

Joseph The Dreamer

Jeffersonville, Indiana
December 30, 1956

1 ... with voice enough to talk a little bit, and I've had a sore throat for some time, and this morning I got a awful cold. Looks like just every time I come down somehow right into this valley....

2 Yesterday, I was speaking to some of the brethren when we was up on top of the knobs at New Albany and looked down this way. I said, "That's the reason right there." It's just a fog hangs over here and a smudge like all over the whole city.

3 And as soon as I come into this vicinity, just as I drop down in here, there it goes (see) again just soon as I come in. Oh, I have to take me a tent, and go up on top of the hill somewhere and camp. 'Cause we're just pilgrims and strangers, anyhow, aren't we, seeking a city whose builder and maker is God. That's what we love.

4 Now, we have some ... just before the service this morning ... or, before the Sunday school teaching, we have a dedication of babies. And my brother has a little one that he wishes to dedicate to the Lord--my brother in flesh. And maybe some of the rest of you mothers and fathers here have a little one to be dedicated.

5 Now, many times in the Bible.... And we've had lots of splits in churches because of the different theories on infant baptism and so forth. And now, those who take them and sprinkle them for infant baptism, that's up to whatever way you want to dedicate it. But the whole thing mounts up to one thing: a dedication to the Lord.

6 And now, because a baby is ... far as sin, it has none. Jesus died to take away the sins of world, and the baby has done no sin. Only it's a sinner; it's born in sin. But, when Christ died at Calvary, He took away the sins of the world, and the baby is not responsible until it becomes the age of accountability.

7 And any little baby, no matter how sinful the parents are, as soon as it dies, it goes straight to the arms of Christ (see), because

He paid the price. No matter if it was a baby born in sin, and by adultery, or whatever it is, it makes no difference at all. That baby is safe with Christ, because He died to take away the sins of the world.

8 And, when it gets old enough now that it's done personal sin, then it has to repent for what it has done. But it has no personal sin until it's old enough to commit sin, to know which is right and wrong.

MATT19:14 MARK19:14 LUKE18:16

9 But now, we always try to stay just as close to the Bible on these things as we know how. Now, there's no Scripture in the Bible for sprinkling babies. The only thing that we find . . . or no infant baptism in the Bible in no form. The only place we can find, it's wrote here in the Scriptures that they brought unto Jesus little children. And He took them up in His arms and blessed them and said, "Suffer little children to come unto Me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven."

10 Now, that. . . . Now, as He's gone on to God and sits at the right hand today in His corporal body on the throne of God. . . . And He has commissioned His church to go into all the world and to continue the works that He started here when He was here on earth: that is preaching the Gospel, healing the sick, and dedicating the children, and so forth.

11 Therefore, the loved ones is asked to bring their little ones to the Lord by giving them to the pastor into his arms. And he raises them by faith to Christ and asks Christ to bless them.

12 And so, if you have a little one that you haven't dedicated to the Lord and you'd want to bring him while our sister plays the piano, "Bring them in," and we can sing it. How many knows the old song, "Bring them in?" That's fine.

13 Now, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Branham will bring their little one, and any of the rest that has some they want to bring, why, bring them right up at this time now for the dedication. All right.

Bring them in, bring them in,
Bring them in from the fields of sin;
Bring them in, bring them in.
Bring the little ones to Jesus.

14 I want to show you another little Branham. Little Mary Ella Branham is the daughter of my brother and his beloved wife, that they have come forward this morning at the church to offer the little fellow life back to God who gave it to them. And now, shall we bow our heads just a moment.

15 Our kind, heavenly Father, as standing here before me today, my own brother in flesh, and his bride, his wife. And Thou has so blessed their home with this little Mary Ella to give them joy in the days that's ahead of them. I thank Thee for their remembrance of where the baby come from, and bringing it today to the church that they might present it back to You.

16 And I now give the baby to Thee, in arms of faith and ask You to bless the little one who I hold. And may it live and grow, and if Jesus tarries, may it be a servant of Yours to serve Thee. Bless its father and mother. And, God, grant that Your Holy Spirit will lead them through life's journey.

17 And someday, when this earthly pilgrimage shall cease, may all the big family be gathered together in glory. Grant it, Lord. Until that time, may this child grow, and be blessed of God, be healthy and strong, and be an example of womanhood in its stage of life. And we'll give Thee the praise, for we present the baby to Thee now in the name of Jesus Christ, Thy Son. Amen.

I give it back to you. God bless you. The Lord bless you. All right. [Congregation sings the song, "Precious Memories."]

18 How we praise our dear Lord for all the little ones. You know, it just seems strange how we were once little like that. And there's something about a baby that's unselfish, so forgiving, and so kind. Even our Lord likened unto them and said, "Except you become converted and be as one of these little ones." So easy.

19 I notice my little Joseph, how he's just the age to be into everything, and the mother will just have to correct him, and he'll pull the lamp off or whatever more, just to hear it hit the floor. And then, if the mother happens to spank him or something, he'll climb right up in her arms and put his arms around her like that.

20 We have to be forgiven to each other as these little children to enter into the kingdom. Now, we thank God for this little baby, little Mary Ella Branham. And may it live, and grow, and prosper, and be a servant of the Lord. And may the home it's raised in be a Christian home, so it can come up in the admonition of Christ.

21 And now, we are. . . . Thank you, Sister Gerty. And now, the little ones have taken their position in the room for Sunday school classes, and the pastor has made the announcements of where the services will be today and tomorrow . . . tomorrow night.

22 This afternoon they'll. . . . As far as I know, there's no services open, 'less it would be some of the little missions in Louisville that we're acquainted with, or Brother Durbin and many of them. I think they have a Sunday afternoon service.

23 I've got many calls. Many people are in courts and so forth, to be prayed for, that's sick and afflicted. My next services will be at Cleveland, Tennessee, beginning next Friday night: Friday through Sunday. And then, we're coming right home and going to South Bend, Indiana, for two nights there with dedication of the temple, Brother R. E. S. Toms from Saskatoon, Saskatchewan.

24 And then from there, we go to Sturgis, Michigan, for two nights of service at Sturgis, Michigan. And then, go over to Lima, Ohio, to the Baptist people in Memorial auditorium in Lima, Ohio. That begins on January the twenty-third through the twenty-seventh. And then, from there, we go over to the west coast, then, to the big meetings in California and Arizona. Be in prayer for us.

25 Tomorrow. . . . Tonight at seven-thirty, will be the evangelistic services here at the Tabernacle, and everyone is invited. And tomorrow night, I have to . . . I'm going to speak for Brother Cauble's at his midnight watch service. I will be. . . . My portion begins at nine till about nine-thirty. Then, I return back to the Tabernacle here where the meeting will already be in progress with visiting pastors and ministers, who will be here to have a portion in tomorrow night's service.

26 If you all like to hear pastors speak and express their ways of telling you how to begin the new year, and what to do, why, from the Scriptural standpoints, why, be sure to be here tomorrow night. Services beginning at seven-thirty as usual, on seven-thirty.

27 And we'll continue on till midnight Sunday night. And then . . . or, Monday night, rather. Then, after nine o'clock, after I get through at Brother Cauble's, I'll be right straight back over here at the Tabernacle to begin and perhaps, maybe, finish the sermon that I wish to start this morning.

