

Enticing Spirits

Jeffersonville, Indiana

July 24, 1955

1 Good morning, friends. Happy to be here this morning and knowing that ... seeing all of you out, believing that the Lord is with us today, giving us some little shadow, that it won't be so hot here in the Tabernacle for the morning service. And now we ...

2 I believe.... Is there children ... has the children been dismissed to their classes they're going to? I seen some little fellows, and I just wondered if they had dismissed the classes back into their other places, into their Sunday school rooms.

3 Now, pray for me. I've got a great decision I was supposed to make last night and I have to make it today. And let the church pray. I got a meeting coming up next, is right on the Iron Curtain line in Germany; and so, it's a little touchy. And pray for me. And so, we can start right away in that big cricket stadium in Germany, that Hitler made just before the war, nice big place, seats eighty thousand people. And we can have it for ten nights straight. And so, we're hoping to get started in there right away and then over to Alsace-Lorraine, France, next; then to Berlin, come back ... I mean, Berlin between that and France.

4 Then we come back, the Lord willing, in a convention in Chicago. Begins, I think, the fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth, and ninth, is my part in Chicago, of the convention at the Swedish church. And then they're ... Mr. Boze and some of you from around Chicago, they got a convention that was coming off this next ... beginning first of August ... or, first of September, it is, in Sweden.

5 And I'm so happy to know that their vote for me to come over was universal and hundred percent. I was glad of that, but I got to either go there or down here now. You pray that the Lord will lead me just exactly the place where most souls will be saved, and the best will be done for the kingdom of God. Now, they're having a convention up there in Sweden, and he said we'd have twenty-five, thirty-five thousand people to start with at the convention, and many of them unsaved people.

6 And then down here in Germany, well, they got a stadium that seats eighty thousand. 'Course, in Switzerland, where we just left, we had a wonderful meeting there and many of you probably have never heard yet. The Lord blessed us mightily; had fifty thousand converts in five nights, at Zurich, Switzerland.

7 And so, Brother Jack Schuller (many of you know him), Methodist, old Bob Schuller's boy. They're in Belfast now, and they say they're just turning the place upside-down over there for the gospel, and even greater than what Billy Graham had in his meeting. Jack is a very fine young fellow, full of zeal and love. And he's just so sincere at it till I believe he's a great servant of the Lord. Pray for Brother Schuller. And there's Jack Schuller, and Jack MacArthur also is with him. And Brother Jack MacArthur's a great preacher too. And they had the church. . . . They said it's the greatest revival that's ever hit Ireland. So, we're so. . . . Go to prayer daily for those men. They're both young men under . . . around forty, I guess, or under, and families and so forth and good solid gospel teachers, and we love them.

8 And now, I pray that you won't forget me, that God will let me make the right decision right now. There's times where you don't know which way to turn. Did you ever get in them places? I believe Paul got in that place one time, didn't he? Between two straits: When he was going over, why, he saw an angel in a vision that told him, "Come over to Macedonia." So, the Lord still has His angel, doesn't He? If I can just be as humble in my heart about it as Paul was. . . .

9 And now, tonight, remember the gospel services here at the Tabernacle; everybody come out. You around Louisville, I'm to speak at the Church Of The Open Door tonight for a couple hours, which is seven-thirty till nine-thirty, at Brother Cauble's. I was going to come twice here. And then he's such a nice man, and he called up. Brother Cauble's, he's a very fine gentleman and brother. I'm sure you're acquainted, very fine brother, and just couldn't hardly turn him down like that. Pray. Above all things pray, and pray that God will give us the right decision to make.

10 Now, before we start the gospel message, we got a morning we're to dedicate little children. And I got a little fellow here to dedicate too, to the Lord. Now, many times in many churches... Can you hear all right way back? If you can, is it all right? These fans here, I just ... you can't hear yourself. Oh, that's all right; I'm afraid I'd perish without it.

11 So, the little children: Sometimes they'd sprinkle them in the church, when they're little bitty babies. And, of course, that come from the Catholic church, by christening the little children, or baptizing, as they call them, when they're just little fellows. The Methodist church brought it out, of infant baptism, and many ... and, I think, several more. I think that's the difference between the Nazarene and the old-fashioned Methodist, was the infant baptism; and then the little break-off's and so forth. But whatever way, it doesn't ... I don't think it matters too much. Because after all, I think Calvary spelt the thing out right there, to all of it, because Jesus died there to save little children and save the world.

12 And a little child, no matter what kind of a parent it's got, how sinful, that wouldn't make any difference, for the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses him, you see, and this is the Lamb of God that taketh away the sin of the world. That baby cannot repent. It don't know how to repent. It has no reasons of being here of its own. It can't tell you why it's here. But God sent it here, and the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses it the very moment that it comes into the world. And until it's the age of accountability, then it knows right and wrong; and then what it does, it's got to repent for what it knows that it's done wrong. That's right. So, some of them sprinkle them and think they're going to go to heaven.

13 And there's a teaching that says if the baby's born of Holy Ghost parents, well, the baby will go to heaven; but, if it isn't, there's no more to it: The baby just is no more. That's strictly an error. What difference does it make whether it's a Holy Ghost parents? It's all sexual desire, and the baby's born the same way. So, it's "all born in sin, shaped in iniquity, come to the world speaking lies." That's the scriptural terms of it.

14 And then the blood of Jesus Christ cleanses and makes an atonement for that child. If it died, he'd perfectly go right into the presence of God, if it was born from the most sinful parents in the world. Until it's the age of accountability, where it knows right and wrong. ... And then what it does from then, it's got to be forgiven for that. It's got to ask its own repentance from then on. But while it's a baby....

15 Now, the way we try to follow here at the Tabernacle... Is the only place in the world that I go that I preach doctrine, is here at the tabernacle, because this is our church. And we preach doctrine here to keep the people lined up. Other men, in their churches, they preach whatever they believe. And they're my brothers, and we might differ a little bit, but we're still brothers just the same. But here in the Tabernacle we preach what we think is scriptural doctrine.

16 And in there, we see for the dedication of children, what we call a dedication, the only time in the Bible that we can find out ... or, where in the New Testament to where little children ever had anything to do ... or, Christ had anything to do in it in a ceremony, was He taken them up in His arms and laid His hands upon them and blessed them, and said, "Suffer little children to come to Me. Forbid them not, for such is the kingdom of God."

17 Now, we are left, as we understand, to carry on the work that He come to accomplish. His death at Calvary ... He was with us and He went from ... come out of God into the world, went back from God ... or, from the world into God, and come again in the form of the Holy Spirit, and is with us, in us, to the end of the world, carrying out in His church the same work that He did when He was here on earth. And, by that, we take our children one to the other, to the ministers and they pray over them, lay their hands upon them and dedicate them to God. Just a little ceremony to say that we appreciate what the Lord has done for us and the little children.

18 Now, if your little one has been sprinkled, or whatever way it is at your church, then we don't say one thing against that; it's all right. But Scripturally, we only find one place; that's where Jesus blessed them Himself. That I shall read, the Lord willing, in the Word here. We find in St. Luke the ... I believe it's the tenth chapter and beginning with the thirteenth verse.

And they brought young children unto him, that he should touch them: and his disciples rebuked them that brought them.

But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.

Verily I say unto you, Whosoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein.

And he took them up in his arms, and put his hands upon them, and blessed them

19 Isn't that lovely? He said, "Now, suffer the little children to come to me. Don't forbid them, for of such (such like that little child) is the kingdom of God." And He took them in His arms and blessed them.

20 Now, how we would love this morning if we could have Jesus sitting in person here on the platform, say, "Lord, would You bless my child?" Oh, what a . . . for our human eyes and our hearts longing to see that. But He's here anyhow, for He give us the commission to do it. And as we have done, so does He recognize. When we receive one He's sent, we receive Him that sent Him, you see. So, He's here this morning. And if Sister Gertie will come up to the piano and play our old song we used to sing a long time ago, this, "Bring them in, bring the little ones to Jesus." I believe it's in the book there somewhere, I'm not sure. "Bring the little ones to Jesus." And if you have a baby, a little baby that has not been dedicated and you want to dedicate it this morning, why, we'd be glad to do it.

21 And is there any ministers in the building, preachers that would just want to walk up and stand with us here while we dedicate these children to the Lord, we'd be glad to have you as you come. All right, is it in the book there? You find it, Brother Neville? It isn't there. All right, how many know it, Bring Them In? All right, let's sing it. Now, everybody together, while the mothers bring their babies. All right.

Bring them in, bring them in,
Bring them in from the fields of sin;
Bring them in, bring them in,
Bring the little ones to Jesus.

Bring them in, bring them in,
Bring them in from the fields of sin;

Bring them in, bring them in,
Bring the little ones to Jesus.

22 Shall we bow our heads a moment. Our heavenly Father, standing around the altar this morning stands the mothers and fathers holding their little offsprings in their arms, that Thou has graciously given unto them. They're so thankful for them, Lord, and they're bringing them up here to the altar this morning in the house of God, to dedicate them, give their lives to Thee, Thou has given. And we pray, God, that You will nourish and bless each one of them. Lead them, and may the guardian angels of God watch over each one. Give them long lives of happiness and joy. May they raise up to be men and women of God, of tomorrow, if there is a tomorrow.

