those.

169 And said, “Now let us look to the Author of our faith who come down, the God of Glory, represented Himself with the holy-rollers.” Right. That’s what Paul said, “In the way that’s called heresy, crazy,” see. “So worship I the God of our fathers.” He was willing to take the way as a proud Pharisee. He come in to take his way with the Lord’s despised few.

170 A little lady went away to college here not long ago. And when she come home.... She’d learned so much. She used to go to church, but when she come back, she just knowed so much she didn't want. . . . Oh, she was just a smart-aleck. That's about what the whole lot of it learns, too.

171 So when she come back, she brought a little girl home with her. And her mother was standing out on the ramp to meet her. And when the cars stopped, and this young little smart-aleck was with her, looked over there and she said, "Oh, look at that horrible old wretch." And the little Mary was ashamed to admit that was her mother.

She said, "Yes, she looks awful, doesn't she?" And she turned her back and walked away.

172 And so when she got off the train, her mother looked and she recognized her daughter. And she run, threw her arms around her, said, "Darling." Her face was all drawed and her hands all drawed down, all like that. And she said, "Darling, kiss me, kiss me." And she was trying to kiss her daughter, and her daughter turned her back and walked away, ashamed; her own mother.

173 And a conductor, which knew the case, walked up and grabbed that young woman and shook her. Said, "Ain't you ashamed of yourself?" Said, "Your mother was beautiful one time. And when you was a little baby, up in the upstairs, the house caught fire. And they said, 'Let it alone.' And you were burning up in that house. And your mother, taking no thought of her own beauty, she run into that room as hard as she could, jerked her own clothes from her body, wrapped you up in it and brought you out. And she scorched and burnt herself like that." Said, "Because you're pretty today, is because she was made ugly back there so you could be pretty." Said, "Shame on you."

174 And I think of that today, brother, when Jesus was willing, the Son of God, to come from the ivory palaces of Glory down here and take a disgraceful name and humiliate Himself in human flesh, and be called a holy-roller, or religious fanatic. And walk up yonder and bleed and die as a curse on a tree, and you're ashamed. God have mercy on the people. Have mercy. And you're ashamed to commit yourself with His people.

175 If you're not born again, why not come and accept Him now? I wish that lady would go to the piano, while we bow our heads. Think it over. Through His humiliation; God made flesh. How can you reject such love? God came down, made Himself a man; called a fanatic, a devil; beaten, bruised for your sin.

176 And here you sit tonight watching Him in His universe, watching Him preached in His Word, see His power moving among the people, seeing Him in every way He can be, and then you're ashamed to take your stand for Him. When up Calvary--Golgotha's Hill--He went, walking with an old rugged cross on His shoulders till it rubbed the blood and . . . the bones sticking through. And a big fine church where He could have come and took over and been the King of the earth, but was humiliated for you. And then you're afraid of humiliation to claim Him as your Saviour. Think of it while we speak with Him.

177 O, Christ, the lovely One, the Darling of God's bosom, coming down from the ivory palaces of Heaven, clothed in the form of sinful flesh, humiliated Himself, born in a barn, in a stable. Why, Lord? Why? Because lambs are not born in houses. Lambs are born in barns. And they led Him away to Calvary, like a sheep to the slaughter. Led Him, like Abel led his lamb, and they led Him away, humiliated.

178 Looking back. Seeing the people, and them gambling and spitting on Him; His face full of mockery spit. But He was willing to bear it all that we could be saved. And then we poor, alienated Gentiles, carried away with dumb idols and lust of the world, living here in this day just before His coming, and then ashamed to take our way with the Lord's despised.

179 God, if there be a sinner man or woman here tonight who's never been born again, may they be ashamed of the way they've treated You, caring more for the things of this world than they do for You, turning a cold shoulder to Christ. And here He is, out here in this tree tonight. Here He is in the grass and the flowers. He's in His people. He's in His Word.

180 Comes in here in the form of an Angel and moves over the audience, proving Himself that He's the Son of Man that raised from the dead, doing the same things He did in the days gone by. And men sitting here, ashamed to take their way. Young women and young men thinking more of the things of this world than they do of God, and not knowing that tomorrow morning God may call for their soul to answer at judgment. God be merciful. Help, dear God, and may it cut real deep into the heart.

181 While we have our heads bowed, I just wonder, with every Christian praying, please, aren't you kind of ashamed the way you've done Him? What are you going to give in exchange that day? Is there a sinner here would raise up your hand, say, "Brother Branham, I'm ashamed the way I've treated Him. I want Him to forgive me right now, the way I've done Him. And I want to accept Him as my Saviour." Would you raise your hands just now? God bless you, you, you. Oh, all over the audience.