28 Kind of takes me a long time. I'm slow, you know, but I like for it to get down on the right kind of a foundation, so there's no need just scattering it anywhere. I want it to lay there, and grow, and prosper for the Lord.

29 Now, there's a minister here this morning, a young minister that's supposed to be, I suppose, in the Belle Air Motel. I'm supposed to see him by two to three this afternoon. Or, is he in yet? as I forget what the brother's name is. He's coming from down in Tennessee. He was healed of a broken back in my meeting, and entered the ministry. This, the brother there. All right. That's fine. That's from. . . . Was it two to three, was it? Three . . . three, three to four. All right.

And then, there's another minister. I don't know whether he's here yet or not. He's from way up in northern British Columbia.

30 One day when I was trying to buckle on some panniers on some horses, I guess, or something--I had a beard about that long, had been back on a hunting trip several years ago--a man walked up and said, "Aren't you Brother Branham?"

31 I met a young lady in a store, said she'd never seen a woma. . . never seen the city, a big city. And I guess she was four or five hundred miles from a city, maybe more than that. Hundreds of miles from a hard top road, in a little city called East Pines. I think there's one store there.

32 Way back in there, this couple walked up, and they're on their road to Cuba. I wonder if they're here this morning, from northern British Columbia. Right here. Well, bless your heart, brother. We're glad to have you and your wife, missionaries traveling through; called me this morning from the Star Motel. The Lord bless you. I know all of our brethren will be glad to shake their hands.

33 And a man that by a picture could recognize me with all that beard on, has a good discernment. Very fine. They were so gallant. The way up in there where there's no people hardly, way up on East Pines. And it's going to be hard to say how few people there is through that country, but yet they were up there as missionaries trying to do something for the glory of God. I certainly appreciate them with all my heart. I know you all like to shake their hands and hear about the great north-western country. And now. . . .

34 Then, I believe a Mrs. Roberson's mother is still very ill. I've got to see her this afternoon. And remember to pray for her. That'll be. . . .

35 And then, the Lord willing, I'll be back here again at seven-thirty tonight. I think the McSpadden's back there, as we're going to dinner with them around about six o'clock and give us time to get back. And then, we want to visit Mrs. Burns. Is Brother Burns in this morning? Is he here? Yes, I didn't see you, Brother Burns, sitting. . . .

36 Sister Burns is very sick, very sick. And I was over the other evening to see her. And she is very sick, and a gallant soul she is. And we want everyone to constantly hold to God, because--expressing it from this manner, not knowing who would be here--but it'll take a miracle of God to bring Sister Burns back to the church again. That's right.

37 When her beloved husband just left the hospital up there at the veteran's hospital with cancer, condemned to die, and God healed him. And here he is back in the church and with very good health again as could be expected in this kind of time. And when the Lord healed him of a great, enlarged spleen with cancer into the same thing years and years ago.

38 And I remember the very time while Brother Wood sitting there. I was in on a little vacation; we was out in the woods squirrel hunting. And something said to me, "Go home." I went home. And why to go to Louisville? I'll never know.

39 And Brother Wood, raised around Louisville, driving the wrong block around and around and around, trying to pick me up. And God was holding me on a corner, waiting for Sister Burns to come tell me. And it was her, that gallant woman, that come told me her husband was dying there in the hospital, when we went there and prayed.

40 And she got down and took that picture that the Lord taken his picture of the pillar of fire. All of you seen it, I suppose. Set it down on the floor, and she said, “Dear God of heaven,” she said, “Help me to find Brother Branham at once. I must do it.”

41 And she said, “Angel of God, guide me to him.” That’s what it takes. And she raises up and goes to town to pay a utility bill, and was strangely led around another corner, and God sent me from the woods to Louisville and held me on the corner for a half hour watching Brother Wood turn the wrong corner all the time up there trying to pick me up, see.

42 Now, we know that God knows where His little daughter’s laying over there. And He might be expecting you to pray the prayer of faith. We’ll do all we can.

43 Another thing we want to say this morning with not only bowed head, but heart, to one of the loyalest men that I’ve . . . one of them that I’ve ever met in my life is our Brother Higgenbotham. Our beloved sister has gone to be with the Lord Jesus--a gallant soldier of God. How many times have I seen her come to the altar.

44 Her longing was always to get to this prayer line where the Holy Spirit would tell her what was the trouble. She longed to do it. And how many times has she walked across this platform here, trying to find if the discernment would come.

45 And in other meetings and different places has she tried. But, it just simply wouldn’t come, somehow. And then, a few weeks ago, walking into the hospital down there, when I heard she was sick and it was late in the evening. . . . And when I went into the hospital and sat down by her side, there the Holy Spirit came down and went plumb back into life, and brought everything up, and put it right exactly where the trouble was.

46 But, the strange thing was, Sister Higgenbotham didn’t even desire to stay here any longer. She wanted to go on. There’s something calling her. She answered that call the other day to go be with God. And I’ll always remember her. [Blank spot on tape.]

47 No wonder you feel bad when you come into the city. It’s rejected the Gospel. That’s what’s the matter. And doomed she is. The ‘37 flood won’t be nothing till this is ended. But, yes, it’s doomed, absolutely. And that’s the reason the handwriting’s on the wall.

48 And now, it's too bad we own the property, the things along here. But I heard the other day that some of our brethren got a ticket for parking even on the edge of the church lot there. Such a disgrace. I'll pay that ticket, if you'll just let me know what it was. That's a pity. Yes, sir.

49 Well, I think if the... I think we still own that. At least, the deed says so, pull right over on this here. And maybe you won't get a ticket over there.

50 But, I'm glad we're headed for a place where they don't drive [unclear words] out tickets. Aren't you? That's right. Wonderful. Yes, indeed.

51 Now, I'm just going try to talk a little while this morning, 'cause I got a real head cold, and stopped up; and I want to take a subject from the Old Testament, and just teach awhile, the Lord willing. And then, maybe tonight if I come back, the Lord willing, get back in time and not too worn out...

52 Oh, I just happened to think, too. Brother Kelly sitting here and Sister Kelly's to come up right... You come as quick as you can after dinner, 'cause I'm just really moved out this afternoon with a lot of stuff, Brother Kelly. I remember the other night up there I was leaving on a call when you all come in. All right. [A sister says something to Brother Branham.] Now, that's all right, sister.

53 Now, then pray for me, and pray for my decisions of the Lord will be ... will be for Him, the best that I can. Now, we want to turn over in the old book, the old ... the last ... or, the first book, Genesis 35. And we wish to read just a little portion of the Scriptures here out of the book of Genesis. And we pray that God will richly add His blessings as a background of something we wish to teach on.

54 And how many likes Sunday school? Oh, that's... How many knows where it first originated? I don't see any hands. It's kind of... How many knows what it was first called? Where's my wife? She ought to know that. All right. It was... Yes? [Someone speaks to Brother Branham.]

55 Another missionary, God bless you. Brother who? Brother Neighbor. Where is he? Would you raise your hand, Brother Neighbor? God bless you, brother. Is that your wife with you? That is very fine. We're glad to have you and your family with us this morning.

MARK 16:15

56 You know you're in the will of God. You have to be when you're a missionary, you see. Because the general orders is, "Go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature." A man that's a missionary. . . .

57 Now, I don't care too much. . . . Missionary is a very fine word, but I got a better word for it. You're an apostle, see. That's right. Now, what does the word apostle mean? "One that's sent." What does the word missionary mean? "One that's sent." It's the same thing.