23 God, we pray that You'll raise preachers and prophets and teachers out of this group of babies that's around the altar this morning. And when we're old and can go no farther, someone has to take us from place to place, may we be able to stand and hear the gospel preached by these that's here today. Grant it, Lord. And some glorious day when it's all over, our lives are finished, these parents around the altar, may we be like Jacob of old when he blessed all of his children and told them what their end would be in the last days. Then looking up, said, "You know, I'm to be gathered with my people." And some glorious day he and all of his offspring is to be gathered together in a better land. No wonder Balaam said, "Let my last end be like his." God, I pray that You'll grant these blessings upon the parents.

24 And now as we go to lay hands upon them, what a wonderful and how humble that You've made it, Lord, that we men of this earth would have the privilege of blessing little children in thy name, knowing this, that what we ask is granted to us. As we go to bless them, may Jesus, the all unseen person, omnipotent One, stand near and bless each child as we lay our hands upon them and offer them to Him. For we ask it in His name. Amen.

25 [Brother Branham begins dedicating the babies. Blank spot on tape.] In a little closet way yonder in the northland, You promised this child to me. Father, may your blessings rest upon him. Joseph, my boy, I give you to God. And may your life be a blessing. May you be a prophet, Joseph. May God's grace rest with you. And may the God of your father, the Lord Jesus Christ, ever bless you and make your life a blessing to others. In Jesus Christ's name I bless him. Amen. [Blank spot on tape.]

26 Love little children? Something about the little fellows that each mother wanting her child to be blessed. Now, that's the way our heavenly Father is to us adults this morning: He wants each of us to be blessed. He presents us before certain things, just hands it out to us, as to say, "Here, I want you to be blessed, my child." Isn't He wonderful? So, we can appreciate a kind heavenly Father like that.

27 Now, in the blessings of little babies... You know, I was just reading here in the Scripture the other day, somewhere over here, it was in the Old Testament, a great thing that I certainly appreciated getting to read. Here it is right here. "And Nathanael said unto David, 'Do all that's in thy heart, for God is with thee.'" Do what's in your heart. And many times I have found this, Christian friends, that I have spoke things not knowing what I would say, and find out it would come to pass. What you say!

28 It was said one time, Jesus came down off the mountain and He seen a tree that had nothing on it, just leaves alone, and there was no fruit and He said, "No man eat from you from henceforth."

And the next day, passing by, the apostles saw the leaves withered. He said, "Behold how quick the tree is withered."

29 Jesus said, "Have faith in God; for whatsoever things you desire, when you pray, believe you receive it and you shall have it. And whatever things you say, you shall have what you say." Think of that! Oh! And perhaps today the great Holy Spirit of God standing here at the altar, you say, "Well, it don't have to be decorated. It doesn't have to be some great elaborate place."

30 Jacob pulled up a stone one time and laid his head on it, and it's still recognized today as a Stone of Scone. But the great men of the earth still pack that stone around for the kings to be inaugurated over the top of this stone, just a common old stone laying in a field. Bethel was just a pile of rocks laid upon one another, and it become the House of God, the dwelling place. Jacob said, “This is none other place than the house of God.” Just a pile of stones laying on top of one another.

It doesn’t take the great elaborate things. It takes the simplicity and faith to believe, is what it takes. That’s what makes it.

31 Now, knowing that time soon gets away, we’ll try not to hold you very long, knowing it’s hot and the church is crowded. So, I’ll speak to you just a few moments this morning, on a little subject here that might . . . I trust it’ll be a help to you.

32 And now, before leaving home, I wrote down three or four little things. I said, “I’ll wait and see what the Lord would have me to speak on when I got down there.” I wrote about six little things down here, little subjects and I wrote one put it in my pocket like this. I thought, Well, when I get to the pulpit, maybe He’ll tell me something to talk on. Now I’m just as far off as I was up there. So, anyhow, I’ll read a scripture here; the Lord help us to understand it. The 14th chapter of St. Luke, and let’s begin about the 31st verse of the 14th chapter of St. Luke.

Or what king, going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consult whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?

Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth forth an ambassador and desireth conditions of peace.

So likewise, whosoever he be of you . . .

33 Now, I want you to notice close. Now, first He said, it’s a parable. He said, “Now, there’s a king coming and he’s got twenty thousand soldiers; and this king is going to meet him, and he’s only got ten thousand soldiers. So then, the first, he sits down and asks if he’s ready, whether he can do it or not.” All right.

. . . of you who forsaketh not all that he has, he cannot be my disciple.

See? Now, may the Lord add his blessings to this Word. Now, shall we bow our heads just a moment.

34 Our heavenly Father, Thou who knowest all things and regardeth not the person of man, for what is man that Thou art mindful of him? You made man, and he's just like the flower of the fields; today he's beautiful, tomorrow he's cut down, cast into the oven, and he wilts away.

35 And I pray Thee, God, to be merciful to us today, and let each one take inventory today. We are here as in the house of correction. We're here to learn and know how to live; and let it come forth from thy Word today, O eternal God. Many of thy children has gathered in, and many of them as been your children for years; but as that, we all come back to the house of God to learn and to know. And I, your servant, desire to know more about You.

36 And I pray that You'll bring the inspiration of the Gospel upon all of us, upon thy servant, and that your presence, in inspiring us, through this building will be so great today that we'll leave, in your hearts desiring to be better servants of yours, that it'll be profitable for us to be here. O merciful God, grant these blessings in Jesus' name, Thy Son. Amen.

37 Now, may the Lord add his blessings to the Word as we read. I want to take a text this morning: Enticing Spirits, or, The Word of God. Now, I wrote it a strange subject, but being that it's in the Tabernacle.... And last Wednesday night.... Last Sunday morning I was speaking on a little Gospel jubilee.

38 And last Wednesday night I was preaching on the woman that had the tablet over her head ... or.... She lost one of her pieces of coin and she was sweeping the house and trying to find it before her husband come. And come to find out that that woman was an oriental type woman and she ... and represented the church.

39 And a wedding band used not to be wore on the finger; it was wore across the head, with nine pieces of silver in it. And when a woman become a prostitute, they took out one piece of silver and showed that she was a prostitute. And so this woman had lost one of the pieces---not a prostitute. But her husband had been away, and she was trying to hurry to find that piece, to put it back in her tablet, for when her husband come he would know that she had been caught in prostitution, and it would mean a breaking up of home and so forth.

And I applied that for a few moments to the church, lost a lot of great things; and it's time for Father to come, so we got to hunt them up. And now knowing in the church and our Tabernacle. . . .

40 And I want to speak on Enticing Spirits, which it would be really titled Demonology. You hear so much about demons, these days, but you hear so little about how to get rid of it. We all are well aware that there's devils, but the next thing is how to get rid of that thing. And now, there is having, by the grace of God, much opportunity to deal with these things called demons; and meeting them at the platform and in daily walk, I'd like to look into the Scripture this morning and find out just what those things are.

41 Now, we've applied it in a healing service, always to the healing side. Cancer, tumor, cataract, tuberculosis, all those things are not natural things; they are supernatural, and are demons. The Scripture plainly vindicates that. But that is demons in the body, with growths like cancer; it's got life in it; and the life of that is a demon. So, for the cataract, the spread of tuberculosis and other diseases, it's demons. That's in physical form.

42 Now, this morning we're going to talk about demons in spiritual form in the soul. They're in the soul the same as they're in the body. And we're bound to admit that we see them in people's body, such as cancers and different diseases that's in the human body.

43 Just recently, even cancer has been declared to be a fourth-dimension disease, that it's in another dimension. Sure, it's demonology. Every disease is a fourth-dimension disease--the beginning of it.

44 Now, but now, cancer in the body or cancer in the soul, the demon can come in either place. Now, there's many times and many people with good thoughts and good people who try many times to rest upon some little theology they have or something that they have been taught since a child, and still find that down in their being, down in their soul, that they still have something that's not right. You. . . . Many are here this morning. . . .

45 No doubt, wherever you find Christians gathered together, you find people who has those spirits in them; that it's undesirable. They don't want them. They say, "Oh, if I could only quit lying! If I could only quit lusting! If I could only quit this or that!" Now, that is devils. And now, they come in the form of religion many times. (But being it's Sunday school, it's a time of teaching, so let's look into this.) Now, they come in the form of religion, many times.

46 Now, in the Scripture, once there was a man by the name of Jehoshaphat, a great man, a religious man. And he went over to another king, which was the king of Israel. And Jehoshaphat, being the king of Judah. And he went down to Ahab, the king of Israel, and they got all buckled up together, and made an alliance with one another, to go fight up at Ramoth-gilead. And they did it without first praying.

47 Oh, if people could only realize! That's why I come this morning and asked you to remember me as I go overseas. In all things, pray! Someone come the other day and said, "Brother Branham, do you think it's wrong to do a certain thing?"

48 I said, "What are you questioning about?" See, if there's a question in your mind, leave it alone; don't do it at all. Just stay with that. When you start to do anything, and if it's a question whether it's right or wrong, stay away from it. Don't go into it at all, then you know you're right.

49 Now, all things ought to be considered prayerfully first. "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these other things will be added." I am positive sure this morning: If men and women could only get into the position of where their soul, their thinking, their attitudes would be perfect in the sight of God, that would be one of the most powerful churches that ever existed.

50 Watch just a few moments on the physical. Now, we have many times, have for years, we got what we call a lie detector. You can put it on your wrist, set it across your head, and you can get in there and try your best to make a lie sound like the truth, and it'll register negative every time, because the human was not made to lie. Lying is a deceitful, horrid thing, evil thing. I'd rather have a drunkard with me any day than a liar. See, a liar!