Look, it may seem old-fashioned. John Wesley preached these services like this. Dwight Moody preached these services. Finney, Sankey, Knox, Calvin. We just got away from it, you see. We just went away from the old path, that's all.

182 While us Christians are praying, if you've been here in these meetings and you believe that God sent me to these meetings and you appreciate Jesus Christ, and you want to be saved, I wonder, while you're with your heads bowed, how many would come stand right here before me so I can lay hands on you and pray for you to be saved, and want to accept Christ. Would you just raise up out of your seat and come? while we keep our heads bowed and sing this song:

Softly and tenderly Jesus is.....

God bless you, little lady. I seen God dealing with you all along there, this godly saint. Would someone else come now and stand by her side?

See, on the portals He's.....

(Are you ashamed of Him?)

Watching for you and for me.

Come home.....

God bless you, lady. God bless you. Softly now, will you come? Sinner friend, make your way, come here. I want to stand right here myself and pray with you. God hears my prayer to open the eyes of the blind, the deaf. Just in prayer, surely your soul will be saved.

calling, calling, O sinner....

God bless you, my brother. That's the way. Others are coming. Won't you come, too, sinner friend?

..... should we tarry.....

God bless you, brother. Won't you raise up now and come? God bless you. Come right ahead, young man.

..... you and for me;
Why should we linger and heed not His mercy,
Mercy.....

God bless you, my brother. God bless....

183 [Blank spot on tape] I stand as God's servant before you. I stand to declare the truth of God which is in Christ Jesus. You've come because not of your own decision, you've come because God knocked at your heart and told you to come, and you followed Him.

184 Now, Jesus said, "He that comes to Me, I will in no wise cast out." There's only one thing in the world that you can do any farther than this right now, is to believe the Lord right now. Believe that I've told you the truth.

Jesus said.... The Father drawed you here tonight. And He said, "Now, he that comes, I won't cast out." You repent and tell God that you're sorry for your sins and accept Him as your Saviour. Tell Him you're sorry the way you've treated Him. Some of you here just young children. Some of you are middle-aged. Some are old and gray-headed. Tell Him you're sorry for your sins and ask Him to forgive you. And He's willing and wanting to do it right now.

185 And that's the only thing you can do is believe Him now. Now, when you bow your heads here, I want these people that's standing at the altar to repeat this prayer after me, while the rest of you keep your heads bowed and in prayer. Now, I'm going to say the words, but now you mean them from your heart as you bow your heads now. Now, you just repeat after me, these here at the altar.

186 Almighty God, [Those at the altar repeat after Brother Branham.] I come before Thee as a penitent soul. I am ashamed of my life. I'm ashamed the way I've treated Your beloved Son. I've spurned His love and I'm ashamed of it tonight. And will You receive me, Father, as Your penitent child? I promise You tonight I'll forsake sin and I'll cleave to You as long as I live.

187 Now, according to Your Word and the Word of Your beloved Son, You promised not to cast me away and You're my Father; I can't believe that you would do it. So upon the merits of Jesus Christ, I'm confessing my sins and accepting Him now as my personal Saviour. God, keep me and help me to be a Christian. And fill my life with the Holy Spirit, that I might live above sin in this present world. In the hour of my death receive my soul, Lord, into Your kingdom. These things I ask in Jesus' name. And I accept it now as a finished work from Calvary. Amen.

188 Now, raise your head. Do you now, each one of you here, really from the depths of your heart believe that God has forgiven you of your sins and you now accept Him as your Saviour? If you do, raise up your hand as a witness. You, sister, [Unclear word]. What about it, young man? Do you believe that God forgives you? All right.

189 Now, you're each one of you Christian. Each one of you are God's children. If you'd have died back yonder five minutes ago, you'd have went to hell. If you die now, you'd go to Heaven. Now, I tell you what I want you to do as my brother and sister--I love you with all my heart--but before you go to your seat, I wish we'd go across over there and have a word of prayer, just kneel down and pray together. Would you do that with us? Would each one of you be glad to do that?

190 Some of the ministers, start right from the end there and let these, all these here go right across while I'm making another call here. Right across over there. I'm going to go over there and pray with you. Now, walk right across. How many up there's happy? Now, turn around to this audience first before you go and say this as you turn around, "I accept Jesus Christ ... (repeat my words) I accept Jesus Christ as my personal Saviour. I ask your prayers for me."