58 So, missionaries, prophets, evangelists, teachers, and pastors make up the church. Is that right? Apostles, prophets they call. So, as long as you are a missionary or an apostle, you're one sent of God to a mission. And you're always right. God bless you is my prayer.

59 Brother and Sister Foss is on their way to Cuba to the fields, going from the frozen regions of the north to the tropical jungles of the South. But this Gospel must be preached in all the world. Amen. What a change. Where are you from, brother? [The brother answers Brother Branham.] Going to Israel.

Oh, I'd like to see Mabel sitting back there. I'd call my wife and Mabel to sing for you.

They come from the East and the West,
They come from the lands afar,
To feast with the King, to dine as His guests;
How blessed these pilgrims are.
Beholding His hallowed face
Aglow with light divine;
Blest partakers of His grace,
As gems in His crown to shine.

60 Won't it be wonderful at that day? Amen. The Lord bless you to Israel, and you to the place you're going is my blessings to you brethren this morning. Amen.

61 Now, before we open the Bible, we know that this is text and God has a context wrote between the lines, you see? So, we can just read the text, and let God give us the context. So, let's bow our heads just a moment for prayer.

62 Our heavenly Father, in the name of the Lord Jesus, we pray that You'd take these words that we shall read now, and break them right into our hearts, and let us come softly, quietly, humbly, reverently into Thy presence, and may the Holy Spirit take the Word of God and feed every heart. Include mine there, will You, Lord? For I ask it in Christ's name. Amen.

GEN37:15-19

63 All right, we'll read just a verse or two here, so that we can get just a little background. Genesis is the seed chapter; we know. All right. We'll begin with the 15th verse.

And a certain man found him . . . behold, he was wandering in the field: and the man asked him, saying, What seekest thou?

And he said, I seek my brethren: tell me, I pray thee where they feed their flocks.

And the man said, They are departed hence; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

And when they saw him afar off, even before he came near unto them they conspired against him to slay him.

And they said one to another, Behold, this dreamer cometh.

64 And may the Lord grant His blessings to His Word. Now, Genesis is always to me. . . . Did I tell you what chapter that was? It's Genesis, I believe, I seen. . . . Genesis 37, and beginning with the 15th verse, to you that mark it. Now, I believe I said 35 awhile ago. I had two pages together. I'm sorry. This little old Scofield Bible, and it's kind of hard for me to read, because I'm past forty, you know.

65 And they tell me I should have some reading glasses. I went and got my eyes examined when I got so I had to keep pushing my Bible away from me. And the doctor tells me my arm won't be long enough after awhile to get it back. And I've got to. . . . Said I need some reading glasses.

66 I examined my eyes, and they tested perfect ten, ten. But, I could see a hair laying on the floor somewhere there just as easy, but put it up close to me. He said, “When you get...” Said, “What makes your hair get gray?”

I said, “I don’t know.”

67 He said, “It’s old age.” He said, “That’s what gets wrong with a person’s eyes when you pass forty. Your ... actually your eyeballs get flat.” And you just have to cope with it. That’s all.

68 And I just keep putting it off. Well, I don’t have time to go, but I will some day and get readings to read by when I’m going to teaching more. But now, I just read a text and go on. And this is.... I got this Bible many years ago, and it’s real extremely fine print.

69 Now, in the Genesis ... Genesis means “the beginning, the seed chapter.” And remember that everything that there is today actually began in Genesis. It was the beginning of all things. It was the beginning of salvation. It was the beginning of sin. It was the beginning of all the cults. It was the beginning of the true church. It was the beginning of the false church. It was the beginning of righteousness. It was the beginning of deceit. It was the beginning of.... All things started in Genesis.

70 I wish we had just about three months on this, to stay right on this one subject and just dig it, tie it by the Holy Spirit by God’s cords. And just wrap it together, and watch how every word just dovetails right in with the other words: such a beautiful thing.

71 The Word of God is so inspiring, no matter what age, what time. Every man that’s ever read this text through the.... It’s been written now for many hundreds, yeah, pretty near three thousand more years. And every man that’s ever read this text in every age is inspired by it, every verse of Scripture. There’s nothing else can ever take its place.

72 A writing that was written back in another day: When it’s read for that age, and for its purpose, it’s settled. I might write you a letter and say, “My dear, beloved brother, today I have been over to a certain place and done such and such a time.” That goes directly to you and that settles it.

73 Maybe for a court evidence or something, it could be brought up for an evidence against me or for me, to prove me something, or prove something against me. But it would not be the direct message as it would be when it's given to you.

MATT24:35 MARK13:31 LUKE21:33

74 But the Bible is not so. It's given to the human race and for all times and for all ages, because it is a written Word of God, see. His words can never fail. They'll never die, and as long as there is an eternity forever and ever, these will still have the same meanings; because they are once come from the lips of God, see. Can't fail.

75 Just think of that, how eternal the Word of God is. They're life. Now, what is a word? A word is a thought that's been expressed. And when God once thinks anything, it's just a thought. But when it's once expressed, it can never alter or change. It has to remain forever. 'Cause your word is just as good as you are. God's Word is as good as He is.

76 Your word is a part of you. Your promise is just as good as you can be. And God's promise is just as good as He can be. Now, as being a mortal, you can make a promise and have to break it, because you're just a mortal. I'm just a mortal. But God being immortal, and infinite, and omnipotent, omnipresent, He makes a statement, and He knows the end from the beginning. And He can keep it.

77 Abraham called those things which were not as though they were, because he was fully persuaded that what God had promised, God was able to perform. 'Cause He would have never made the promise, unless He knew what was going to be. See how we can rest upon His Word then?

78 No matter how hard the storm blows, what's contrary to it? Rest solemnly upon the Word. God said it, who seen the other side of the storm, see.

MATT28:20 ROM8:28

79 So, if you're sick, just anchor your soul in the haven of rest. If you're perplexed and distressed, remember, He said, "I will be with you always, even to the end of the world." And He said, "All things will work together for good to them that love the Lord." So, just stay right there.

80 One man wrote ... a poet wrote, "My anchor holds within the veil." What is a veil? It's something that shuts off here from there.

And the anchor is on the inside of the veil. You don't see how it's going to be. But you know that there's something that's got a hold of you that's got a hold up there.

81 And when the sea is blowing and storming... Did you ever... I guess, maybe some of you has never been privileged to see a ship anchored. Oh, my. I've rode them when they throw out a sea anchor like that, until the little craft couldn't even go over the top of the wave. It would go through the wave. But, as long as the anchor held, that's all that makes any difference. Whether we go over it, under it, around it, or through it, doesn't matter. The anchor holds.

82 That's the way when storms of life begin to shake us. We may have to go through. We may have to go over, under, around. But just let the anchor hold within the veil to the unseen. We don't know just exactly where it's at, but it's a holding.

83 Just like the little boy, you know, that had the kite. You've heard the old proverb, the story. Said, "How do you know you got a kite on the end of there?"

84 He said, "I can still feel it tugging." So, that's it. If we can feel it still tugging, God dealing with our hearts, then we know our anchor still holds.

85 I believe it was Benjamin Franklin who caught the lightning in the bottle, who harnessed lightning electricity. Something within him called and said, "There's power in that." That power could be harnessed. And if it's that powerful to shoot the streets, and to burst the timbers, split open the ground; what could it do if it was once harnessed? It'll light and flash and hit the whole earth.