51 And your body wasn't made to lie. No matter how sinful you are, you're still a fallen son of God. The most sinful person in this city today... God didn't intend you to be sinful; He wanted you to be a son or a daughter of His. You're made up in His own makeup. But sin has caused you to do that. And no matter how much you try to impersonate and try to make a lie seem right, they got a scientific instrument that proves that it's wrong. You can tell it with all the innocence you want to, but it'll still register negative; because there's a subconscious down in a human being, and that subconscious knows what's truth. And no matter what you're saying out here, that subconscious knows that it's a lie, and it'll register off the subconscious.

52 Therefore, if a man or a woman could ever get their thoughts and their testimony and their lives so lined up with God (Amen.) until the channel of the Holy Spirit would be perfectly one with God, what would take place? If a man and woman could ever get lined up, with the freedom from their heart, with faith from the innermost!

53 Many people come to the altar to be prayed for. They have intellectual faith. They confess their sins and join a church by intellectual faith. They believe it in their mind. They believe it because they've heard it. They believe it because they know it's the best policy. But that's not what God looks at.

54 He don't look at your intellectual faith. He looks on the heart, where on the inside, God... And when it comes from the heart, all things are possible then; your confession meets up with your life, your life speaks as loud as your confession does.

55 But when your confession says one thing and your life lives another, there's something wrong somewhere. That's because you've got an intellectual faith and not a faith from your heart. And that shows that outside here is a knowledge of God; but inside, here, is a demon of doubting. "I believe in divine healing, but it's not for me," see. "It could be so, but I don't believe it." Get it? Outside, you say, "Yes." Inside, your conscience says, "No." That same scientific thing would prove that that was right--prove it.

56 Notice, when these kings, before they started out, they should have... Before Jehoshaphat ever made an alliance with Ahab, he ought to have first said, "Let us pray and see what the will of the Lord is."

57 Give me a preacher, give me a Christian, give me a housewife that's a Christian, give me a farmer, or a factory worker, that will put God first in everything, I'll show you a man that will be successful in spite of all the devil can put on him. He seeks God first! We must have first....

58 But they didn't do it. They were all clouded over, because Ahab had a great bright kingdom, and he had done a whole lot of things and had his great fineries, his gold and his silver, and been a great successful man--yet, an unbeliever.

59 And that's where the world is today. That's where America stands today. That's where the churches stand today. We build some of the best churches was ever built. We've had some of the best polished scholars we've ever had. We've taught some of the best theology and so forth and learned to sing like angels, but yet there's a weakness somewhere. There's a weakness because they've gone out after man's doctrine and enticing spirits instead of coming back to the Word of God. They try to make things pattern like the world. They try to put shiny lights over it, like Hollywood.

60 Here the other day, a famous denomination of the Full Gospel realms in Kansas City ... or, (I beg your pardon) in Denver, at the convention, is building a million-dollar church. And thousands of missionaries waiting for fifty cents from that same denomination to carry the gospel unto the heathen! What we need today is a missionary-minded, God-sent, Holy-Ghost-born revival, that'll have the zeal of God to push on out into the jungles yonder and do something for God, instead of build big fine churches and try to outshine the neighbor.

61 I'd rather worship in a mission where it had been swept out of a barroom and have the freedom of the Holy Spirit and the love of God burning into the hearts, than sit in the greatest cathedral that we got in the world and be cramped down with men's doctrines and dogmas. We need today is a shaking revival and get back to the truth, get back to God's Word again.

Now, when they went out there, after awhile Jehoshaphat kind of come to himself; he said, "Well, let's consult the Lord about this."

He said, "All right," Ahab did, and he sent down and got hundreds ... four hundred fine trained preachers. And he brought them up there and said, "These are all prophesiers."

And so they went into their enchantments, and they begin to call. And they said, “Yes, you go on up in peace. The Lord is with you.”

62 And then after almost four hundred had give witness that they should go up in peace, yet Jehoshaphat knowing. . . . Do you get it? See, down in that righteous man’s heart there’s something told him there was a burr in the saddle somewhere. Something was wrong.

Ahab said, “Now, we got four hundred here, and with one accord, every one of them says, ‘Go. The Lord is with you.’”

But Jehoshaphat said, “Haven’t you got one more?”

63 He said, “Well, what do we need with one more, after we got four hundred of the best educated men in the country? They’re all saying ‘Go!’” That was intellectual. But down in Jehoshaphat’s heart, he knew there was something wrong. Now, he said, “We got one more: He’s Micaiah. But I hate him.” Said, “He’s always saying something evil and popping off where he has no business to be, and he’s downing the churches and everything.” Said, “I hate him.”

Said, “Go, get him, and let’s see what he’ll say.”

And when Micaiah come up, he said. . . . They said, “Now, look, you say the same thing the rest of them.”

64 He said, he said, “I’ll only. . . .” Hear this! “I’ll only say what God says.” Amen. “No matter what your prophet says and what this says, and what your church says, and what they say, I’ll say what God says. God put on my lips and I’ll say what He says.” What we need today is some more Micaiahs who will say what God says.

65 Notice, so they got him up there, and he said, “Give me tonight.” So, that night the Lord met him and he come back the next morning. When the two kings sat in the gates, he said, “Go on up.” Said, “Go on up. But,” said, “I seen Israel like sheep scattered without a shepherd.”

So, this one preacher, all dressed up, walked up and smacked him in the mouth and said, “Which way did the Spirit of God go when it went out of me?”

Said, “You’ll find out when you come back.” Yes.

He said, “Listen here!” He said, “We are the servants of God. We are four hundred and you are one.”

66 But Micaiah said, “I’ll tell you where your trouble lays.” Amen! Said, “I saw a vision.” Amen! He said, “And I saw God sitting on His throne. And I saw the host of heaven standing around Him. And we know that the Word of God has pronounced cursings upon this man from the way he has done.”

67 You can’t bless what God has cursed, neither can the devil curse what God has blessed. It’s an individual affair, no matter how poor or how stupid, how unlearned, how uneducated. What God has blessed is blessed; what God has cursed is cursed. Know what to differentiate what is right and what is wrong.

68 Micaiah knew good and well that that wasn’t the Lord that was with them preachers. Well, what was the matter with those preachers? Notice what they did. They had been dressed the best. They had been fed the best. They had come together in their parties and so forth, and their alliances, until the place had got to where they only knew their own theology. And the Bible said that Micaiah, when he was looking at the vision, he said, “God said, ‘Who can we get to go down there and deceive Ahab?’ And a lying spirit said, ‘I’ll go down there and entice Ahab through those preachers, to cause Ahab to go out there, in order to bring the Word of God to pass.’”

69 Now, today so many people are listening! (Now, Sunday school, I love it.) Look, so many people are listening to enticing spirits instead of taking the Word of God. Spirits: They’re in the world. They’re demons and they go out into places, and they get amongst men, ministers; they get amongst church members; they get amongst good people, and they cause them to come into allusion; and they say things and do things and teach things and practice things that’s contrary to the Word of God. Today, ministers of their congregation are allowing their people to play cards in the churches, many of them. Now, it's not altogether Catholic; there's a lot of Protestants does that.

70 What they try to do is substitutionary something. They try to adopt some new plan. They try to adopt education to take the place of the Holy Ghost. You'll never be able to do it, no matter how well your man is educated. I think it's a good thing for him to be educated, but if he hasn't got the Holy Spirit with that, his education will do him no good. Education will never take the place of the leadership of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

71 Notice. Then instead of this, they have tried to adopt handshaking for the old-time experience we used to have. Today the church has become modern. They walk up and give their right hand of fellowship, and that's about the way they do it. But it'll never take the place of the old-fashioned mourners' bench, where sinners called out and got right with God. Right!

72 Today they're trying to take the place of God's tithing. They're trying to adopt something; they're trying to make it different. They go down and have Bunco games in the churches, play lottery. Lottery will never take the place of God's tithing. Suppers, blanket selling, picnics to raise money to pay different debts off, it'll never take the place of God's eternal tithing and offering; it'll never do it. But yet we're trying to do it.

73 What is it? It's enticing spirits coming down, trying to substitute something for the Word of God. God has no substitute for his Word. It's eternal and forever. God has nothing to substitute faith. Faith has no substitute. Hope will never take the place of faith. Faith is alone ... it stands alone. It'll never take the.... Hope can never take its place. Hope is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen ... or, faith is, rather, see. Hope is one thing; faith is another. Hope hopes for it; faith has got it. One's intellectual faith, and the other one is direct revelation of God. It'll never take its place. We're trying, but we're making all these substitutes.

74 We're trying to build great churches instead of send missionaries. Another substitute. Jesus never ordained anybody to build a church. That never was ordained in the Bible. We put up seminaries; they've let that take the place of missionaries. Jesus never did tell us to build a seminary. They're all right. Education --trying to get that to take the place. It'll never do it. Jesus' commission was to "Go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature," for the end time. So, all the substitutionaries we have will never take the place of the genuine, where they had an experience. A substitutionary!

I had my first toothache; had to pull a tooth out. This morning I got a false tooth sticking in there. I can't hardly talk. It'll never take the place of the real one. No, sir! Oh, my!