Now, if you go to help them pray, and pray for them, raise up your hand and say, "I will." God bless you.

Now, I want you to pray yourself, personally to God, each one as you go across. Everyone go right across over there. I want to be with you in a few....

[Blank spot on tape]

191 Yes, she's Amish and so then.... I never seen her in my life. She's a total stranger to me. I never knew her. You don't know me, do you lady? You don't know me. You didn't before, just till now. All right. Now, I want you to come right around here, lady, so I can get ... I don't want to get too far from the microphone, you see, because I ... my voice sometimes go down.

192 If you notice, see.... You're in two dimensions at one time, two phases. You're here and you're looking at something that's happened maybe back when you was a little girl, something that went on in your life somewhere. And then you're two places the same time. And I'm talking, yet I'm somewhere else, yet I'm conscious that I.... In body form I'm standing on the platform. That's what makes me so weak and tears me up, see.

193 You remember the prophet Daniel who had a vision one day and was troubled many days over it, of his head? And Jesus.... Remember that angel that came down on the pool and the first person that got healed, why, all the virtue went off of the water. And they had to wait for a month or more, maybe, for it to come back, another season whatever was considered a season. You remember that in the Bible? Yes, ma'am.

194 I'm just talking to you like our Lord talked to the woman at the well at Samaria. Now, you got a human spirit just as I have. And there's.... We're perfect strangers to each other, but in way.... Now, just look at the people out there. Several hundreds of people sitting there. Each one of them is a supernatural being inside, and just the pull of spirits. And then I have to contact your life just as Jesus turned and perceived what the thoughts of the people was and so forth. He stood and talked to that woman. Then He went right straight and told her where her trouble was. Is that right? You remember where it was at? It's found in Saint John the 4th chapter--the woman at the well? Samaria? You remember reading that?

195 He's wonderful, isn't He? Do you believe that He rose up from the dead? He did. And then He's living among men tonight, the same Jesus. Then if it's the same Jesus, He'll do just like He did in that day, His Spirit among His people. Is that right? Just the same thing. That's good.

It's so hard preaching and then trying to ... see. If you'd just pray with me, the believers. Yes, here it comes now. You just was a little bit afraid, wasn't you? You're just a little nervous. That's what done it, see. You're just holding yourself back, see. But look.

196 You have a condition. Your condition is an inward trouble of the stomach. Isn't that right? That's right. It's a stomach trouble, been some time. It's caused from a nervous condition that makes you have a sour stomach and cramp, and so forth, and spit up stuff in your mouth, which is sour. It's an acid.... It's gastric conditions in the stomach, you see, causing peptic ulcer that makes your food come up. A little regurgitation comes like that to it. Pretty close to what He said, wasn't it? Yes, ma'am. How did I know that? If we're stran.... Just revealed to you by God, is right. That's right.

197 Now, if we would talk a little longer, maybe He would tell me something else of you. There's lots of people here to be prayed for. But you kind of had something struck your mind then. You got a husband that's not well, too. Isn't that right? If that's right, raise up your hand. Sure. Yes, sir. He has a bladder trouble, doesn't he? Is that right, raise up your hand. That's right. Uh-huh. Do you believe that's the Spirit of God that you're hearing? Do you believe that God is.... It's coming from some supernatural resource, isn't it? See, it's a little against your teaching that you've been taught. That's right, now. You know that's the.... You can't lie now because I... You wouldn't do it anyhow, because I'm in the presence ... you're in the presence of His Being.

198 Here's another thing. I see there's an accident just happened in your family some time ago, wasn't it? A boy. He got hit with an automobile about two years ago. He's got something wrong with his head; it causes his memory and things. Is that right? ["Yes, it is."] Now, do you believe? ["Yes, I do."] Then come here.

199 Almighty God, Author of life, give mercy and life unto this poor woman. Heal her, Lord, and let her loved ones be made well also, Lord. May this be the night of nights for them. And may, O God, all that back.... Let them walk in the light as the light comes to them, Lord. And may they be called Your children, Lord, and serve You and love You and be made well. In Jesus Christ's name. Amen.

200 I want to ask you, mother... What you heard talking then, it was my voice but it wasn't me using it. Now, what He told you is the truth. And now you go and believe just what has been said and you'll get well. God bless you. The Lord be ... (This way if you want to, since I'll be... Are you one of the ushers, sir? Go help her.)

Are you believing? Just believe with all your heart. God knows all things. But if you will, be real reverent now while it's kind of...