86 And Benjamin Franklin, I believe, fishing on his kite with a key tied on the end of the tail of it and a bottle down at the bottom. And when he got it, he didn't know what he had, but he begin to scream, "I got it. I got it." He didn't know what it was. He didn't know what he was going to do with it. But, he knew he had something.

87 And that's the way with every man that's "Hopes are built on nothing less than Jesus' blood with righteousness. And all around my soul gives way, then He's all my hope and stay. On Christ the solid rock I stand, all other grounds is sinking sands.” Once borned again, the Holy Spirit takes its place into the heart.

88 Some young people may not or young or maybe illiterate. No matter how it is, there’s no one can explain it. So, don’t feel bad because you’re illiterate. You couldn’t explain it. There’s never been a man yet could explain it. No matter how smart or how intelligent. It’s God’s own secret.

89 But when that Word takes life in your heart and you see it, you scream, “I got it.” You don’t know what you’re going to do with It. You don’t know what it’s going to do with you. But you know something’s happened, and you got it.

90 Now, therefore, on the Word; it’s beautiful. Now, we’re faced this morning and got before us under consideration to my opinion one of the most vital texts of the Old Testament: Joseph (we’re going to speak on) Meeting His Brethren.

91 There could be a hundred different ways that the Holy Spirit get into this and unfold it to our hearts and mind. So, thinking this being a few days here, we might speak a little while this morning because of a tightness in the throat. And then, maybe pick it up again tonight, if the pastor has anything on his heart, and maybe carry it on through, and finish it up on Monday night, If it so be that God provides it that way.

92 Now, we’re well acquainted with the characteristics of the Old Testament, how that all the old things was a shadow (Hebrews 11), a shadow of the things that are to come. How beautiful that is: how God foreshadows.

93 And when we feel this shadow, as it was, we know that there’s something beyond here, that God in His omnipotence in His great infinite mind, seeing something just fixing to happen; He could forewarn it. He could make everything work together, even the wrath of man, to praise Him.

94 Even someone who treats you evil, as we’re going to get after a bit if the Lord willing, how that Joseph’s brother treated him evil, and he turned right back around and took that and made it praise Him. So, we haven’t got a thing to worry about, not a thing.

95 How that God through that boy was foreshadowing the coming of the Lord Jesus the first time, and the coming of the Lord Jesus the second time, and worked it all out in a life that knowed nothing about what was going on. Amen. Don't that just do something to you?

96 To see poor little Joseph... Why, he didn't know what was taking place, why all these things should happen; but it was all God working out, foreshowing, foreshadowing the things that were going to be.

97 And then, you could notice the Word, how you pick it up here and read it in Genesis, read it in the middle of the book, read it in the last of the book, and every word copes right with one another like that. And it was wrote thousands of years apart by hundreds of different men, see.

98 So, therefore, you see, it's all God: one not knowing the other or know what book was wrote, nothing about it, another time, another age. And we can see today that God is dealing just exactly like He did back there.

99 We're just now going ... ending up in the new year from the shadowing of the old. And how that in the beginning, how that God when He seen sin going to take its domain over the earth and over the people; how that the great program had been perverted, not spoiled, not recreated, but just perverted.

See, Satan cannot create. He can only pervert. Everything that you see is wrong, that's righteousness perverted, see.

100 You see an old fortuneteller out on the street, that's just a prophet perverted, see. You see anything that's evil, see man living untrue to his vows to his wife, that's righteousness perverted into evil, vice-versa. See women on the street acting the way they do and becoming the way they are, that's ladies perverted.

101 I passed by Louisville the other day, wife and I, and I seen a sign on a window where we were coming from eating over on Fifth Street. And it said, "Tables for ladies." I said, "They have never had a customer." No, a lady wouldn't go in there. When she goes in there, she's not a lady anymore, see.

102 So, they've never had a customer under that sign. Ladies don't go to those places. But, you see, what that is that goes in there is ladies perverted, see. All right.

103 Now, God, to make all things praise Him... We are celebrating the Christmas birth of the Lord Jesus, which it isn't just exactly His birthday. His birthday was in April, 'cause it's just as cold in Judea or colder in December than it is here. So, we realize that...

104 You seen the picture the other day, the tanks up there and the snow and things like that in Judea. Could you imagine shepherds laying out on a hill in weather like that? But, it isn't today, but the day doesn't mean so much. It's the attitude we have toward that day that's set apart.

105 Now, notice as soon as God seen the seed of the woman and how they had been misconstrued there, and righteousness had been perverted, God gave a promise that through that woman would come a blessed seed. You get it? There would be a seed.

106 And just as soon as Satan heard that, who was standing present; as soon as he heard it, he took in to destroy that seed. And he tried to do it in Joseph. He tried all through the age. And he's still against that blessed seed. Amen.

107 I want you to put on your deep-thinking caps just for a minute now. Put on the helmet of salvation and listen close now; here's something real vital. And you may disagree with it. It's all right. But, did you notice, as soon as there'd already been a conception, for Eve had already lived unrighteous and had committed the sin...

108 Where did that come from? That's in Genesis. Men today are trying to find the missing link between animal and man. This is revelation. The Bible said that the serpent beguiled the woman.

109 Today, men can bring up animal life, and the closest animal they have to the human being is the chimpanzee. They could make him smoke a pipe, ride a bicycle, put on a hat, tip it. That's just like "gee" and "haw" to a horse. It's sound. He hasn't no soul. He can't think. He can only go by sound. He doesn't have a soul.

110 Then, they got a missing link right in between here, that they never have been able to find. And for six thousand years, they've tried to get one mutter out of a chimpanzee and can't do it. They never will.

111 But we know that we're animal life. We're plant life out of the earth. As I was saying the other day at our dear sister's funeral, we are a bunch of sixteen elements of the earth of cosmic light, and petroleums, and things put together. We were here when God spoke and said, "Let there be." Our bodies were.

112 But Something, a Mastermind developed us into what we are now, made us with hands and arms and so forth, not to destroy us, but that we might live forever. Sin done the destroying. And He who made us without us having any idea of ever being here, He that made us, and brought these things together, and made us what we are now; can He not much more by giving us free moral agency to accept it, and by the same word that created us promise us that He'd raise us up again? How much more will all this petroleum come together, and the atoms, and so forth, by the Word of God.

113 Now, in the beginning when God spoke, and Satan was standing there and he heard it... And the people are trying to find this missing link. I'll tell you by revelation, if you want to receive it, that missing person between animal and man is the serpent, before he had his legs taken from him.

114 The Bible said, "He was the most subtle of all the beasts (not reptile), of all the field." He was the one who beguiled the woman in his beauty. And she conceived, and now by doing that and seeing sin was coming, God put such a curse upon him till science would never find any relationship between this serpent as known today and mankind.

MATT11:25 LUKE10:21

115 But, there is your fallen, degraded being between ... that hooked the animal life together. There you are. God has hid it from the wise and prudent, but will reveal it to babes such as will learn, see. There's your fallen person.

GEN3:1,14

116 The serpent, he was brought from way, the most subtle, the greatest, the most beautiful, the more like human being. And then because of this evil that he did with Eve, He brought him down to a reptile to go on his belly all the days of his life, and dust should be his meat.