75 You might take a man and dress him up, make him out of wood, chalk, whatever you want to, and fix him up ever so much; he has no feelings, no conscience. He'll never take the place of any real man. Neither will a bogus conversion that walks up and says, "I joined the church; I'll try to do better." It'll never take the place of a genuine old-fashioned God-sent, Holy Ghost conversion that makes a man different in his heart. It can't do it, because there's no life in it; there's nothing to give him life.

76 Here not long ago I seen the great artist that had brought this sculptor ... I mean, that made this picture of Moses. Can't call his name now; he's a Greek artist. Cost him his life. And when he got it so where he thought it was so perfect, he become so thrilled at the image of Moses till he struck the knee of it, and said, "Speak, Moses!" It looked so real! It was patterned so perfect until it looked so much like Moses, to his thought, that he struck with the hammer to make it have feeling.

77 Puts in the mind of the church. No matter how much you substitute, how big a congregation you get, how well you sing your songs, how good your congregation dresses, how much you've got this, that, or the other, you could strike [unclear word], or whatever, it'll never take the place of life until Christ comes down in the form of the Holy Ghost into that church and gives it a new experience and be born again. It'll never take the place of God's Word. God's Word stands alone.

78 Micaiah had the Word. He knowed he had the Word. He had the Word written; he had it by also vision. He knowed what God had said in his Word, he knowed what God said by the vision; they both come together. He knowed it was the truth, therefore he wasn't afraid.

79 But this enticing spirits: Look what it's done today to make more church members, to make better church members: It's let down the bars on all the old-fashioned Holy Ghost teaching. It permitted the men to have social parties with one another, out into the basement where they would play games. That'll never help to substitute the upper room where they were praying for the Holy Ghost. It permitted women to come together and tell jokes and have a lot of tommyrot that there's nothing to. That'll never take the place of a prayer meeting. Women, the way they go out and dress today, it's a disgrace.

80 I heard a remark that Brother Neville made, said, "The poor American people," said, "they have sent all their clothes overseas." That's right. They're walking around in their underclothes. That's right. They must have give them to the missionaries, because the mission ... the people, the heathens in the other country is wearing them. These people are doing without them; look like they like it.

81 Well, I tell you, there's something has been perverted, and that's the preaching of the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ. It's demons has stripped your clothes! There never was but one person in the Bible that ever tore their clothes off of them: that was a man that was demon possessed. And he comes in a mild form today, like he's social, like he's good, like it's all right: "It's cooler weather, and it'll make you cooler if you'll take off your clothes." Men, walking up and down the yards, half naked; and women, likewise. Why, you have ... getting so there's no more respect than there was with dogs one for another. What's the matter? I'm not trying to hurt you. I'm only trying to tell you it's demon possession, and you're listening to enticing spirits that's telling you, "That's all right." But it's a lie.

82 A grain of wheat will only produce wheat. If you're a Christian, you won't do that. You can't do it. You just can't do it. You got an intellectual faith and say, "Brother Branham, I believe the Bible." Your life tells that you don't. Amen. Enticing spirits bursting the Word of God.

He knowed where he was standing, Micaiah did; he had the Word of God. He was a very unpopular man. Nobody liked him because he told the truth, though they liked these preachers.

83 Now, another thing that has taken place. I believe and think that any man that's got an experience with God--or a woman--is bound to get a little emotional. I just believe it. That's right. But you know what? They've adopted emotionalism for the baptism of the Holy Ghost. They just get a lot of noise, and there's nothing in it. You live just as holy as you live noisy, then you'll be all right. Emotions is something all right; bodily exercise profiteth little. But enticing spirits has got over into the holiness group of people, and they've got them to just resting upon "because they can shout," or "because they can dance," "because they can make emotion."

84 That old fellow down there, the chief of all them prophets, or preachers, he was so sure that he was right, that he made himself a pair of horns and danced all around and made a big commotion: He was going to push the other Assyrian army out of the country. But it was a lie. God's Word had said different. Amen. See, you can be emotional right, if you got the right kind of emotion behind it, the right kind of emotion moving your emotion.

85 David danced before the Lord, and his wife laughed at him. And God looked down out of heaven, said, "David, you're a man after my own heart." But his motives was right; his life was right behind it.

86 So, just because we can be emotional don't mean that we're saved. Because we go to church don't mean we're saved. Don't believe those enticing spirits. A real Spirit of God, a real Word of God, is the truth of God, which is the seed of God, will produce God in your life, be godly, saintly, holy.

87 Amongst a lot of people we find where emotions and so forth there becomes tattlings and backbitings and all kinds of ungodly things. Brother, that's sulfuric acid in the church; it's demon power. Spirit of men and women who get among one another and try to push off and say, "This is not right, and this is not right, and that's not right." If you'll chase it down, nine times out of ten, it's the very person making the stir that's not right. Amen.

88 God hates discord among brethren. Be reverent, be holy, love God, stand by Him. And as long as you know your life is divvying up with the Bible, with purity of heart, purity of thought, love towards your brothers, trying your best to upbuild the kingdom of God and doing those things: dressing right, living right, talking right, going right places, then you can have all the emotions you want to, and everybody will believe it.

89 Jesus said, “You’re the salt of the earth. If the salt has lost its savor, it’s henceforth good for nothing but be cast out and trod under the foot of men.” If you’re just salt alone, it’s no good; but if you got the savor in it, you be salty and the world will be thirsty. You get salty, they’ll be thirsty. Oh, my!

90 Enticing spirits going forth, demons under disguises. Look, we’re in the last days, we’re in the end time. The world is just about ready to come to its head, like a sore boil somewhere that’s going to explode one of these days and the core jump out of it. It’s become filthy. There’s no salve can heal it. They’ve rejected the serum. They’ve rejected the treatment. You take a boil rising there, and if you don’t take penicillin or something to knock it out or something another, it’ll just keep rising till it’ll burst.

91 That’s what the world’s done; it started not long ago, letting down. They got off on great big ideas, false spirits come in and begin to tell people this, that, or the other. We’ve broke up into nine hundred and some different denominations, every one with a different view. They say, “We believe this, period! That’s all we believe.” They can’t let the Holy Spirit come in. They can’t have the right-of-way. God’s got a bunch of people that could shout; then everybody had to shout. They got some could speak with tongues; then everybody had to speak with tongues. They got it all like this till it become what? absolutely contaminated with enticing spirits, enticing people to do these emotions when there’s no God in it at all. Then they go out and live any kind of a life they desire to live, and then call it Christian.

And the world sits and looks on and says, “Well, look at there; I’m as good as they are.”

92 Like I said the other night about the hog, about the sinner. You can’t blame. . . . A sinner’s a sinner. Don’t try to reform him, don’t try to tell him this, that or the other. He’s a sinner to begin with. He’s a pig to begin with. He don’t know no different. If he goes to the movies, and he goes on Sunday, and he goes to ball games and he does all these things, he’s a sinner to begin with. His nature is like a hog. The old hog stick his nose down in a manure pile and eat all the grains out of it and everything, well, that’s. . . ; he’s a hog. You can’t blame him; he’s a hog! That’s the way with sinners. But when you go and call yourself a Christian and stick your nose in with him, then you're no better than he is; but you're worse. Come out from among them, let go of the world. Let go, and let God. Let go!

93 How do you let go? So many people are wondering today, saying, "Well, Brother Branham, how do you let go?" I know you heard a lot of theology on it: "Let go." A lot of people just work up a sweat trying to let go. Many people come around and say, "I'm going to go on a forty-day fast so I can do something." You don't need a forty-day fast. You need to let go of the world and all these devilish things, and take God's Word in your heart. You've got to be taught how to do that. You don't do it by jumping up and down, neither do you do it on a forty-day fast. You do it by a surrendered heart to Almighty God.

94 Like a little baby. I noticed a little old baby back there, his mother trying to put his little jacket on him this morning. He wanted to get his little arm in the sleeve. He couldn't put his arm in there; he don't know how. You've got to guide his little arm. He wants to get his arm in there, but he's just beating all around it. He never gets to the sleeve. He knows he's not in the sleeve.

95 And so do you know that you're not right with God when you're still backbiting, lying and doing other things. You can't be right with God--I don't care how many churches you belong to--until your soul becomes converted! Brother, that's old fashioned, but that will boil down and put soup in your soul. Right!

Try to put his arm in, he's got to have someone to direct him in, how to put his arm in. Then when he gets his arm in his little jacket, he knows he's all right.

96 That's the way it is with every born-again Christian. When he really gets into God, he watches his life with God's Word, and he realizes he's lined up with every bit of it. He's got long-suffering, gentleness, quietness, meekness, power, faith, love, joy, peace. He ain't tossed about like the troubled seas. He ain't worried about every little thing. He ain't jumping here and there like a bottle stopper on a windy ocean. He's set! His heart is pure, his thoughts are pure, his intentions are pure, his alternative's right; and he knows he lines up with the Word of God. All hell can't move him. He's lined by the Word of God. He's got divine love, purity in his heart for every man and woman. He's got... The things of the world, they're dead to him. He don't want them no more.

Why, you couldn't make a Holy Ghost girl put on a pair of them ungodly-looking clothes and get out there for nothing. No, sir.

97 There's no need to go and tell her she's wrong, because she won't believe you, because that's all she knows. That's her joy. The woman that puts on those little things to get out of an evening just when the man comes home, [unclear word] just to mow the yard, and tell me that's right? Woman, I don't mean to say you're evil, I don't mean to say you're immoral, but you don't realize, sister, that an unclean spirit has got a hold of you. What would you do it for? You got sense enough to know that it's not cooler. It's hotter. There's an unclean spirit.