201 How do you do, sir? I suppose that we are strangers, too. Are we, sir? I never met you in my life, but God has knowed both us since we were born. And He's fed you, He's fed me. And here we are this far along in life, and someday we got to stand in His presence to give an account for the deeds that's done in our bodies. We should be really reverent people, shouldn't we?

202 Sir, you're here tonight on a mission, not for yourself. You're here for a mission for a loved one and I believe it's your wife. Is that right? Your wife has undergone some major operations and she's at the point of death. Is that the truth? Have you got a handkerchief in your pocket? Hand it to me just a moment.

203 Almighty God, when Israel was cornered there and the Red Sea before them, the mountains, Pharaoh's army pushing. But You looked down through that pillar of fire with angry eyes, said one of the poets, and the Red Sea got scared and moved back, because Israel was on the homeward march to the promised land. And God, tonight this poor woman laying there, very low near unto death. She's done all that she can do. The doctors, Your servants, has done all they can do. Everybody's done all they can do. And now, Thou art Jehovah-jireh, the Lord's provided sacrifice, this crucial moment.

204 I pray, Lord, as in the Bible we're taught that they taken from the body of Paul, handkerchiefs or aprons, and unclean spirits went out and people were healed. We know we're not the St. Paul, but we know that You're still the same Lord Jesus who honored the faith of the people. Then, Lord, I send this handkerchief to that dying woman and ask for her life to be spared. In Jesus Christ's name. Amen.

205 Don't doubt. Let no one touch that handkerchief, and put it on your wife's underneath garment next to her heart. Get down by the side of her and pray. Confess everything that you know and promise God to live for Him. And let us know a few days later what's happened to her. God bless you. God be with now. Go and don't doubt. Just believe all things and God will certainly perform.

Do you believe this? Have faith. God will certainly grant the things that He has promised, for He cannot fail. He's God.

206 Now, sister, I want to speak to you just a moment. And now to this audience here, I suppose I don't know you. As far as I know, I never seen you in my life, but God does know you. But this woman being a stranger to me; the Lord knows that. I'm probably a stranger to her, unless she's been in a meeting somewhere and seen me. We don't know one another at all. Well, if the Holy Spirit will reveal this woman's life, and me claiming to you of being His servant, that is the Spirit of the Lord Jesus Christ that raised from the dead is here among us tonight. And God will perform just exactly what He said He would do, claiming and proving that Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

207 Now listen, to you that would resent it. Maybe your teaching could have been a little bit off. Remember, the Pharisees in them days thought they were just exactly right. They were holy, renowned, fundamental, religious men. And they rejected the Jesus. They thought they knewed just how He must be. But God always confounds the wise and prudent. Well now, remember, if this would happen to be right and you would be wrong, you'd be blaspheming the Holy Spirit. You'd be doomed forever, without mercy in this world or the world to come.

208 You have prostate trouble, don't you, sir? It's your wife sitting next to you with the rectal trouble, too. Isn't that right? Is that true? You were both healed right then while I was talking. You don't need your prayer.... You don't have prayer cards, anyhow. You don't need them.

The little lady sitting right next to there, also, she has been sick. A kidney trouble, but just have faith in God there. God make you well.

Now, be reverent. Be in prayer. Now, lady, I want you to look here at me, right at me, just a moment. I want to talk to you as your brother. Now, we are perfect and total strangers to each other. And the Lord Jesus. . . .

Little lady, you had a nerve condition, sitting right there by that man, haven't you? Been real nervous for a long time. Isn't that right? He healed you just then. So you're well now. You can go home and be well. God bless you.

209 Have mercy is my prayer for you. Now, be reverent. No, you don't live here. You've come a long ways from here. Isn't that right? You come from the state of Illinois. Is that right? About a two-hundred-mile journey you've took. Is that right? And you're suffering with something wrong in your lungs, a lung condition. And, say, I see you trying to get out of a bed of the morning. You have an arthritis condition, too. It makes you stiff. Is that the truth? Do you believe Christ will make you well? Look to me. You know what I mean. Like Peter and John said, "Look on us." Elijah the prophet said, "If it wasn't I respected the presence of Jehoshaphat, I wouldn't even look to you."

210 And now, believe. You've been in a prayer meeting before. It wasn't mine. It was a man kind of heavy-set, chunky built, with kind of a brown hair. And he kind of has a frown on his face like . . . very sharp speaking man at the meeting. Is that right? If that's right, raise your hand. I seen it come before me. It can't be nothing else. God can't lie.