1TIM2:14

117 Therefore, science could come to there, and their tree's knocked down. Notice now, as soon as the woman seen that she... Now, she was deceived. She didn't bring sin. She was deceived. She thought it was right.

1TIM2:14

118 But, "Adam was not deceived," said the Bible. He knowed it was wrong. And she had him to do the same thing that the beast had done, and she brought forth her first son, which all the traits of the devil was in that boy. He was a murderer; he was jealous. How could it come from that pure stream of God? It had to come from the evil.

119 And as soon as he did this, then he... The devil used his tool. She brought forth her second son which was after Adam, and in there was Abel. And right quick the devil tried to destroy that righteous seed. And he turned around and slew Abel to begin with, which was type of Judas and Jesus. Slew him at the altar, where Judas slew Jesus, betrayed Him for thirty pieces of silver and sold Him. All right.

120 But, notice, when he did that, then God, a type of Christ, both death and resurrection, He raised up Seth to take his place, see. And the devil took after Seth. Now, watch.

121 Along before the antediluvian destruction, there was a long lineage of men who came down through the sons of Cain from the land of Nod, and they were scientists: smart, intelligent, marvelous men. They even tempered metals. They built homes. They were a marvelous civilization.

GEN4:2,3,22

122 The Bible goes ahead and said how they worked with copper, how they worked with metal. But this other group was wanderers. But both groups was religious. Cain was religious. Abel was religious. And God drew a line which was right. Cain was just as religious as Abel. They both built altars. They both believed in God. They both worshipped God. They both brought gifts.

GEN4:8

123 Now, watch them two seeds: One fighting, the evil, trying to destroy the righteous seed. And he tried to destroy Abel. He did. But, God raised up Seth to take his place. He thought he had Jesus right there.

EX2:15 MATT2:16 MARK6:27

124 Look down through the age everywhere. Every place he come, he cornered that seed. When he slew one and the other, he thought he had that. And finally, he took after John the Baptist, finally cut his head off. He thought he had him then; but he found out he was over here in Jesus. He slew all the babies. And Moses, he tried to kill Moses. He tried every way he could to destroy that seed.

125 And when he killed Christ at Calvary, but God raised Him up again the third day. And then He sent the Holy Ghost back to call sons and daughters to God. And that same evil, religious seed is persecuting that righteous seed yet today. You see it? They're trying to destroy that righteous branch of God.

126 Now, both sides, if you notice, it started in Genesis religious. On both sides, one of them denominational, high-minded, and the other one humble, walking in the Spirit by revelation. How could Abel ever know that it was a lamb instead of fruits from the field? Because it was revealed to him by a divine revelation.

127 Jesus said the same when Peter confessed Him to be the Son of God. He said, "Flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but My Father which is in heaven has revealed this to you. Upon this rock (The rock, not Peter, not Jesus, but on the divine revelation) I will build My church and the gates of hell cannot prevail against it." You get it? It's divine revelation.

NUM21:22,23 JUDG11:17-20

128 Now watch, every epoch of time, they met face to face and fought it out. Look at when Moab was up on the hill and Israel was in the valley. And Israel only asking as a brother gentleman to pass through their land, going to the promised land, that God had promised them, only asked for a little revival in their church as it were. Just to pass through the land and promise they would even pay for the grass that the cattle licked up.

NUM21:22

129 And they would go by the king's highway, and the things that they would do as they passed through the lands.... And they would make it right. But, jealousy....

GEN19:34-38

130 Now, Moab, the land of Moab was not infidelic. They were believing in the same God that Israel believed in, for they were the sons of Lot's daughters, Lot's daughter who conceived while Lot was drunk, by her own father. And he went over and that's where Moab sprung from.

131 And when their prophet come out, their teacher, money crazed, and set up altars, seven altars exactly the same amount of altars was required down here. Here's Moab setting here, the great fine denominational land all fixed and figured. And here was Israel, a little old holy-roller wandering about in tents from place to place.

EX15:20

132 You say, "A holy-roller?" They sure was. If they're what they call today holy-roller. When they crossed the Red Sea, and God performed a miracle in front of them, Miriam grabbed the tambourine, and begin beating the tambourine, and run down the banks screaming, and jumping, and dancing in the Spirit; and the daughters of Israel followed her, jumping, screaming, dancing in the Spirit.

EX15:1

133 And Moses stood with his hands up, perhaps singing in a language that nobody had ever heard before, a song that nobody could understand. He sung to the Lord in the Spirit. If that isn't modern holy-rollers, I don't know where to look for them.

NUM23:1

134 They had signs and wonders with them. Now, if God only respects the fundamental.... Looky here, Moab Scripturally speaking was just as fundamental as Israel was. He had everything that Israel had. He had seven altars. That's what God required. Israel had seven altars. He had seven clean sacrifices. Israel had seven clean sacrifices. There's Cain and Abel again, see.

135 All right. He offered seven bullocks. He offered seven bullocks. He offered seven rams, speaking ... believed that Christ would come. He offered seven rams, the same thing. Just as fundamental as fundamental could be.

GEN4:3,4

136 Cain built an altar. Abel built an altar. Cain offered a sacrifice. Abel offered a sacrifice. Abel worshipped; Cain worshipped. But God vindicated, proved that Abel was His choice. God proved here that Israel was His choice, for Israel had a Supernatural in their camp. Although, with all their mistakes, they had a pillar of fire following them. They had an atonement for divine healing and practiced divine healing.

137 A serpent. They had a smitten rock. They had signs and wonders in the camp. When John came, he was supernatural. When Jesus came, it was supernatural. And the enemy on the fundamental side always persecuted the supernatural. You see what He's trying to do today? The same thing: "Blot out divine healing, blot out these people. There's nothing to them. The dignitary's the great people. Blot it out." Brother, it's nothing but that vine twisting through Genesis coming into Revelation.

138 I take my side with the holy-rollers. Let it be whatever.... I never seen a holy-roller. That's a name that the devil put on the church of God when it don't belong there. They are not holy-rollers; they are sons and daughters of God, misunderstood by the world.

139 Now, Joseph was borned of his father, and was loved of his father, and hated of his brethren. Now, notice, perfect picture of the Lord Jesus. I want you to notice how His life just typed. In the Old Testament everything typed now. Look back there and see the picture; there's a shadow and you see what the positive is.

140 Now notice, Joseph being a type of Christ, a type of the church, type of the Holy Spirit.... He was a prince of prosperity, just as Christ is, just as the church today. Notice again, that when he was born, his father loved him, and he made him a coat of many colors.

141 Now, there's only seven perfect colors in all colors. All others are made off these colors. And the coat, perhaps, had colors in it of seven different colors, stripes of colors, into the coat that the father made. If you notice, maybe, Jacob didn't understand that at the time. But that signified, "promised one."

142 When God gave Noah the rainbow sign, the seven colors, it was a promise or a covenant one. God had made a covenant that He would destroy the world no more with water. And God's covenant was also carried over through Jacob into Joseph. Abraham was election, and Isaac was justification, and Israel was grace, and Joseph was perfection. That was the only one that had the colors.

REV4:3 REV10:1

143 We see Jesus sitting upon the throne with the colors, rainbow around Him. In Revelations 1 it was God's covenant with the people. Christ... Here it is. Oh, how I want you to see it. Christ is God's covenant with His people; not denominations, but Christ is God's covenant.