98 You say, "Me? I went to church." Nebuchadnezzar was a great man. But because he got haughty, God give him the spirit of an ox and let him eat grass for seven years, and his fingernails grew out like some of these women's do around here. That's right. And he got demon possessed.

A man got demon possessed and stripped his clothes off. They couldn't put clothes on him. Do you see what I mean? It's enticing spirits.

99 Your church puts up with it. Your preacher's afraid to say anything. Afraid that you won't pay in your tithes anymore. That's the reason. That's the trouble. My goodness! How're you going to preach to a bunch of buzzards 'less you get them converted and right with God to begin with? They're rooting their nose in dead stuff all the time. What you need is a dumping out and an old-fashioned revival sweep from coast to coast to get men and women right with God. Let loose the things of the world! Let loose the petty soft-pedaled preaching. Amen. Preach the Gospel. God said so! "If you love the world or the things of the world, the love of God is not even in you."

100 People can jump up and down and shout all night long and speak in tongues like pouring peas on a dry cow hide; walk right out the next morning with enough temper to fight a buzz saw, go right on out and tell something in the church that'll cause the whole church to be broke up. It's nothing in the world but enticing, demon spirits! Want to come back to the Word, where God is purity, holy. Amen. Right. Enticing spirits bursting the Word of God!

101 Here's a man not long ago got a little woman. Catholics got a [unclear word] over there. In the time of her menopause, it comes out in her hands and her forehead. It's a good Holy Ghost preacher, I thought. That man had a bottle of that stuff out of her hands, going around anointing people with it. Whew! Mercy! It's antichrist! I don't care if blood comes from her nose or from her head or where; brother, there's no blood will take the place of Jesus Christ the Son of God. That's the only blood I know anything about. She might have had oil poured out of one hand and wine out of the other one, but if you use it in any form of religion, it's a devil. To see how preachers will fall for such stuff as that!

102 What we need, is come back to the guide Book, back to the Word of God. This is the Word of God, the blessed old Bible. Say, "Well, I'm afraid to come there, Brother Branham. I'm afraid that I'll lose some of my joy." What's the matter? You don't know what joy is.

103 I said, "I don't condemn the drunkard for going out and getting drunk. He's all moody. He don't know ... he gets up a morning, he's got the blues, a hangover, goes out and gets him two or three bottles of beer, and goes out and gets him some whiskey, and all that kind of stuff. The little cigarette sucker sits back and smokes and blow up through his nose like he was a freight train. That's all.... I don't blame him; that's all the joy he knows. That's all he knows about. He's a pig by nature.

104 Shame on you who profess to be a Christian and rely on such things for joy when the Holy Ghost Gospel is nothing but one great big powerhouse of joy. The Holy Ghost Gospel is a perfect intoxication for every man that's got the blues. You'll take a drink of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, be filled with the Holy Ghost, you're drunk until you leave this world. Amen. Joy unspcakable and full of glory. There's a constant stimulation. It's a constant intoxication, drunk day and night. Amen. That's the Word of God.

105 The church comes around, adopts other things. They have to have a little party where they all go out on the beach to have recreation. A card party, get together for fellowship. That's right. Have a dance sometimes at one of the members' house, sometimes in the church basement. A dance, adopting trying to get something to satisfy. What's the matter with the big bunch of pigs anyhow? They're pigs to begin with. If they'd ever come in contact with Christ, they'd have so much joy those things would be deader than midnight to them. Gospel-drunk on the Spirit, joy unspeakable and full of glory.

106 Don't condemn the sinner; have mercy on him. Let him go ahead and smoke his pipe, let him drink his liquor, let him have his card parties. That's his pleasure. Don't blame him. Coming home and everything, tired and worn out, he wants some pleasure. The thing for you to do is live such a godly life that you can prove to him that the gospel holds ten thousand times more than that for him. [Blank spot on tape.]

107 And if he dies in that state he'll go to hell on his liquor. That's the devil's intoxication. If he dies dragging on that old pipe, God's his judge. If he dies going out here dancing and running around with immoral clothes on, God's their judge. But there's one thing: If he would die under the anointing power of the Holy Ghost like Stephen did when he looked up in the face of God, said, "I see heavens open and Jesus standing at the right hand," you're heaven-bound like a martin to its box. Amen. Enticing spirits bursting the Word of God. Let loose. Let go.

"How do you do it, Brother Branham?"

108 Just let go. That's all you have to do. Take God's Word. Don't try to work up nothing. Don't get down at the altar and beat on it and holler, "Lord, give me the Holy Ghost! Lord, give me the Holy Ghost!" He ain't coming ... you beating on that altar. That don't do no good. No. That ain't the way He comes. It's taking Him at His Word.

Look at Peter. Peter was in a terrible ... looked like he was going to die. And he seen the Lord come walking on the water. And he said, "Lord, if that be You, bid me come."

Lord said, "Come on."

109 Why, Peter said, “Now wait a minute, Lord. Let me go on a forty-day fast. Let’s see if I can walk on that water or not. O Lord, let me get enough spirit on me till I can dance in the Spirit and speak in tongues in this boat, then I can step out.” No, sir. He took God at his Word, let loose and let go. God took him through.

110 What if God met Moses and He said, “Moses, go down there into Egypt and tell Pharaoh, ‘Let my people go.’” What if Moses said, “Let me go on a forty-day fast first and see if I got faith enough to obey you, God? Give me something another. Let me tell you something: Let me see if I get in the Spirit first.” Moses never asked no questions. He just took God at His Word and took off. That’s the way you have to do it. Take God at His Word. Then you know you’ll be able to do it. He didn’t wait till something else taken place; he just went ahead and done it.

111 What about Elijah, when he come down off of Mt. Carmel? Been up there for a long time. And he met a poor old widow woman. She was an alien, a Gentile. And when he met her down there, she was picking up some sticks in the yard. And God told him to go down there to that widow’s house. What a place for the preacher to go. There he was down there to the widow’s house. And what she did, she had two sticks. Said, “What are you doing.”

112 Said, “Picking up some sticks. I got just enough meal to make a couple of corn cakes. That’s all I got left. It’s three years since we had any rain.” Said, “Then I’m going to make these corncakes, and me and my boy is going to eat them and die.”

He said, “Make me one first.” Hallelujah! Oh, I know I’m a little bit crazy, but I’m on the Lord’s side anyhow. Said, “Make me one first, for thus saith the Lord. . . .”

113 There you are. What is it? “Seek ye first the kingdom of God and his righteousness.” Not the kingdom of God and a little noise, not the kingdom of God and a little emotion, not the kingdom of God and a little this or that; but, “God and his righteousness, and all these other things will be added to you.” Put first. . . . Now, that widow heard that “Faith cometh by hearing, hearing by the Word.”

114 She said, “That’s the Word of the Lord, for that’s a holy man of God. That’s God’s prophet. Now, I know it’s the truth and that’s the Word of God.” Now, she didn’t run across to ask the neighbors how to do it. She didn't want to go to share her ... her ... tell her neighbor, say, "What do you think? The preacher's at my house saying this. Suzy, what do you think about this?"

115 She went in to get a dump-out. She let go. She let go of what she had that she might get more. That's what the world needs today is a good old-fashioned letting go of what you got. Hallelujah! She dumped out so she could get filled up. She dumped all the oil she had; and all the oil she had and all the meal she had to the preacher, to the kingdom of God. And when she dumped it all in there, God came down, filled up the meal barrel, filled up the oil jug. She dumped it again in the preacher's place, and come down, filled it up again. He dumped in ... every time she dumped, He filled it.

116 I say today, if men will dump out all this nonsense of carrying on, impersonating Christianity, and let the Holy Ghost take its place, there'll be a revival start on Eighth and Penn Street that'll sweep the whole country. Quit the nonsense, get back to the Word of God. Dump out that you might fill up. You let go and God will let come. You dump out, God will fill in. All the petty things, that you got to do this, and you've got to do that, you ought to do this, that. Forget it. Dump it out of your soul. Say, "God, let me, from this day, be wholly Thine. Lord, I come with a broken heart. I come with a contrite spirit. I love You. You know I love You. I want to forget all this foolishness of all these forty-day fasts and see if I can get closer to God, and all this, that and the other, all this nonsense."

117 Stop it! There's nothing in the Word tells you to have a forty-day fast. Not a thing. Nothing in the Word telling you to fast unless God would tell you. And if you fast, you ain't going to get hungry and go all things. If you are fasting, brother, you'll be joy and happy all the time. Said, "Don't appear before men like hypocrites do, with a long, sad face." "I'm going on a forty-day fast and my clothes don't fit me any more. I've lost thirty pounds, and they told me I'd look better after this was over." Oh, nonsense. It's enticing spirits of the devil.

118 Get up to the altar and say, "Glory, glory, glory," till you can't hardly say anything else, and say you got to speak in tongues before you get the Holy Ghost. Nonsense. Dump it out. Get that out of your system and come on the Word of God. He said, “Repent every one of you and be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of your sins, and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.” If God don’t keep his Word, He’s not God. Amen. Dump out; get filled up. Amen. Whew! I love that; that’s His Word. God said so. That’s right. And when God said it, God will take care of it. All right. All the preparations you make, all the going to church you do. . . .