211 The doctor told you to go home. I see him telling you. Said, "The only thing for you to do is take a long rest in the hospital." Or, wait. I see a prairie. He said you could go west if you wanted to. Is that right? Is that what he told you? Yeah, that's right. That's exactly right. You have a little son at home, don't you? And he has a lung trouble, too. Doesn't he? If that's right, raise up your hand. That's right. Come here just a moment, please.

212 Almighty God, Author of life, Giver of every good gift, send Thy blessings upon this woman, upon her household. While she's standing here and the Holy Spirit moving through her now, may she go home and get well, Father. As your servant, I bless her, with my hands laying upon her, in the name of Jesus Christ. And, Satan, you who've bound her, done all this evil, we come tonight as the Christian people in the representative name of Jesus Christ, and we adjure thee, by Him, that you leave the woman and bother her no more. Come out of her, through Jesus Christ's name. Now, return. Don't doubt nothing. You'll get well. God bless you.

213 All right. Come. Do you believe? If the Holy Spirit will just tell you what's wrong... You're conscious that something's going on. That's the Angel of the Lord. You see His picture? That's just what's waiting over you now. Your trouble's in your back. Is that right? Now, go ahead. You're going to get well. He's blessed you. God be with you and bless you.

Let's say, "Thanks be to God."

Do you believe? With all your heart? ["I do."]

214 Just a moment. Somebody sitting right across the fence there has got a back trouble, too. Wasn't that right, sir? You was healed just then when that man was healed. That spirit called out for help. God bless you. You were praying, wasn't you, sir? I thought you were. I seen someone praying with a back like that and I heard that scream come out. I looked back and I seen this man. Then I heard it call and I seen a light hang over you. So it must be that it was you.

That lady sitting right down there at the other side there has a nervous trouble's been bothering her, right down there in that light hair. Isn't that right, sister? Yes, sir. You've had nervous trouble. Isn't that right? You just got healed just then. God made you well.

215 That little lady sitting right behind her with that female trouble, sitting right back there behind her, too. You was just healed the same time, sister. You can stand up also. Raise up your hand. You had a female trouble that's been on the ovaries. It was abscess. It's gone from you now. You can be healed. Go home.

Amen. Why do you doubt God?

216 Sir, would you like to go eat your supper? Enjoy it again? Do you believe me to be His prophet? Well, then, in the name of Jesus Christ, go and eat your supper; eat your breakfast; testify of your healing. The ulcer's gone from your stomach. God bless you. Do you believe that? You don't doubt now.

217 Come, lady. Do you believe? Do you believe me to be His servant? If God would tell me what was wrong with you quickly, without saying anything farther.... So much of that gets me so weak that I get swimmy. Do you believe that does that? Our Lord said, "Virtue has gone out from Me." Virtue's strength. When the woman touched His garment.... It's pulling from all over this audience. And you got heart trouble. Is that right? Now, you believe you're healed? Then go and testify of it. God will be with you.

You had the same thing, sir. So you can just keep walking. God did the same thing. Amen.

Female trouble, just keep going. Be made well in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Do you believe out there with all your heart? Don't doubt. Have faith now. God will bring it to pass if you'll absolutely believe it and don't doubt it at all, God will bring it to pass. Be reverent. Have faith in God.

What about way up in the corner there? You believing? Raise up your hand. Stay right with it. He went to the corner twice.

218 Now, come here, lady. You want to get over that cancer? You would? Do you accept Jesus as your Healer now? [Sister says, "I hope to."] Now, "hope to" won't do it, sister. You either look or die. You look, you live. It's up to you. Father, I pray for faith for the woman. May she live. In Jesus Christ's name I ask it. Amen. God be with you, sister.

219 How do you do, lady? Do you believe me to be His servant? Do you believe that He's here now? You believe His Spirit's here to make you well? You're a stranger here in this city, too. You're from Toledo. Is that right? And aren't you a minister? Your husband's a minister, too. That's right, sitting right there. Uh-huh. Never seen you in my life. But you got heart trouble, haven't you? You're healed. God bless you. Go on your.... See, your mental attitude's quite a difference between you and the lady that just passed here, see. Go.... All right. Go have faith.

220 All right. Come, sir. Believing? Almighty God, I ask you to heal the man, deliver him. In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ may it be so. Amen. That's the way, sir. You was healed while you was sitting right there in your seat. God bless you. That's the way. All right, sir.