144 As Joseph was hated, so is Christ hated today. They don't want to say they hate Christ. But their works prove what they do. They're against every move of Him. Speak of His action, His works, His marvelous doings, why sure, we have Satan at the camp, too, a battling away. Certainly.

145 And they'll point to the words of Satan. But, I don't care what Satan does to try to confuse; God's Word stands perfect and His promise is perfect. I'll never want to take sides with that group.

REV1:8 REV4:3 REV22:16

146 Notice, there He was, the covenant. Christ was to look upon at Jasper and Sardis stone in Revelations. That was the breaststone ... or, the birthstone, rather, from Reuben to Benjamin. That was the reflection of the Sardis and Jasper as they reflected together under the light of God, made the covenant around Christ, the rainbow. And what does it speak of? Reuben, the oldest; Benjamin, the youngest. From first to the last, He was the One that was, which is, and shall come; the root, the offspring of David; He's the morning star. He's from A to Z, the Alpha, the Omega, God's reflection from the beginning of time to the end of time. There He is, God's covenant with His people.

147 And all these other things--Joseph, David, all the prophets--was just a reflection (Amen.), reflecting from the true seed from the garden of Eden, till the time that He shall come the second time in glory to receive His people and His church. There it is, beautiful to look upon.

148 Joseph, his brothers were arrogant with him. They hated him without a cause, because he was supernaturally inspired. You get it? Cain hated Abel without a cause, because of being supernatural, inspired.

149 Moab hated Israel without a cause, because they had divine healing, signs, wonders, and miracles; hated him without a cause and wouldn't let him pass through the....

MARK6:18

[Blank spot on tape.] "...have your brother's wife." Amen.

150 Now, my beloved friends, I want to bring something to your memory and I want you to put it down below the fifth rib on the left side, in the tent of that compartment called heart. Never in any age or at any time that God ever inspired a man, did He ever go on the religious side, so-called religious, people of the world. Never did He take up with denominations. Always, He stood out against and against the denominations of the day and against the religious order of the day.

151 Show me one prophet, show me one time through the Bible that any man of God ever coped with the so-called religious moves of his day. Amen.

2KNG6:1

152 Even Elijah, after building the school of the prophets, why, when he went up there, they wanted him to leave. He said, "It's too straight here." You see?

153 Ahab, and the religious leaders of his day ... Elijah separated himself to Mount Carmel. Watch John the Baptist separate himself. Never even went to their school to learn their theology. But God sent him into the wilderness to prepare him for a work.

Cain's outfit has never been able to put their ecclesiastical jacket on a man of God. It won't fit. That's right.

154 Notice, through the ages, and when Jesus comes, never did He consult any of the theologians, but called them a bunch of vipers or snakes in the grass. Never did the disciples ever cope with any of their denominations. They were on the side of Abel. Never did Joseph ever cope with them. He was hated and rejected for the same purpose that the rest of them was, because God was with him in the supernatural way, and in a different way than what He was with the rest of them. And they hated him without a cause.

155 Cain hated Abel without a cause. The brethren hated Joseph without a cause. And today, the denominational world, no matter how great it is. . . . I take my hat off and say, “Thank God for them.” But in all of their great teachings, their great churches, the great things, still in all of it, God calls out men having nothing to do with it, because they won’t cope with the supernatural.

156 There’s a move on today, and they hate that move without a cause. I heard a man say the other day, that almost turned my blood to water, through here a man with the influence, a great Baptist preacher. And he was talking about, that it was not Scriptural for anyone to worship the virgin Mary. How true that is. That’s right.

COL2:9

157 He said, “There was no Scripture to worship anybody except Christ.” That’s right. He said, “God was in Christ, and in Him was the fullness of the Godhead.” That’s right. And then after all that nice, wonderful, Scripture teaching, turns back around and said, “Never was there a miracle done in the world.” Because he’s so hard against divine healing, turned around and said, “There never was a miracle done after the death of Christ. No one never raised the dead after Christ, because that He was the only One who had eternal life.”

MATT10:1,8 MARK3:14,15

158 But, I say unto you, that Jesus Christ, the Son of God, told His disciples to go and preach the Gospel, heal the sick, and raise the dead, and clean the lepers. That’s what Jesus told His disciples. How can men become so religiously blind? They become narrow minded, because of denominational barriers, and hate their brethren without a cause. You see it? So narrow, so little! They do it because of their prestige.

159 A great minister of the land today was asked why he didn’t receive the baptism of the Holy Ghost, after it was presented by other men of his standing, who had received the baptism of the Holy Ghost. He said, “It would hurt my ministry.”

160 If you tell me anytime. . . . It might hurt an individual’s ministry, but it’ll never hurt the ministry of Jesus Christ [unclear words]. It will further the cause of the ministry of Jesus Christ.

161 But this mister ... doctor said that never was a person ever raised from the dead. Said, "I know there's a bunch of holy-rollers in the land today, that claim that they've seen the dead raised and stuff. There's never a scientific proof of any healings or anything else."

162 Now, you see, here it is, my brother and sister. I want you to notice this real close. The reason that is is this. Today men.... In the days of the Lord Jesus, in the days of the Testaments when men believed in God, they heard of a miracle being performed; they never tried to scientifically prove it. They accepted it. They just believed it, for they knowed that God was.

163 But today, the infidelic group has got into the religious moves, and he's so trying to prove things scientifically. And let me say this as it's coming from heaven, I believe, to my heart. There is never a time that it could be proved, because if you could prove God, then He's no more accepted by faith. It is a proof. We believe God and His miracles; by faith we call those things which are not as though they were, because God said so. No matter what it is.

164 Abraham could not prove that Sarah's milk veins wasn't dried up. He could not prove that the tubes and so forth become impregnated. They couldn't prove none of this. They couldn't prove, maybe, by the tests of the seed that they were fertile; but he believed it anyhow and rejected anything that was contrary to it, and called those things that were not as though they were, because within the veil, the hope of God rested on the Word of God, and called those things, scientific or not, the truth because God said so. There you are.

ACTS14:19,20 ACTS20:9-11

165 We believe; by faith we receive it. But if the brother.... Not disputing with him; I don't believe in that. But if the brother would only have read that how Paul was stoned to death, and the saints stood over him and prayed till life come back in him. How that Paul preached all night one night. And a man fell out of an upper loft and killed himself, a young man. And Paul laid his body up over him, and the spirit of life come back in him again.

166 How that Elisha raised the woman's baby after it was dead even eight hundred years before the coming of Christ. Men even without the blessing of the Holy Ghost done miracles, that these fellows are afraid to attack with the Holy Ghost. My, my. How pitiful. Why? It's because they are arrogant and they hate their brethren without a cause, just as Joseph was hated without a cause. You see it? He was hated, not because that he was worthy to be hated, because without a cause. They did not believe him. He was living in a different realm.

167 And I say this now, as our time is getting short. I say this with all trueness of heart. They hate the church today that has the supernatural. It's jealousy. It's petty jealousy. And it exists among human beings. The disciples had it. They were so ashamed of themselves, because ten days before, God gave them power to heal the sick, and to cast out devils, and raise the dead; and they had an epilepsy boy before them and had failed.