119 It’s just like down here at the car works where they build a big bunch of freight . . . or, a big bunch of passenger cars. I used to work there. And they take and build those big coaches and everything, and put hardwood, inlaid mahogany all around, and everything so beautiful, set it out there on the track; and it was as dead as a doornail. There sat the engine, no steam in it; she just sat there.

120 What it needs today is some fire in the boiler. What it needs today is some steam. What it needs today, the church, to boil. . . . The hottest boiling thing there is to boil sin out of your life is love. And if you can’t love one another, how you going to love God who you haven’t seen? Love hides a multitude of sin. Get in love with God, then you’ll love one another, then you’ll love the church, you’ll love the cause, you’ll love everything that’s godly; then you’ll keep away from the things of the world.

121 Enticing spirits going around telling people this, that or the other, “They’ve got to do this; they’ve got to do that.” It’s because that denominations has raised up and they got a little revelation that they say, “Well, now, I believe that a man . . . I believe in such a thing as shouting, in the Bible.” That’s right, that’s the truth. They made a denomination out of it: “When you shout, you’ve got it.” But you haven’t.

122 The next one raise up, said, “Speaking in tongues.” That’s right; that’s in the Bible. “But when you speak in tongues, you got it.” But a lot of them spoke in tongues and didn’t have it, see. That’s not it. No, sir.

A lot of them said, “Well, we got to prophesy.”

123 Look at these prophets here with horns on their head, jumping up and down and prophesying. Micaiah said, “You’re every one lying.” Amen. Right. God don’t come like that. God comes to the sincere heart that comes with a contrite, broken spirit. “He that goeth forth sowing in tears will doubtless return again rejoicing, bringing with him precious sheaves.” Amen. Get that right, friends.

124 So much demonology, demons working in human souls. Watch where it bears its fruit. Watch what kind of a life a person lives. See the way they’re acting, watch the way they do, see what their motives is. It’s just as impossible. . . . If I told you that the only way. . . . Here sits the cars all lined up here; Heaven is in Charlestown; you can’t walk; the only way you can go is a car. And every man that crosses the line must bring in five gallons of gasoline. Here’s his car; but if he don’t have gasoline, he can’t run it. Well, that’s exactly, perfectly the way it is in heaven. If you die without God, I don’t care how you lived and how many cars you built, if the love of God isn’t there to pull you into the kingdom of God, you’re lost.

125 There’s a negative and positive. No matter how much positive this current runs here, if it hasn’t got a ground wire, it’ll never light. That’s right. You’ve got to be rooted, grounded in the love of God. Oh, brother! Bring that negative and positive together, you’ll have a light, the good old-fashioned gospel light that spreads from shore to shore. You’ll never have it without it. No matter how much shaking and jumping you can do with a positive, you’ve got to have the ground wire to flash the light. Amen.

126 Did you ever notice, you set a ground wire here on this and every bit goes plumb back down here to the substation, right down through the ground. And every time a man gets rooted and grounded in God’s Word, it roots and grounds it in Calvary, yonder where the anchor, the tie post of God was brought there to flash the light of the gospel. Amen.

127 You know what’s the matter? People in these great big cold formal morgues, out here pretending to be preaching the gospel. . . . A little preacher come to me yesterday, (belongs to one of the greatest denominations there is in the land today, outside of Catholic), he said, “Brother Branham, I’m sick and tired.” Said, “They’re going to make all of us preachers put on robes and turn our collars around and preach certain things, and they’ll tell us what to preach on each quarter.” He said, “I can’t stand it no longer.” He said, “What must I do? Walk out and start preaching the gospel?”

128 I said, “Brother, as long as you’re with that denomination, respect it. You say just what they are, but walk up to your presbyter or your state superintendent, and say, 'Sir, I've been born again of the Spirit of God. Here's the Word of God. If you'll let me preach that, I'll stay in your church. If you don't, I'm gone. Turn it over to somebody else.'" That's the way to do it. Don't beat around the bush. Don't be negative. Come out and say what it is. Right.

He said, "Brother Branham, you think I'll have a congregation?"

I said, "Where the carcass is, the eagles will be gathered." That's right, they'll follow.

129 Like the man once that hatched out some chickens. This is not a joke; I don't mean it for a joke. I mean it for a point. He was going to set his chicken and he didn't have enough eggs. He put a duck egg under one. And when they all hatched out, the duck was the funniest looking thing the chickens ever saw.

130 So, the hen would cluck to the chickens and the little chicks would come, but the duck didn't know that language. But one day the old hen led him out behind the barn; there was a creek down behind the barn. When that little duck smelled that water, he took out to the water as hard as he could go. The old hen said, "Cluck, cluck, cluck." And the little duck said, "Honk, honk, honk." He was headed for the water. Why? He was a duck by nature. When he smelled water, brother, he couldn't keep away from it, for he was a duck.

131 And I say today, any people that's really wanting to find God, they won't let no church dictate to them the things that they can't live that, or the other. If you've got the nature of God in you, you'll go to holiness; you'll go to right things. You'll stand for the right thing; you'll do the right thing. You'll think the right thing; you'll live the right thing. If you're a duck, you like water. If you're a Christian, you like Christ. If you're a devil, you like the things of the devil. If you're a buzzard, you eat dead things. If you're a pig, you'll root manure.

132 Where're you at today? Right. You claiming to be up here eating the things of the Lord, then go down and root with the devil, there's something wrong with it. Quit listening to them spirits; they're devils. No matter if you have to stand alone. Men and women that's ever amounted to anything, nearly, has been men and women who stood alone with God.

133 Look at Micaiah how he stood there, like, not the rock of Gibraltar, but the Rock of Ages. He said, "I'll not speak nothing. . . . I don't care what the seminary says, I don't care what my congregation says, I don't care what the king says, if they cut my head off, I'll only say what God puts in my mouth to say." He was right. He was right.

134 And today, men and women, don't pay no attention to what the world's got for you, what entreatment it's got, what kind of a bacteria or inoculation they have and claim: "If you join the church, you'll be all right." That's a false inoculation. Why? You still got the disease of sin. That's right. But I tell you one thing, brother, that will inoculate you from sin: that's, come through the precious blood of the Lord Jesus Christ and be filled with the Holy Ghost, and that'll inoculate you from all sin, and your desires will be heaven bound. And you won't have no time for the things of the world. Shall we pray.

135 Heavenly Father, when we see these enticing spirits upon people, and knowing that they are despising the things of God, I pray, God, that You'll get a hold of every man and woman in here today. Let this be a day, Lord, that they'll realize that their life doesn't tally up with the Word, and they've been listening to the wrong thing, that the devil's been soothing them down with old True Story magazines, old rotten tommyrot of the world, and old moving picture shows and unclean television.

136 O God, such impossible things for a Christian to look at! God, it makes us sick. You said it made You sick, like vomit. You said, "A dog goes to its vomit and a hog goes to its wallow." An old dog will vomit up something. See an old half-born (supposed to be), hypocritical person come to the altar and like you're going to vomit up the world, still keep right on and come right back and eat the thing again.

137 O God, cleanse your house, Lord. Hallelujah! Send the Holy Ghost with such old-time conviction that it'll clean a man's appetite and clean his soul and clean him up and make him a heaven-bound creature. Give him. . . . Renew his youth and his vows like the eagle, that he might mount up and surpass the things of this world, and soar in the heavens yonder where he can see the troubles coming in the distance. Grant it, Lord.

138 You likened your prophets to them, the eagles, that had the eye of the eagle, could go way high and see things a long time before it got there. O God, bless this little church. Bless these people that come here. Bless the strangers in the gates today. And let them know that this message was not directed to no personal being, but directed especially, Lord, to those who are deeply in need; knowing that someday we must stand together in the judgment of God, and knowing that we'll be held responsible for knowing the truth and not saying it. Father, I pray that it'll be taken upon every heart. In Jesus' name.

139 With our heads bowed just a moment, I wonder if there's someone here this morning would say, "Brother Branham, I'm sick and tired of these little old things. I've got petty things that's hung on me so long. I'm always talking out of turn. I'm doing things I shouldn't do, and I know it's not becoming to a Christian. I don't want to do that; God knows I don't. And I don't want to listen to that old spirit anymore. It's the thing that's kept me down all my life, from having real love and freedom in Christ. I want you to pray for me, Brother Branham, that it'll leave me this day." Will you raise your hand? Every head be bowed. God bless you. Oh, my, dozens of hands!

140 Little old petty things, little old things that make you talk or start some kind of a little fussing in the church, make you take sides with something another like that. Oh, that's ungodly. That's discord among brethren. And don't do that. You don't want that. You don't want that and little old things, little old tempers and everything else, to keep you down.

141 Say, "God, I don't want that thing no more. I'm sick and tired of it. I'm ready today to discard it. I'm coming now, Lord, and I want to get away from all my selfishness. If my brother doesn't treat me right, I'll pray for him anyhow. If my daddy doesn't treat me right, I'll love him anyhow. If my wife doesn't treat me right, or my husband, I'll go about humble before God. Lord, I look only to your kingdom. I want my mind straight. I want my heart full of joy. I want to go about when trouble is really buzzing around me, I still want to stand with my hands up and my heart pure before You, Lord, knowing this, that someday I'll meet You. I want that kind of experience. Lord, make me that from this day."