221 You want to get over that heart trouble and be made well? You want to accept it right now and believe that God's going to make you well? Lord Jesus, I pray that You'll heal the woman and may she go home tonight and get completely well through Jesus Christ's name. Amen. Now go.... Look, look, live, see. Believe Him with all your heart. God will bring it to pass.

Let's say, "Thanks be to God." All right. Everyone reverent.

Just a moment. The deaf.... Oh, it's this man standing here. Here's a deaf man. Bow your head everywhere.

Almighty God, Author of life, Giver of every good gift, send Thy blessings upon this man. I pray that You'll heal him. Thou deaf spirit, leave the man, come out of him. In the name of Jesus Christ I charge thee before God and the divine gift. Leave the man.

222 Do you hear me, sir? Can you hear me now? Can you hear me now? You're well? ["Yes, sir."] God bless you. You raise your head. The man can hear perfectly. Do you hear me? ["Yes, sir."] Say, "Amen." ["Amen."] Say, "I love the Lord." ["I love the Lord."] Say, "Glory to God. Glory to God." ["Glory to God."] You're healed, brother. You've been kind of nervous lately, haven't you? It's a prostate trouble. See, it's been bothering you and it struck you. But it's gone from you, too. See, you've been getting up at nighttime, see. Is that right? ["Yes, sir."] Nobody knows that, from the bathroom.... Is that right? ["That's right."] Is that the honest truth? ["That's the truth."] All right, you're healed now. Go on your road rejoicing.

223 Let's say, "Thanks be to God." Go tell the unbeliever the deaf hear, the blind see, the cripples are raised up. Blessed is he who is not offended in the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. "The Gospel came not in Word only, but through power and demonstration of the Holy Spirit," Paul, quoting.

224 Come, sir. Do you believe with all your heart? Do you believe that you're standing in His presence? Not your brother, His presence, in His presence. If I be God's prophet, then He will reveal to me what's wrong with you. That's right? You believe that. You have some kind of spells. Epilepsy. Is that right? And another thing, the greatest you need of all is Jesus Christ as your Saviour. Is that right? You accept Him now as your personal Saviour? Stop smoking, everything else, and going to give your life to Christ? Quit smoking. Throw them out of your pocket then.

You want to believe Him? Let's stand to our feet just a moment.

I will praise Him, I will praise Him,
Praise the Lamb for sinners slain;
Give Him glory all ye people,
For His blood can wash away each stain.

I will praise Him, I will praise Him,
Praise the Lamb for sinners slain;
Give Him glory all ye people,
For His blood can wash away each stain.

225 Audience, we could stand here.... We don't want.... The city's nice to let us have this place. I'm weak, tired. We could stand here hour after hour on this, but what more could God do than what He's doing right now? If you don't believe now, you'll never believe. There's no need.

226 Now, if I have told the truth, and God's confirmed it to be the truth, then you believe me now. I'm telling you the truth. I want you to lay your hands over on one another now. Now, I want you to listen closely. I want the whole audience to repeat after me this prayer. I'm going to say it. Do you believe God tells me the words that'll defeat Satan? Now, you just repeat what I say now, as you bow your head.

227 Almighty God, [Congregation repeats after Brother Branham.] Author of Life, Giver of every good gift, send Thy blessings upon Thy servant. Lord, I'm standing in need of Thee. Thou knowest my need. This what I have seen, I do believe that it's Your Word. And I now accept Jesus Christ as my all-sufficient need. Lord Jesus, have mercy on me. I shall go from here testifying to the glory of God. Help me, Lord.

228 Now, with your heads bowed. Keep that in your heart. Get shut in with God. If you're a sinner, receive Him. If you need the Holy Spirit, be ready. If you're sick, accept your healing. Now, I'm going to pray for you. And if God can hear my prayer here to make demons leave from this platform, reveal sickness and sins, then God can also cast every demon in this building out right now.

229 Now, Father, Thou seest the people. They're gathered in one accord, in one place. The Holy Spirit, the Angel of God, is moving like an amber light around over this audience. Have mercy, Lord. You've heard their confession. And You said, "If thou will confess with thy lips."

230 O Lord, I pray for mercy for these people. Many of them are bound and sick. And God is here to make them delivered, to bring down His truth, to show His power, the resurrection of His Son. And, O God, if I have found favor with Thee, I pray tonight that You'll give me favor with this people. And now, as I go forward to challenge the enemy, that doubting spirit that would hang around this place to keep the people from being healed, thou demon, I charge thee by Jesus Christ the Son of God as His prophet, come out of the people. I adjure thee to leave them. . . .