MATT10:1 MATT17:18 LUKE10:19

168 And Jesus when He come down off the mount and healed the boy, and they asked Him why could we not. He didn't say, "I took My power back." He said, "I give you power." I show you where He give it to the church, but you can't show me where He ever took it back, see.

MATT17:20

What did Jesus rest His solemn words upon? "Because of your unbelief."

MARK9:38 LUKE9:49

169 And then a few days later, they found a man who was not in their ecclesiastical realm. He'd heard Jesus pronounce these things, and he was getting the job done. He was casting out devils. And Peter and John come to tell him he had to belong to their group or he couldn't do this. "You'll have to follow us and link up with us. We're the church and you got to do it." He let them know to tend to their own business. He was getting along pretty well without joining their organization.

170 So like little sissy petties as we have today, little juvenile children's ideas, run back and said, "We found him, and he was casting out devils." And what was it? They were jealous, because he was doing what they couldn't do. They had got carnal. The eyes of their understanding was like Joseph's brethren, had not been yet enlightened. So they come back, and tattled on him, and told Jesus. And Jesus said, "Let him alone. (Amen.) He's doing a good work. He's doing what I commanded you to do, and you failed to do it."

MATT3:9 LUKE3:8

171 "God is able of these stones to rise children to Abraham." So now, my beloved Methodist, and Baptist, and Presbyterian brethren, because that you think it has to come through your church, God's able of these holy-rollers to rise stones unto Abraham. That's right. He'll have somebody that's going to do His work. That's right. With all their failures, and blunders, and what more they make.... So did Israel make the same thing, but that righteous seed is moving on. I'm so glad I can say I'm one of them.

172 By the grace of God today, we're one of those. I'm so happy for it. Aren't you? My heart rejoices at the beginning of this new year to know that God through His amazing grace has included my name in the book of life, to give me the understanding that I am associated among His people who are outcasts. And with the disciples, I might say this: I count it a privilege to bear the reproach of His name. Yes, sir. I'm so glad that I am one of them.

173 And now, we begin here with Joseph on the next service which may be tonight or Monday night one, 'cause our time is up. But, I love Him. Don't you love Him? He is wonderful.

JUDE1:3

174 And I'm so glad today, that I can join hands with that long string of despised, and rejected, and hated by the ecclesiastics down through the land, here they are. They are the lower. That's right. The ecclesiastical, speaking of the world educationally and socially speaking, they are above them. And we are glad to be humble, because those that will humble themselves, God will someday come the second time in glory to exalt His church. Until then, let's earnestly contend for the faith that was once delivered to the saints. Let us pray.

175 Now, with our heads bowed, I just wonder if there would be one this morning, or many, I hope, that has never yet accepted this Christ, and His great blessings, and His great powers.

176 And we are wondering today, if you would make your choice today, and say, "Lord Jesus, it is I, and I desire to be Your servant, with all my heart to take the way with the Lord's despised few. I see now, Lord, it's not what the world speaks of; it's what Your Bible speaks of. It's not what the world calls me. They hate me as they did Joseph. They hate me as they did Abel. They hate me as they did John. They hate me as they did Daniel. They hate me as they did Ezekiel, Zechariah. They hate me as they did Jesus. They hate me as they did the apostles, and those who followed You, without a cause. Lord, I pray for them.”

177 Have you ever received an experience like that that you have come out, and we are a royal priesthood, a holy nation, offering spiritual sacrifices to God: that is, the fruits of our lips giving Him praise. Could you stand in the midst of the troubled world? Could you stand before your boss? Could you stand with a humility in your heart, with love in your heart for the sinners of this world, with the life of Christ within you, and give a testimony and praise to the glory of God?

178 If you haven't that experience, why not begin the world, the life, the everything anew today by raising your hand to Him and saying, “I now, Lord, accept that and want You to give me the baptism of the Spirit.”

179 Now, our heavenly Father, the little church this morning stands, we know, picked, shot at. The enemy has oppressed her, shooting its arrows. And we pray for their sinful souls, Lord. They don't know that they're blinded by the god of this world. The church, generally, all over the world today, the enemy, the religious people has shot at them with every arrow. But in spite of all of it, the great revival moves on.

180 Thousands of humble, poor neglected children has stumbled into these places and seen Your miraculous hand, has been filled with the Holy Spirit, and they're no longer of this world; they're pilgrims and strangers. They care not for the world, but they're seeking a city to come whose builder and maker is God. They've seen Your healing power to heal the sick. Your signs and wonders will be wrought amongst Your people. Great things break loose in spite of the places where they condemn it and try to hold it down. Your servants move right in and set up a revival, and they sweep the humble into the kingdom of God.

181 In our midst this morning, we're privileged to have these missionaries who are leaving into the other lands, one leaving into

Israel. Oh, God, there it is. Pour out Your Spirit with him, Lord. And may great things be accomplished and cause those poor wandering Jews to come back. May they receive the Holy Ghost as their fathers did at the beginning.

ACTS1:8

182 Here's a brother going out into Cuba, out into the islands. You said, "Unto the utmost parts of the earth." Something pulling, tugging at these brethren's heart. Leaving their homes, their loved ones, not caring for the pleasures and good times of this world, but going out into the barren lands yonder under the opposer trying to stop the work. But just like the ox who brought the cart back with the commandments on it and the ark of the covenant, they left their little ones bawling, and they went down the road lowing, singing, going down to the rock.

183 We thank Thee for every minister we see sitting back in our congregation. Brother John, this morning, also, out of Germany, how he's been raised up poor; pulled a little wagon across the nation, preaching the Gospel. Thank You for him. And these young men and other ministers who are sitting close and all the laity.... When I ask, Father, believing that under a time like this, that if a man or woman did not have Christ in their heart, they'd have raised their hand, surely, seeing all the proof of the Gospel, that You're the same and Your church is the same.

184 I thank You for everyone. I pray that You'll bless them and heal their bodies if they're sick, and grant unto them the desires of their heart. Grant this, Father, we ask in Jesus' name.

And with our heads bowed, let's just meditate a few moments. Just be in prayer, softly.

The first one to die for this Holy Ghost plan,
Was John the Baptist, but he died like a man;
Then, came the Lord Jesus, they crucified Him,
He preached that the Spirit would save men from sin.

Then they stoned Stephen, he preached against sin.
They were so angry, they dashed his head in;
But he died in the Spirit, He gave up the Ghost,
And went to join the others, that life-giving host.

There was Peter and Paul, and John the divine,

They gave up their lives so this gospel could shine;
They mingled their blood like the prophets of old,
(That still seed persecuted)
So the true Word of God could honest be told.

There was souls under the altar crying, “How long?”
For the Lord to punish those who’ve done wrong;
But there’s going to be more who’ll give their life’s blood
For this Holy Ghost gospel and its crimson flood.

Keeps dripping with blood, yes, it’s dripping with blood.
This Holy Ghost gospel, it’s dripping with blood,
The blood of disciples who died for the truth,
This Holy Ghost gospel is dripping with blood.

[Brother Branham hums.]

185 Oh, God! Come, Lord Jesus. Mold us now, while we’re humble before You. Take all indifference from our lives, out of our hearts. While the sweetness of the Spirit seems to have the eyes colored, God taking His Word now and watering it. We’re so happy that You’ve included us, Father, to be bearers of the Gospel.