142 Would you raise your hand, somebody that didn't raise their hand a while ago? God bless you. God bless you. (Sister, give us a little chord while we have our heads bowed.) How much do you really mean it? Don't play now. This is not a playing time. This is a receiving time. This is a time that you must get it. Come dump it out right now, will you? Come, give all you got to God. Say, "God, I ain't got very much. I'm just a little housewife. I can't do very much, Lord, but I can read your Bible, I can pray every day. I can throw out all the trash that's in my mind. I can throw all that stuff out. I'm guilty of a lot of things that preacher said this morning, so I'm dumping it out today. I don't want it. God, fill me with love. Fill me with the thing that makes me love the bitterest enemy I got. I really want it, Lord."

143 While she's playing here, won't you come now and stand at the altar just a moment while we gather with a word of prayer? If you really mean that now, if you're really ready to forsake it, you'll never leave this altar today with that on your heart if you'll come sincere and say, "I'm coming up here just to stand just a minute, Brother Branham, for you have a word of prayer with me, personally. I want to come pray." Will you come now? With your heads bowed, who will rise and come to the altar, stand around the altar?

Pass me not, O gentle Saviour,
Hear my humble cry;
While on others Thou art calling,
Oh, do not pass me by.

Saviour, Saviour,
Hear my humble cry;
While on others Thou art calling,
Oh, do not pass me by.

144 No matter how long you've been a Christian, you still got those little old spirits that talk to you, makes you fly loose, makes you talk about somebody. When somebody comes up and goes to speaking about somebody else, you join right in with them and, oh, just run them down. That's wrong, brother. Don't do that. That'll finally keep you out of the promised land. If you just got a little old things that you oughtn't to have, if the love of God really isn't in your heart, won't you be lady and man, walk up and say, "God, right here I'm going to dump it out this morning, right here. I'm going away from this altar a different person." Would you come?

145 Is there a sinner that has never accepted Jesus? You know you're a sinner, you don't know Him as your Saviour. You say, "Brother Branham, yes, I thought I had a lot of pleasure. I go to dances and parties and all those things. I watch the wrong kind of shows, and I read the wrong kind of literature, I read old books that's got vulgar stories in it. I kind of enjoy reading it." Brother, there's something wrong with you. That's your appetite. See, you let me see what a man reads, let me see what he watches, listen to the music he listens at.

146 The other day coming along in a car, a certain person reached over and turned on my radio, some kind of old vulgar music. I said, "Turn that thing off. I don't want to hear that." Some old boogie-woogie stuff.

Said, "Why? I like to hear that."

I said, "Your nature's wrong. You're wrong."

147 When I was out here a few days after that, up on the mountainside . . . or, hillside, fishing with the person. Them little birds was a singing, the larks was hollering, the old nightingale flying up in the air, nightingale singing the praises. And I hollered to that boy, I said, "Look, boy, that's my music. Keep that turned on. That's my radio. No [unclear words] to sing to me while I am here. It soothes my soul."

148 Better than all the old crazy stuff, these old juke boxes roaring, going on, you can't even eat in a public place. It's a devil's diet. It's a devil's power. All messed up with sin. Are you all gaumed up out there and enjoy that? When they put that money in them little old boxes, and all that old dirty stuff come on, you enjoy that? Shame on you! You're a backslider. You're away from God. You don't know God. If you knowed God and forgiveness of your sins, you'd never listen to such nonsense as that. It'd be dead to you. You'd vomit from it. You don't want it. Your diet's better; you love God. Won't you come this morning, kneel down here with these confessors this morning?

149 Here's men and women kneeling right here that's been Christian for years. I'm not unchristianize them, but what I'm trying to do is tell them that devil that's haunting them is keeping them out of the full joy. The Holy Ghost is joy. Well, I wake up drunk, I go to bed drunk, I'm drunk all day long, drunk all night long. I just love.... I go fishing. I'm just passing. "Gentle Saviour, hear my humble cry." I go hunting, and singing the praises of God. I'm preaching everywhere I go. Don't you want to be that way? Full of the Holy Ghost, that stimulates you. Oh, my! Hear them sing them old dirty songs, you can sing it:

I am bound for the promised land,
I am bound for the promised land;
O, who will come and go with me?
I am bound for the promised land.

I am bound for the promised land,
I am bound for the promised land;
O, who will come and go with me?
I am bound for the promised land.

When shall I reach that blissful rest,
And be forever blest!
When shall I see my Father's face,
And in his bosom rest?

I am bound for the promised land,
I am bound for the promised land;
O, who will come and go with me?
I am bound for the promised land.

150 Won't you come go along? I remember when about five hundred of us standing there when I was baptizing a hundred and twenty, about this time of year, down here on the banks of the river, when that great morning star come shining around on the river. Hallelujah! A voice speaking from it, said, "Someday you'll spread the Gospel throughout the world."

151 How could a poor, little, ignorant farm boy ever do that? It's the grace of God!" Amen. Oh, who will come and go? Get rid of, lay aside every weight now. Don't listen to those enticing spirits. Come, listen to the Word of God, Thus saith the Lord! "Blessed are they that hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled."

152 Let's bow our heads now while we're praying with these at the altar. Dear children, I want you to remember this morning here: You're there to lay aside the weight. You're there to lay aside every weight and the sin that so easily besets you.

Paul said, in Hebrews the twelfth chapter, "Seeing that we are compassed about with such a great cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin that so easily besets us."

153 "And what shall I more say? For time would not tell of Gideon, of Balak . . . or, Barak, of Samson, of Jephthae, of David, of Samuel, and of the prophets, who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouth of lions, quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness was made strong, and waxed valiant, the enemy in flight. And women received their dead raised to life; and others received torment, cruel mockings, and scourges, yea, moreover this of bonds and imprisonment. And others who had trials, mockings, scourgings, they all obtained a good report through faith. And all these having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise; God having provided some better thing for us, that without us they might not be made perfect."

154 "Wherefore seeing we are compassed about with such a great cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin that doth so easily beset us, that we might run with patience the race that's set before us. Looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despised the shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God."

155 Jesus, in His prayer, said, "Father, I sanctify myself." Jesus become sanctified to the church. He could have got married, but He didn't do it. He become sanctified. He said, "Sanctify them, Father, through the truth. Thy Word is the truth."

156 Now, let's lay aside every weight. You got a temper? You got something about you that you talk when you ought not to talk? O God! Lay it there now. Lay it there, watch the fire of the altar come down and take it away. Watch the love of God lick it up. Watch all that old selfishness, the way you've been talking to your wife, the way you've been talking to your husband, the way you've been talking to your neighbor, the way you've talked about the people in the church, lay it on the altar this morning; and the fire of God will come down and take it right away, and divine love will burn in its place.

If you've got sickness, lay it on the altar, say, "Lord, here it is. Create in me a clean spirit. Create in me a healing power." See what God will do. God will do it this morning.

157 Our Heavenly Father, we bow in Thy presence, on behalf of those at the altar. Let Thy grace rest upon each one of them, Father. Now, as they lay ... I can't do it for them; they've got to do it themselves. No man can do it for them; they have to do it alone. Let their souls now say in theirself, "O God, this temper, I lay it down here, Lord. I'll never pick it up. No matter what comes or goes, I'll let it go from now on. This tongue of mine that's been easy to take sides with a bunch of gossip, Lord, I'm laying it down here. I'll never pick it up again. Sanctify my tongue, Lord. Let me feel the angels coming through like Isaiah did when he said, 'I'm of unclean lips. Woe is me!'"

158 And the angel come, took the tongs and went to the altar and got the coals of fire and laid it on his lips and sanctified him. God, sanctify every talker this morning that talks wrong and sows discord. Grant it, Lord.

159 All the diseases that's bowed here in this building (diseased people), knowing that they's devils too. God, as your servant, I rebuke them in Jesus' name. May they come out of every sick person. And may every unclean person that's got unclean thoughts, vulgar, lust, men and women alike, God take it out of them. All these here trying to get rid of cigarettes and little social drinks and little parties and selfish things. God, stimulate their heart with the Holy Ghost in such a way that those things won't have any desire no more. They'll have no room, they're so full of the Holy Ghost from now on.

160 God, make this little church a burning bush; may the Holy Ghost faith make it a burning fire that the world might turn aside to see the glory of God. God, start with this little handful of people, of a couple a hundred here this morning. Grant it, Lord.

161 Purify every heart, every Methodist, every Baptist, every Catholic, every Presbyterian, every Pentecostal. Lord, take it out of their hearts, and let them come to You today. Grant it, Father. I commend them to You and commit them to You, in Jesus Christ's name, for the cleansing of their souls and the healing of their bodies. Amen.

162 I wonder, at the altar, have you left your burdens? Do you feel like it's laying there? If you feel it's laying there, you be the judge. You're the one that's praying. I've done the preaching; you're doing the praying. Is your burden left there, brother, sister? Can you really leave it there? If you can, raise your hand, say, "Yes, God, now I leave it here. My difference, I'll leave it here at the altar." What about it down on the end of the altar here on the right, ladies? Can you leave it there? Can you leave that old burden lay there, say, "Yes, my faith looks up to Thee, Thou Lamb of Calvary." While we all sing it together now.

My faith looks up the Thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Oh, Saviour divine;
Now hear me while I pray,
Take all my guilt away,
O, let me from this day
Be wholly Thine!