186 We pray for every need of the church. We pray for our beloved pastor. Oh, God, faithful servant, never tiring, always ready to go. Speak to his heart today and let him know that there’s a great reward waiting there for those faithful pastors when they gather yonder on the other side with all the redeemed. Bless other pastors, and the missionaries, and the members of the body of Christ everywhere.

187 Forgive us of our shortcomings, Lord. And now, if there is a need in our hearts, Lord, won’t You, while You’re present, bless us? If there’s sickness in our midst, Lord, someone maybe who’s come into the little church today, and they look yonder, and they see Calvary, see there where the real seed, where Satan thought he could destroy it with death. . . . But God raised it up again. Just can’t do it. God’s made a promise, and God stays with His promise. And every promise is true.

188 You promised us eternal life, and we have it. We feel it. There’s something in us moving that we can’t explain. Oh, God, in the midst of trouble we feel something holds back yonder; just sit still. Storms may hit the sea; the ship may rock our little bark.

You'll make a way over, under, around, or through it some way. So, we're laying right against the Word, Lord.

189 And I pray now that if someone's sick and needy, that this Spirit's that's in the building right now, move down in great love, say, "Child of Mine, this is Me. I'm the Father who created you. I was the One who brought the elements from the earth and formed you what you are. Satan's trying to get in on My work. Take My promise, child."

MARK 16:17

190 This prayer of faith I'll offer, believing that You're here. Let Thy hands, Lord, stretch forth to every heart and the sickness depart from the people. I rebuke the devil, the devil of oppression, the devil of fear, the devil of sickness of all kinds; Thou has said, "In My name they shall cast out devils." In the unity of this church and this Spirit this morning, we cast away every evil from the people, that we go from here clean by the sacrifice of the Lord Jesus, as we humbly accept it.

191 Bless us in the further exercises. Bless us in whatever we do. Go with the ministers, and with the evangelists, and with the missionaries to their places, Lord. Grant someday that we will meet at Your feet. Then we'll lay our trophies down. God, they'll be of all types. They'll be the white man, the yellow man, the black man. All together we'll say, "Lord, here they are." What a day of rejoicing that will be.

192 Let us work while it's day, for night comes when no man can work. We ask these blessings in the beloved name of the Son of God, Jesus Christ. Amen.

All things are possible, only believe.
Only believe, only believe. (What is it?)
All things are possible, only believe.

How many had a need and can believe right now, you raise up your hand, say, "Now, I receive."

Now, I receive, now, I receive,
All things are possible, now, I receive.
Now, I receive, now, I receive,
All things are possible, now I receive.

MARK9:23

193 Now, let's just bow our heads just a moment now. Just continue on, sister, on the piano if you will. Oh, you receiving? You say, "Brother Branham, I've been sick for a time. There's been something looked like I just couldn't overcome. I've been prayed for by individuals." That's good, brother, sister. But did you ever think what it is? It's that little promise that's been given you. All things are possible to him that believeth.

194 Why don't you cast that right into Calvary this morning? Just hold the end of it here, the Spirit that give it to you. Cast it right into Calvary, and say, "There my anchor holds. Now, I receive right now. It's all over right now. No matter what takes place right now; my anchor holds within the veil. And I receive just what I asked for. I know I have it. God's Word said so. God, I'm looking to You, now." Maybe, you had worries, financial troubles, whatever it is. No matter what it is, cast it right yonder against Calvary, for all things ... all things are possible, only believe.

MARK9:23

195 Just letting it soak in real sweetly. Isn't it wonderful? This is my time of the service. The Word's been sowed, you see. Now, God's watering it. Can't you just feel that soothing, refreshing from the presence of God, just coming down, watering it, saying "I'm here child, I come with My Word. I honor My Word. I watch over it day and night, and I'm watering it now in your heart. Can't you just take Me and believe Me? For all things (What?) are possible, only believe."

GAL3:29

196 My, how wonderful, how wonderful. Just to soak in, just feel the water coming down over the seeds. What is it? The righteous seed, it's been sowed in your heart. It's God's Word. That's the seed, that's the Holy Ghost, the seed that God promised in the beginning. You're Abraham's seed by being dead in Christ and take on Abraham's seed, and are heirs according to the promise. The Holy Ghost come from the seed of Abraham, which makes you sons and daughters of God.

197 Now, that's the Holy Ghost watering that promise that you took awhile ago for your healing, for your salvation, for a better walk, for the fear to leave you, for whatever you have need of, for that journey down to the islands, for that journey over to the homelands of Israel, to your church, to your place, wherever it is, to your home. That's the Holy Ghost saying, "That's Me. I'm with you, go on. I'm leading the way. You just keep on moving. That's Me."

There's honey in the rock for you;
Leave your sins for the blood to cover,
There's honey in the rock for you.
(Shall we stand.)

Oh, go out to the streets and byways,
Preach the Word. . . .
Say to every fallen brother,
There's honey in the rock for you.

Oh, there's honey in the rock, my brother,
There's honey in the rock for you,
Leave your sins for blood to cover;
There's honey in the rock for you.

198 Now, look, don't want you to leave yet. I want you to see somebody standing near you, shake their hand, say, "God bless you, brother, sister." Whoever it is. Just turn right around. This is little old interdenominational Tabernacle. We're just on our journey, peculiar people. All right.

Take the name of Jesus with you,
Child of sorrow and of woe;
It will joy and comfort give you,
Take it everywhere you go.

Precious name! (Precious name!)
. . . . O how sweet.
Hope of earth and joy of heaven;
Precious name, O how sweet!
Hope of earth and joy of heaven.

Now, everybody look this way now. Let's:

At the name of Jesus bowing,
Falling prostrate at His feet,
King of Kings in heaven we'll crown Him
When our journey is complete.

Precious name, (Precious name,) O how sweet!
Hope of earth and joy of heaven.

Precious name, (Precious name,) O how sweet!
Hope of earth and joy of heaven.

199 Now, while we bow our heads to the Lord Jesus. It's been a great jubilee, a great feast, a Pentecostal feast on the Word, and the things of God, on His Holy Spirit. We want to pray God's blessings upon our missionary brethren, who are going into the field now, and God speed them right straight. We give you a promise. We'll be praying for you, brother and sister, their wives, or loved ones. Think what them women are going through with. I know by my own wife.

200 To the pastors, or Brother Jackson, and I guess Brother Beeler's back there and many other of the pastors, Teddy, back here a young minister. Many others who are here, we just pray God's blessings. A young brother here from down in the Church of God that we're to see this afternoon. We pray blessings upon him, evangelist, I believe it is, isn't it, brother? What is your name? Brother Ward? Morgan, Brother Morgan. Just so happy to have them all here.

201 And now, while we bow our heads now to Him and look. There's a humble little brother standing in the back of the building. He pulls a little wagon, I understand, across the nation. Lot of them know him as Prophet John. We call him Brother John around here. I always had a respect for the man, but the other day I was up visiting some friends of mine. That's Brother, Sister Jimmy O'Neil up at Sellersburg. That's the son-in-law of Brother and Sister Greene. They're present this morning.

202 And Brother John had been in their home and they told me what a real Christian gentleman he was. And they give me his life of what he had told them, and how he had come up through hard trials. And he's had a hard way. And we're going to ask him this morning if he'll dismiss this congregation, and ask his blessing from God upon this congregation. Will you do that for us, Brother Johnny? As we all bow our heads, and Brother John, if you'll dismiss us in prayer. . . .