163 Let's stand to our feet, real reverent, everyone. Now listen closely, everybody now. Don't no one leave, just... Service is not finished. I want you to get this: the sacredness, the solemnity. "While life's dark maze I tread, and griefs around me spread, be Thou my guide. Bid darkness turn to day, wipe sorrow's tears away, and let me from this day be wholly Thine!" Don't sing it to your neighbor now, close your eyes and let's sing it slowly as we raise our hands to God.

While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be Thou my Guide;
Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow, tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From Thee aside.

I've got a Father over yonder,
I've got a Father over yonder,
I've got a Father over yonder,
On the other shore.

Oh, some bright day I'll go and see Him,
Some bright day I'll go and see Him,
Some bright day I'll go and see Him,
On the other shore.

Oh, that bright day may be tomorrow,
That bright day may be tomorrow,
That bright day may be tomorrow,
On the other shore.

164 I wonder now, how many's got a father in the other land? Let's see your hands. How many's got a mother in the other land? Let's see your hand. How many's got a Saviour in the other land? Let's see your hand.

Oh, won't that be a happy meeting!
Won't that be a happy meeting!
Won't that be a happy meeting!
Upon the other shore.

165 I want you to do something. Now, while we sing that again, I want you to shake hands with somebody standing by you and say, "Brother, sister, pray for me, that I'll meet you in the other land." Don't do it unless you mean it. How many wants to meet one another? How many wants to meet everybody here over there? Sure we do. Now, let's just shake one another's hands and say, "I want to meet you, brother; I want to meet you on the other side." Now, while we sing this, "I've got a Saviour over yonder." All right.

I've got a Saviour over yonder,
I've got a Saviour over yonder,
I've got a Saviour over yonder,
Upon the other shore.

Oh, some bright day I'll go and see Him,
Some bright day I'll go and see Him,
Some bright day I'll go and see Him,
On the other shore.

Don't that make you feel good? That fine?

Jesus, keep me near the cross,
There's a precious fountain,
Free to all, a healing stream,
Flows from Calvary's mountain.

Everybody raise your hand now.

In the cross, in the cross,
Be my glory ever;
Till my raptured soul shall find
Rest beyond the river.

In the cross, in the cross,
Be my glory ever;
Till my raptured soul shall find
Rest beyond the river.

I love Him, I love Him
Because He first loved me
And purchased my salvation
On Calvary's tree (Praise be to God!)

166 Let's silently now just bow our heads and in our own lovely way let's just praise Him with our hands up, saying, "Thank You, Lord, for saving my soul. Thank You, Lord, for making me whole. Thank you, Lord, for all that You've done, bringing sweet deliverance, bringing free salvation. Thank You Lord." We give You this thank offering.

167 We praise You because You're so lovely. You're the Lily of the Valley, the Morning Star, the Rose of Sharon, the all-in-all. You're the Father, the Son, the Holy Spirit; He that was, which is, and shall come; the great Alpha, Omega. You're the wonderful One, the Prince of Peace, the root and offspring of David. You're all! And we thank You, Lord, for all that You've done. We thank You for your Word, for it is a light unto our path. Oh, we pray, Lord, that You'll let us walk in the light. Grant it, Father. In Jesus Christ's name. Amen. All right, while we be seated a minute, "We'll walk in the light."

We'll walk in the light, such a beautiful light,
Come where the dewdrops of mercy are bright;
Shine all around us by day and by night,
Jesus, the light of.

Come on, saints, let's sing it now!

We'll walk in the light (purity, holiness)
beautiful light,
Come where the dewdrops of mercy are bright;
Shine all around us by day and by night,
Jesus, the light of the world.

Come, confess Him as your King,
Jesus the Light of the world;
Then the bells of heaven will ring,
Jesus, the light of the world.

Everyone!

We'll walk in the light,
(now watch it, my friend) beautiful light,
Come where the dewdrops of mercy are bright;
Shine all around us by day and by night,
Jesus, the light of the world.

168 Don't it make you feel good? How many feels good? Just raise up your hands now, say, "I feel real good." Holy Spirit all scoured you out? Then we'll what? Walk in the light. Don't listen to any ... What is the light? "Thy Word is a lamp."

So then we'll walk in this light,
it's a beautiful light,
It comes where the dewdrops of mercy
are bright;
Shine all around us by day and by night,
Jesus, the light of the world.

Now, isn't that marvelous? Looks like we just can't close. The Holy Spirit just gripping us. Don't you feel that way? Just feels like I'm in a ... just seems like you just can't. ...

..... Gospel is dripping with blood,
The blood of disciples who died for the truth,
This Holy Ghost Gospel is dripping with blood.

The first one to die for this Holy Ghost plan,
Was John the Baptist, but he died like a man;
Then came the Lord Jesus, they crucified Him,

He preached that the Spirit would save men from sin.

There's Peter and Paul, and John the divine,
They gave up their lives so this gospel could shine;

They mingled their blood, like the prophets of old,
So the true Word of God could honest be told.

Then they stoned Stephen, he preached against sin,
He made them so angry, they bashed his head in;
But he died in the Spirit, he gave up the ghost,
And went to join the others, that life-giving host.

It keeps dripping with blood, yes, it's dripping
with blood,
This Holy Ghost Gospel is dripping with blood,
The blood of disciples who died for the truth,
This Holy Ghost Gospel keeps dripping with blood.

Listen! There's souls under the altar, is crying,
"How long?"
For the Lord to punish those who've done wrong;
But there's going to be more who'll give their life's blood
For this Holy Ghost Gospel with its crimson flood.

Just keeps dripping with blood, (hallelujah), it's dripping with blood, (I want to be one of them)
This Holy Ghost gospel, It's dripping with blood,
The blood of disciples who died for the truth,
This Holy Ghost Gospel is dripping with blood.

169 I'd like to go right from the pulpit. Amen. Oh, how wonderful!
My brethren to give their life's blood. There's going to be more will do the same thing. Don't worry, it's coming down to a showdown pretty soon; you'll either go in or go out. They're all affiliating now in the Council of Churches, and all going in, they're all conglomerating together.

And there's going to more who will give their life's blood,
For this Holy Ghost Gospel and its cleansing flood.

It's dripping with blood, yes, it's dripping,
(Oh, hallelujah!)

This Holy Ghost Gospel is dripping with blood,
The blood of disciples who died for the truth,
This Holy Ghost Gospel is dripping with blood.

170 My, I feel like the rapture is just above the church. Oh, it just makes me feel so good. All sins are under the blood. See, the Holy Spirit likes the Word. The Word's what the Holy Spirit feeds on, you see. Oh, my! It comes down and gets in among the people, cleanses their sins, takes away their sickness, takes the blues away. Now I'm drunk. Just drunk as I can be, drunk on the Spirit, love pouring out of my heart. No matter what anybody ever done, it's forgiven. The bitterest enemy, it's all over, anybody that's ever talked or said anything. "I wish it was all gone." All cleansed now.

And it's dripping with blood, yes, it's dripping
with blood,
The Holy Ghost Gospel is dripping with blood,
The blood of disciples who died for the truth,
This Holy Ghost Gospel is dripping with blood.
(Oh my, how wonderful)

What a wonderful time for you,
What a wonderful time for me;
If we all prepare to meet Jesus our King,
What a wonderful time it will be.

Oh, wonderful time for you,
A wonderful time for me;
If we all prepare to meet Jesus our King,
What a wonderful time it will be.

Do you like that? Everybody, come on!

Oh, wonderful time for you,
A wonderful time for me;
If we all prepare to meet Jesus our King,
What a wonderful time it will be.

171 I just feel like an old-fashioned revival is in the church. Don't you? Just an old cleansing up, scouring out, good, old wonderful time. Don't you feel good? Oh! "I will praise Him, I will praise Him, Praise the Lamb for sinners slain." Let's sing it, everybody. Do you know it? I know it. How many? You help me lead it, Brother Neville. All of you together now, just raise your hands, sing it with me now.

Praise the Lamb for sinners slain;
Give Him glory, all ye people,
For His blood has washed away each stain.

Now, everybody, come on!

I will praise Him, I will praise Him,
Praise the Lamb for sinners slain;
Give Him glory, all ye people,
For His blood has washed away each stain.

(Amen. That wonderful?)

Pearly white city,
I have a mansion, a harp and a crown;
Now I am watching, watching and waiting,
For the white city John saw coming down.

(Amen. Wonderful. Oh!)

172 Now let us stand to our feet, everyone. I hope you're feeling good. Remember the services tonight. Now we want to sing our good, old dismissing song, "At the name of Jesus bowing, falling prostrate at his feet. King of kings in heaven we'll crown Him, when our journey is complete." All right, everyone now, together now.

At the name of Jesus bowing,
Falling prostrate at His feet,
King of kings in heaven we'll crown Him,
When our journey is complete.

Precious name (precious name)
Oh, how sweet! (Oh, how sweet!)
Hope of earth and joy of heaven;
Precious name (precious name)
Oh, how sweet! (Oh, how sweet!)
Hope of earth and joy of heaven.

173 What a wonderful morning, what a wonderful time. Let's bow our heads now just a moment. Everyone, look right straight to Christ now, your Saviour, in a silent way. I want you to give Him thanks and praise. Say, "Lord, I so thank You for sanctifying my soul. I so thank You for all that You've done for me. Let thy Spirit be upon me through the day. Lord, guide me, direct me, bless me.” God grant that blessing to you is my prayer. Now, while we bow our heads, Brother Neville, will you dismiss us in a word of prayer?
